The Falls City Journal sold to local attorney Richard Halbert

Bill Schock, the former owner of the Falls City Journal, was associated with the Falls City Journal for 71 years. Bill started working for the Journal after he returned home from his service in World War II. Bill recently celebrated his 99th birthday and still contributes his writing talents to the Journal, something that will still be encouraged by the new owner. See "Hangin out the Warsh," Page 3.

The Journal Publishing Co., publisher of the Falls City Journal, has been sold to Falls City Attorney Richard L. Halbert.

The announcement was made by Geroge W. "Bill" Schock, president of the Journal Company.

The sale was effective Friday, September 1, 2017. It does not include the building which has housed the Journal since it was constructed in 1956.

The Journal Company was owned by Bill Schock, the estate of the late Scott Schock, and Laurie Schock Obbink of New York City. Bill Schock has been involved in the ownership since 1964, and the other two owners since 1995.

"We wanted the ownership to remain in Falls City," Schock said, "and Richard, who also has a Journalism degree from the University of Nebraska, fit the bill in all ways."

RICHARD HALBERT'S RESPONSE TO THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF BILL SCHOCK

Bill Schock, as he always has, has put our community first and made sure the Falls City Journal continues on and is locally owned. "Thank you Bill Schock."

I am honored to follow Bill Schock as Publisher. I insisted the following be put in the purchase agreement to purchase the Journal: "George William Schock shall have the right, but not the obligation, to have a column or article at any time published in the Falls City Journal..."

I am pleased to tell you that the present staff of Nikki McKim, Chelsie Alexander and Ron Dodds, have agreed to continue putting out the Journal with me periodically making an appearance in the Journal office to offer encouragement. Lori Gottula has agreed to continue to contribute her feature pieces. Brian McKim will be doing more sports reporting.

Paid subscriptions and advertising will continue as always.

Like so many of the Falls City Journal readers, I have been reading the Journal all of my life. I am sure it influenced me to get my undergraduate degree from the University of Nebraska College of Journalism before going on to Law

College.

Purchasing the Falls City Journal is the Halbert family's opportunity to give back to our community.

With your continued support I will see to it that "your paper" is taken good care of.

Finally, "Thank you, Bill Schock, I just hope I can be affiliated with the Falls City Journal as long as you have."

Falls City goes the distance to aid in hurricane relief

By Kaylie Ericson

Falls City is over 800 miles from the path of Hurricane Harvey, but distance has not stopped members of the community from reaching out to help in the relief efforts.

Holly Gresham was born and raised in Falls City, and while she is relieved that her extended family members in Louisiana are safe from the storm, she was determined to find a way to help others in need.

"I really wanted to help, but I can't just take off and go down [to Texas]," Gresham said. "I told my husband that I wished there was something I could do."

Through Facebook, Gresham found a woman named Lisa Hill, who would soon be traveling from St. Joseph, Mo. to Texas and was offering to take donations. Gresham sent Hill a message to ask if they could arrange for her to pick up any donations that Gresham could gather in Falls City. Hill agreed, adding that she would be traveling through the area to pick up donations from Hiawatha as well.

With the help of her family, Gresham began gathering items to donate before also posting to Facebook to advertise her home as a drop-off site for contributions from other people.

"I used a dry erase marker on my door that said 'Please leave donations, I'll be right back.' I came back from [visiting] my in-laws one night and my whole porch was full," Gresham said.

After only a few days, Gresham had almost collected enough donations of water, toiletries, food, clothing and toys to fill the living room in her house.

"It was amazing. I couldn't believe it," Gresham said. "I just remember my husband saying, 'Wow, Holly, that's crazy. You just made a difference.'"

Gresham said this is not the first time the Falls City community has come together for a cause. She recalls the town having designated drop-off sites in 2005 for donations for victims of Hurricane Katrina, and in 2010 she remembers Falls City High School selling wristbands to students to raise money for victims of the catastrophic earthquake in Haiti.

"If there is something we can do in the community, we really come together," Gresham said.

Although Katrina was one of the deadliest hurricanes ever to hit the United States, Harvey was a stronger storm that brought five times as much rainfall. Some places got 50 inches of rain, and as water levels begin to fall, Grisham said the next challenge that survivors will face is cleanup. Since floodwaters can contain raw sewage, agricultural and industrial chemicals, animal waste, and bacteria such as E.

Conklin Company, Inc. and BASF Corporation Lay ground work for future business expansion

Top leaders from the Conklin Company and BASF Corporation met yesterday in Houston, Texas, to lay the groundwork for future joint ventures in the commercial roofing industry, according to local businessman Charles Herbster.

For over a quarter century, BASF Corporation and the Conklin Company have had a successful national partnership in the spray polyurethane foam insulation business. Spray polyurethane roofing foam systems continue to gain market share in an increasingly cost-conscious and energy efficiency-driven business environment.

"BASF Corporation and the Conklin Company share the same fundamental commitment to quality and customer service. We are very excited to expand our business together in the North American commercial roofing market," stated Charles W. Herbster, Conklin Company Owner, President, and Chief Executive Officer.

German-based BASF Corporation is a highly respected chemical manufacturing company with global sales totaling over $70 billion annually. Dave Heineman, former Governor of Nebraska and member of the Conklin Company Board of Directors, spoke further about this relationship when he said, "Conklin Company Independent Distributors and roofing contractors hold a special place in the free enterprise system as business owners, entrepreneurs, and drivers of the U.S. economy. The Conklin Company and BASF Corporation have a large impact on the roofing industry and our collaboration together, both now and well into the future, is a very powerful combination."

Details of the expanded joint interests between BASF Corporation and the Conklin Company crafted during this meeting will be announced in the coming months.

Charles W. Herbster is the Owner and President of Herbster Angus Farms in Falls City, Nebraska and serves as the Chairman of the Agriculture and Rural Advisory Committee for President Donald J. Trump.

Celebrating Nebraska at the State Fair

By Governor Pete Ricketts

It's fair season in Nebraska, which means it's time to highlight the best the Good Life has to offer in agriculture, 4-H and FFA competitions, tasty foods, interesting exhibits, thrilling rides, and exciting entertainment. The county fairs held around Nebraska have already brought communities together at the local level, and now it's time for the premiere event: the Nebraska State Fair!

In 1868, a year after Nebraska was granted statehood, the Nebraska State Fair became the place where farmers and ranchers came together annually to show off prized produce and animals, delicious pies or canned goods, and beautiful homemade handiwork.

This year, the State Fair runs August 25th through September 4th in Grand Island. The Nebraska State Fair this year is a special one for many reasons. First and foremost, the 2017 State Fair is an official event of Nebraska's 150th birthday celebration, one of several events throughout the state honoring our heritage, citizens and diversity.

Special Sesquicentennial activities at this year's Nebraska State Fair include: A mobile children's museum called "Truckin' Through Nebraska", an old fashioned Chautauqua, historic re-enactors, a blacksmith, and an old time medicine show. The Grand Island community has also joined in on the fun by decorating more than 30 hay bales supporting the Nebraska State Fair's 150th birthday theme.

While the State Fair has evolved over the years, its heart and soul still centers on agriculture. Every day at this year's fair there will be a display featuring nearly 200 antique tractors and ag machinery demonstrations. And, of course, there are the traditional 4-H and FFA Market Animal Champion competitions.

Raising Nebraska, featuring interactive and informational ag displays, is one of the fair's must-see exhibits. This year, "The Amazing Egg" has been added to the Raising Nebraska exhibit. Through this display, visitors will discover how intricately eggs are structured, they will see an extreme, close-up look at the surface of an egg shell, and they'll get to manipulate a virtual egg yolk. This is especially timely considering the rapid expansion of the poultry industry in Nebraska with the opening of the new egg hatching facility near Grand Island and a chicken processing plant being constructed near Fremont.

One of my favorite "fair" traditions is the fun food. There will be classic fair foods like fried cookie dough, fried Ho-hos, fried pineapple, and corn on a stick from Manny's. There will also be new treats, such as Red-neck Ruben Burgers, Bacon Cinnamon Rolls, and Lolliwaffles. And, of course, my personal favorite: No State Fair visit is complete without a Cattleman's Beef Pit prime rib sandwich!

Other "can't miss" attractions include: the Draft Horse shows, High School Rodeo, a 70-ton sand sculpture, Sinbad's High Dive Show, an aerial motorcycle show, a Veteran's Day celebration and more. I'm also excited to join cattlemen from across Nebraska to judge and recognize the best bulls in the state during Thursday's Supreme Champion Beef Cattle Drive.

I'm always impressed with the many private/public partnerships that the State Fair encourages. One such partnership comes from Mid-Plains Community College. Mid-Plains will be bringing their grain bin extraction safety trailer to the Firefighters Combat Challenge. The Omaha Children's Museum will also present "Adventures at Sea: A Prehistoric Nebraska."

The State Fair has also successfully worked to become a certified Zero Waste Event each of the last three years. Eighty-five solar panels are being added to the Nebraska Building before the fair, the J-Tech Solar Sustainability Pavilion will feature solar power, recycling and nature preservation, and six local Natural Resource Districts have partnered together to host educational activities featuring Nebraska wildlife.

As Governor, I often tell people that one of my favorite parts of my job is traveling the state and getting to know the people and places that have made our state the Good Life for 150 years. The State Fair is always an incredible event, featuring the best food, fun and festivities that Nebraska has to offer. These exciting opportunities and more await you at this year's Nebraska State Fair. Details on all of these events can be found at www.statefair.org. If you want to share your plans for this year's State Fair or any other matter, email pete.ricketts@nebraska.gov or call my office at 402-471-2244.

Labor Day, football and political campaigning, it must be fall

Capitol View
By J.L. Schmidt
Statehouse Correspondent
Nebraska Press Association

The State Fair and Labor Day 2017 are history. The Cornhuskers have returned to the football field and a number of folks have cranked up the volume on political rhetoric. It must be Fall.

Time was when Labor Day marked the official start of campaigning for next year's elections. But that changed this year with early announcements from Governor Pete Ricketts that he was going to seek the Republican Party nomination for another term.

Almost as important were the un-announcements of former Governor Dave Heineman and former Legislative Speaker Mike Flood, both of who confirmed they would not challenge Ricketts for the party nod.

At the same time, Republican Senator Bob Krist of Omaha said he would leave the Republican Party to mount an Independent bid for governor. A risky move, but he avoids a head-to-head with Ricketts in the primary while facing the uphill odds of winning independent support. He has been seen as an independent Republican during his 10 years (one appointment, two terms) in the state Legislature, a seat he loses because of term limits.

Wendy DeBoer, a 43-year-old former university educator and attorney, is running for Krist's legislative seat. A Democrat, she is the first announced candidate for the District 10 seat in the officially non-partisan Legislature. She worked in Kansas City as an attorney and taught philosophy and religious studies at the University of Nebraska at Omaha for several years.

Speaking of Democrats, Machaela Cavanaugh of Omaha, the daughter of former Democratic Rep. John Cavanaugh, has announced she'll be a candidate for the Legislature's 6th District seat now held by Republican Joni Craighead who was first elected in 2014. John Cavanaugh served in Congress from 1977 to 1980 following four years as a state senator. The Cavanaugh family has been prominently involved in Democratic politics in Omaha for three generations.

Speaking of Congress, state Senator John McCollister, the son of former Republican Congressman John Y. McCollister, has announced his re-election campaign. The senator is an independent-minded Republican who has carved out a moderate record in the nonpartisan Legislature. That often placed him at odds with Ricketts who became heavily involved in last year's election by giving certain candidates money to run against Republicans who didn't vote his way.

McCollister knows that his re-election bid will be one of the most widely watched legislative races for that very reason. The governor's 2016 strategy of throwing money at challengers resulted in the ouster of three incumbent senators, fellow Republicans who opposed him on key legislative issues.

McCollister voted to override gubernatorial vetoes of legislation to repeal the death penalty, increase the state gas tax and allow young immigrants who have legal presence in the United States as so-called DACA youths to acquire Nebraska driver's licenses and earn professional and commercial licenses to work in the state.

There is no indication if Ricketts will repeat his strategy in the next election, but he has money and knows how to use it – even buying the best Legislature he can afford. I've said this before, it's his money and it's not illegal to do what he did. But it does bring a sleaze factor to what was once a very nonpartisan Legislature.

If there was a misstep in the recently completed legislative session, McCollister did not provide a vote to attempt to free from filibuster the big package of income tax cuts and property tax reductions that the governor championed.

Another independent Republican, Sen. Matt Williams of Gothenburg, has announced his candidacy for a second term representing the 36th District. He did cast a vote to attempt to free the governor's tax package this year. But, the Gothenburg banker did oppose Ricketts in 2016 on veto showdown votes over the death penalty, the gas tax, DACA driver's licenses and DACA professional and commercial licenses.

Ah yes, it's Fall. You can hear the crisp political palaver and see the money falling like leaves from the trees. Count the seasons: football, Thanksgiving, Christmas and the 2018 Legislature.

Hangin' Out

The Warsh by Bill Schock

On December 1, 1946, I walked in the door at 108 East 16th, said "hello" shook hands all around and joined the staff of the Falls City Journal as Sports Writer.

Seventy-One years later on Thursday, August 31, I said "So long," and walked out the side door of the Journal no longer on the newspaper staff.

It has been a great ride, as they say, thanks to the loyal subscribers of the Journal as well as the people of Richardson County and the faithful advertisers who have helped us keep the doors open.

I was cheap help with on-the-job training under the G.I. Bill. However, one of my majors at the University of Nebraska was Journalism. So I wasn't a complete blank.

My job was to cover Falls City High School sports as well as the sports of the Little Ten Conference Schools. The ten schools were Falls City Sacred Heart, Humboldt, Salem, Honey Creek, Dawson, Stella, Verdon, Bratton-Union, Shubert, and Rulo. The Little Ten was very competitive, and the fans were very faithful. I recall one football game when the Verdon coach had had enough of one mouthy fan on the sideline, went over and punched him, and then went back to coaching. At Rulo, the Superintendent/Coach at basketball practice was scrimmaging with his players. He went in for a layup, was fouled and when he went down his head hit the floor. He never regained consciousness and died a couple of days later.

So much for the Little Ten. That was before Doug Goltz took over as Sacred Heart Coach and won State Championships in football, basketball, and track.

After four years of writing sports, I took over the City Editors job. The great sports editors who followed me were Claire Hulbert, Del Sutherland, and Jason Schock, the latter introducing two column bold headlines and excellent action photos. Some other vivid memories over the 71 years:

- Floods-The worst of them all was the long Missouri River bluff-to-bluff flood of 2011. Everything along the river was under water for months. No crops. The flood of 1993 came right in there, the Ruynan- Pfister interests losing 500 head of cattle when the Missouri River flooded rapidly. I can recall taking photos in an airplane piloted by Jim Winsterman. We were over the flooded area when Jim remarked: "Bill we better hope this engine doesn't quit." It brought back memories of WWII flying over the North Atlantic. Same thing only four engines.

- Not a Pulitzer. A man came into the office and was pondering over the counter. Finally, he said I guess I'll keep on another year. It ain't the best paper in the world, but it is something to read." Another time a man brought an ad in for placement in the Journal, and when he was told the price, he said "the old man gave me a better price. The clerk said, "who's the old man?" He said "Bill Schock."

- County Fair, I reported the Coronation Program for a number of years, and it was always a good night. ---a hamburger and a slice of pie at The Stella Church food tent preceded a photo op of the queen candidates and their escorts in the basement of the Christian Church. The Reverend Ward Merritt, never at a loss for words, was the emcee for years and one night I remember he changed sports coats seven times during the colorful ceremony.

- Duty. One of my assignments was reporting city council meetings. Would you believe in 30 years doing so I reported 720 council meetings. Not all of them fun.

- Fires. The worst in my memory was the Surgro fire in the former Missouri Pacific Railroad 28-stall roundhouse on Palm Sunday in 1982. The burning chemicals" toxic fumes in the fertilizer productions were being wafted over the south part of town, and people living south of 14th street went to relatives" and friends" homes and Prichard Auditorium for the night. It was a national news story.

- Falls City High basketball. In 1973 the Tigers were playing for the Class B State Championship at the Coliseum in Lincoln. Hordes of Tiger fans descended upon Lincoln only to be told at the Coliseum doors that the place was sold out. Like a swarm of mad bees, we spread out over Lincoln to find television sets. So most of us watched the Tigers win the title in rented motel's dinky TV sets. I wrote a scathing article suggesting the tourney be held in a place that accommodated the teams" fans. I was told my name became mud in Lincoln. They didn't want to lose the big bunch of tournament dollars.

- Crowd Pleasers. The Horseplay Days parades were spectacular. Stone Street storefronts were filled with businesses in those days. Businesses on each side of the street vied for who had the most lavish float with young lovelies aboard. The first horse show at City Park drew upwards of 2,000 on-lookers. Then there were the Lions Club Minstrels at Prichard Auditorium. Then the Farmer-Merchant Banquets at Prichard, complete with home talent shows directed by Mary Tauchen-Whitehouse and long-time emcee Ed Hartman always announcing a crowd of 1,500. The FM banquets were for men only until one year when the entertainment was Kansas City dancing girls, very mild compared to what's seen on TV today, and wives, who had their own banquets, demanded their presence at the following banquets. They got it.

- Crime. Who can forget the two torture murders at the cult in Rulo or the three murders in a farm house south of Humbolt, and their aftermaths? The late Scott Schock did a fantastic job of reporting the investigations and the trials of those involved in both instances. Scott's work was highlighted in a movie made of the Humboldt murders.

- Tragedies. of course, the Braniff International air crash on August 6, 1966, topped them all. I was on the crash scene about two hours after the crash in which 42 people were killed, so the first description of the horrific scene to the Associated Press was by the Journal. It was an international story. The Journal covered the Air crash story every day for the following week until the crash site was cleared.

When Leo Nusbaum was writing the editorial column he signed it with his initials L.F.N. when I took over the column I decided to use my initials too, B.S. The next day, Roman Fleskoski came into my office and said, boy, you sure named that column right. My mother demanded a quick change.

During my time at the Journal, I have seen Falls City become a much more progressive community. Such as citywide approval of the remodeling of Prichard Auditorium, a state of the art Library and Arts Center, the Community Medical Center, the Aquatic Center, the Baseball and Softball Complex, Brenner Field, the best small town Airport in the three state area. Not to mention the local effort, under the leadership of Mitch Glaser getting us a new bridge over the Missouri River at Rulo. Another plus; the financing for two new elementary schools, the middle school and the renovation of Falls City High School, all with heavy Journal backing of the bond issues and the votes leading to the construction.

I would be remiss not to mention the great work done by Jason Schock, Nikki and Brian McKim, Chelsie Alexander and Ron Dodds the past several years or so as my efforts as been nil. They have been super co-workers, and I am so proud of the newspapers they have produced.

Most of it but certainly not all of it has been fun and rewarding. Way back when I was a German P.O.W. I told my 11 "roommates," "If I ever get out of this lousy place alive, I'm never going to leave the city limits of Falls City." They laughed and thought I was nuts, they had never heard of such a small town, but that's the way it's been.

Thanks again for all of your support these many years. I know that under the direction of its new owner Richard Halbert, the Falls City Journal will continue to be a good community newspaper you will want to read.

Of course, there's lots of other stuff, but this has been a smattering of 71 years of work at the Falls City Journal.

FC goes the distance to aid in hurricane relief

-coli and Salmonella, everything that was underwater is likely contaminated. Grisham said she plans to continue giving to hurricane victims by donating cleaning supplies and she encourages others to donate bottles and jugs of water for drinking and washing, as public water systems can be contaminated through flooding as well.

Just outside of Falls City is another member of the community who is going above and beyond to assist with disaster relief. Linda Williams, of Shubert, has a deep connection to the cause. She was raised in central Texas, and although she never had to worry about hurricanes while growing up, her family members in Houston are witnessing firsthand the devastation brought by Hurricane Harvey.

"I have lots of relatives that were in the direct path of the hurricane. My grandson just started college at the University of Houston. He had only been there one week when they had to be evacuated," Williams said. "He just barely got out of Houston the day it hit. It has been a real struggle for him to be displaced."

Williams visits her Texas family every three months and had been planning an upcoming trip to Houston to see her other grandson for his high school homecoming. When the hurricane tore through the city, she did not cancel her trip; instead, she decided to make the most of it.

"I just decided, since I was going during this time frame, that I would reach out to some people to tell them if they'd like to donate, I'll be taking my truck and I'll fill the bed of it and take what I can take," Williams said.

Like Gresham, Williams spread the word about her drop-off site via Facebook. She has already had a handful of contributions and will continue to collect what she can until she leaves for her trip on Sept. 14.

"I've got several people that are going to donate baby items, as well as water and toiletries. We're also going to be taking pet food to some shelters," Williams said.

Williams says she finds it important to ensure that donations reach the people who need them most. Instead of choosing one or two specific shelters, she intends to take items to a designated collection spot in Houston.

"We're taking it all to this place that will take it and distribute it to where it really needs to go," Williams said. "So it is a place where we know these donations will be used."

Williams asks anyone interested in donating to contact her on Facebook. National and Texas-based disaster relief organizations have shared online lists of items that victims and shelters need most, which include drinking water, diapers, baby wipes, toiletries, cleaning supplies, menstrual products and non-perishable foods.

"Also, if there is anybody who is without work and would like to travel down [to Texas] and work, they have numerous places for people to help," Williams said. "I know a lot of it is volunteer but a lot of the work is paid, too."

Tens of thousands of homes have been damaged or destroyed, and over 30,000 people remain in shelters. Additionally, the vast majority of the damaged homes are not insured against flooding - the Federal Emergency Management Agency estimates that 450,000 people will seek federal aid to assist with rent, repairs and lost property.

While water and tangible goods are going toward the thousands of people who are currently displaced from their homes, many disaster relief organizations have also stressed the importance of monetary donations for long-term aid and recovery. A list of trusted charities can be found at CharityNavigator.org.

Ken Burns' 'The Vietnam War' premieres Sept. 17 on NET

"The Vietnam War," a new, 10-part, 18-hour documentary film series directed by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick will premiere at 7 p.m. CT, Sunday, Sept. 17 on NET.

The first five episodes will air nightly Sept. 17-21, and the final five episodes will air nightly Sept. 24-Sept. 28. Each episode will premiere at 7 p.m. CT on NET with a repeat broadcast immediately following the premiere.

In this immersive narrative, Burns and Novick tell the epic story of the Vietnam War as it has never been told on film. "The Vietnam War" features testimony from nearly 100 witnesses, including many Americans who fought in the war and others who opposed it, as well as Vietnamese combatants and civilians from both the winning and losing sides.

Ten years in the making, the series brings the war and the chaotic epoch it encompassed viscerally to life. It includes rarely seen, digitally re-mastered archival footage from sources around the globe, including photographs taken by some of the most celebrated photojournalists of the 20th century, as well as historic television broadcasts, evocative home movies, and revelatory audio recordings from inside the Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon administrations.

On Sept. 17, concurrent with the broadcast premiere, the first five episodes of "The Vietnam War" will be available for streaming on all PBS platforms, including PBS.org and PBS apps for iOS, Android, Roku, Apple TV, Amazon Fire TV and Chromecast. The final five episodes will be available beginning Sept. 24. Members of NET Passport, an on demand library of PBS and NET programs, can view the entire series (all 10 episodes) beginning Sept. 17. The series will also be available via streaming in Spanish and Vietnamese.

Viewers are encouraged to join the conversation via social media by using #VietnamWarPBS.

Preview screenings of "The Vietnam War," also continue to take place across Nebraska. Visit net-nebraska.org/vietnam for dates and times of these events, plus related materials, photos, videos and more.

In addition, NET will collect stories related to "The Vietnam War" to include on this website. Stories can be sent to mflorenc@net-nebraska.org and should be no more than 500 words accompanied with a photo of the veteran.

"The Vietnam War" rounds out a trilogy of exploration of American wars by Florentine Films that began with Burns' landmark series, "The Civil War" (1990), followed by Burns and Novick's acclaimed seven-part series on the World War II, "The War" (2007).

Funding for "The Vietnam War" is provided by Bank of America; Corporation for Public Broadcasting; PBS; David H. Koch; The Blavatnik Family Foundation; Park Foundation; The Arthur Vining Davis Foundations; The John S. and James L. Knight Foundation; The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation; National Endowment for the Humanities; The Pew Charitable Trusts; Ford Foundation Just Films; Rockefeller Brothers Fund; and

F&M Bank announces September Hometown Spirit Award Winners

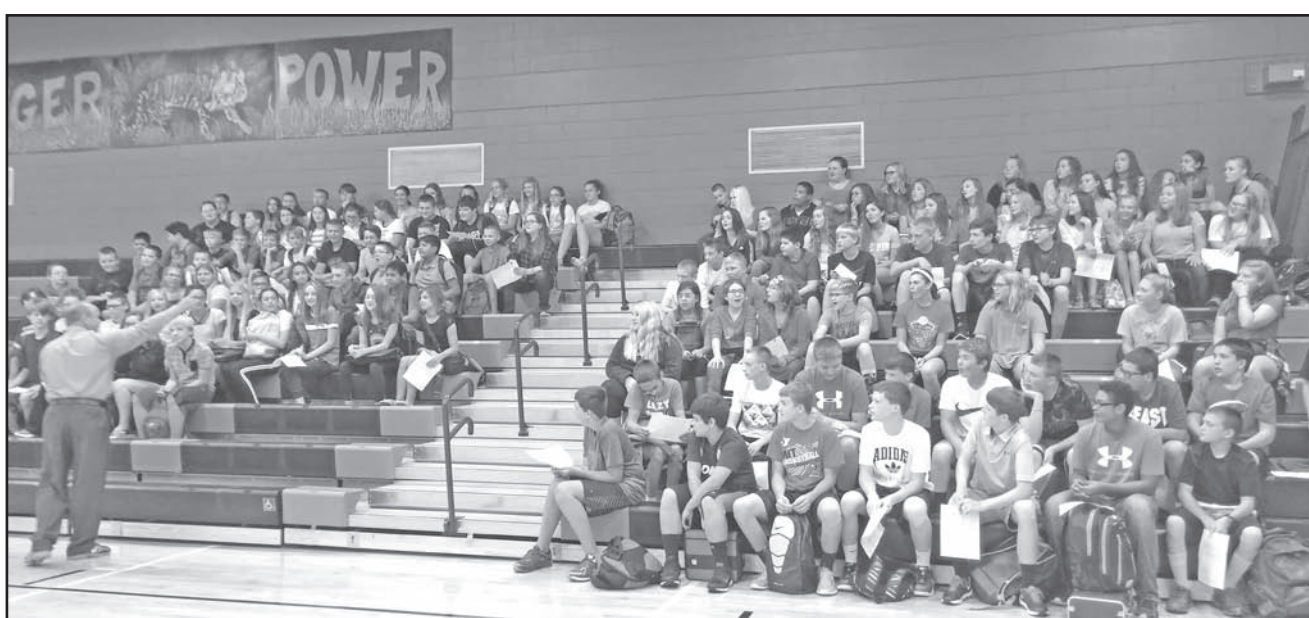

F&M Bank is excited to announce their September "You've Got the Hometown Spirit" award goes to the Falls City Volunteer Ambulance Squad! Last week, they presented members of the Falls City Volunteer Ambulance Squad with their "You've Got the Hometown Spirit" award certificate and a $50 donation.

The Falls City Volunteer Ambulance Squad was formed in April 1974. It's a volunteer based emergency medical service that provides ambulance services to the citizens of the Falls City, Rulo, Verdon, Salem, Stella, and Shubert areas. The current Squad roster includes: Dave Aitken-EMT, Nick Aitken-Driver, Dwaine Anno- EMT, Sarah Bangert- RN, Matt Beer- Driver, Rita Campbell- EMT, Tyler Cooper- Driver, Chip Ebel- Driver, Brandon Ewers- EMT, Jamie Frederick- Driver, Sarah Feighner-EMT, Jim Gerweck- EMT, Gary Jorn- EMT, Emma Kelly- Driver, Shelby Kreifels- RN, James Matson- Paramedic, Amy Olberding-EMT, Robert Olberding- Driver, Scott Richardson- Paramedic, Sheri Roys- Paramedic, Julie Shaffer- Driver, Katy Simpson- RN, and Shane Sutton- EMT. Two to three-person crews are on duty 24 hours a day. Although squad members are strictly volunteers, the average response is 2.5 to 3 minutes from the time of call until the ambulance is rolling out the door.

The Squad has three ambulances all equipped with defibrillators. One is also equipped with a LUCAS Chest Compression System which is used during CPR to compress the chest and another is equipped with heavy rescue equipment, i.e. the "Jaws of Life." The Falls City Volunteer Ambulance Squad launched a campaign in March to raise money for a new $135,000 ambulance, with plans to expand their service to include three-fourths of Richardson County, plus adding long distant transport service. To help with their fundraising efforts, F&M Bank had previously pledged a donation of $12,500. The Squad is self-sufficient financially, so any donations would be helpful. Donations from the public may be made to Gary Jorn at City Hall.

It takes a lot of time, dedication and courage to be on the Falls City Volunteer Ambulance Squad. The individuals that make up the Squad, many of which have 10-20 years of experience, work full-time jobs in addition to taking ambulance duty. F&M Bank is proud to recognize all the members of the Falls City Volunteer Ambulance Squad for their hard work and dedication to our community.

Please join F&M Bank in congratulating their September "You've Got the Hometown Spirit" award recipient!

First day of 2017 school year at FCMS a great one

The first day of school at Falls City Middle School began with a wonderful Cardboard Display of encouragement and treats for staff from the Partners in Education (P.I.E.).

The students were given schedules, went to the gym, and were led in some loud, motivating cheers by Mr. Mumford. Then the tradition continued with the VFW Auxiliary #1765 leading the students and staff through the Flag Raising Ceremony. Auxiliary members carried flags into the gym and then member, Glenda Nelson, led the students and staff in The Pledge of Allegiance and read a poem about the Flag and patriotism. Anne Crofford sang the National Anthem.

Mr. Huppert did an exciting introduction of the staff followed by some first day instructions from Principal Johnson and some Words of Wisdom from Mrs. Fankhauser, the Guidance Counselor.

The teachers then did a fun skit, with a music background, which set the stage for the eclipse and was certainly fun for the students. Students retired to their Homerooms for further explanation of expectations and then spent time in each of their scheduled classes.

First American Heritage Girls troop comes to Tri-State Area

Southeast Nebraska families have discovered a new extra-curricular organization for their daughters called American Heritage Girls (AHG). AHG is a faith-based character development program for girls ages 5-18 dedicated to the mission of building women of integrity through service to God, family, community and country.

AHG Troop KS2315 is the first AHG Troop in Northeast Kansas. It is chartered by the Northeast Kansas Lutheran Partnership.

Founded in 1995 in Cincinnati, Ohio, AHG has grown from ten troops and 100 members to more than 30,000 members across four countries and in 48 U.S. states. AHG continues to grow 30-50 percent each year, according to AHG national membership.

With an emphasis on faith, service and fun, girls choose from more than 240 badges, participate in service projects, leadership opportunities and outdoor experiences. Troops are led by adult volunteers who facilitate the AHG program while encouraging girl leadership. Faith-based organizations like churches, schools and civic organizations charter AHG to achieve their ministry goals for youth.

The troop will be hosting a parents informational meeting on Monday September 11th at 6:30pm at Zion Lutheran Church in Hiawatha. All interested families are invited to attend. More information can be obtained at www.ahgonline.org.

Public invited to Sept. 10 walk, ceremony to honor fallen military, first responders

1.3 million Steps for 1.3 million Fallen Heroes

On Sunday, Sept. 10, the Honor and Remember Nebraska Chapter will sponsor a walk followed by a 9-11 ceremony at the Heartland of America Park in Omaha. The public is invited to participate in the event that will honor and remember the 1.3 million service members who've died while serving since the Revolutionary War, as well as first responders who've died while serving.

Though the walk is 26 miles long, individuals are invited to walk any distance they choose from any point on the route. Organizer and director of the Honor and Remember Nebraska Chapter, Jim Meier, said the goal of the walk is to reach a total of 1.3 million steps to signify service and sacrifice of those who died. The walk is free and registration is not required.

The walk will start at 7:30 a.m. at 260 Riverside Dr. in Waterloo, and end at the Heartland of America Park around 4:30 p.m. A program will be held at 5 p.m. at the park on the northwest side of the lake, near the boat ramp. The will include a presentation of the colors, singing of the National Anthem and All Gave Some, Some Gave All, reciting the Pledge of Allegiance and brief talks.

"We hope Nebraskans will come out to show their support for the fallen military and first responders who gave their lives for us," Meier said. "People ask themselves, 'What can I do.' This is an easy yet powerful way to make a statement by yourself or with your family, friends and neighbors."

At the ceremony, there will be 30 stations to remember the fallen, from each major U.S. war and for those who died on duty or from injuries incurred while on duty. For the Afghanistan and Iraq wars, there will be stations for each year with the reading of the names by a Gold Star family member of Nebraska fallen in that year.

The event will be held rain or shine unless there is a thunderstorm. Lawn chairs are welcome. Portable toilets will not be available on the walk route.

Parking for the ceremony will be available near the park and in the Lewis & Clark Landing lot.

The all-volunteer Honor and Remember Nebraska Chapter presents special, personalized flags to families of the fallen as a tangible, national symbol of gratitude and a visible reminder that perpetually recognizes the sacrifice of military members who are killed in combat. The flag, inscribed with the service members' name, date and place of death.

Flags are provided to families through donations from individuals, organizations and families of the fallen. Donations for flags can be sent to: Dennis O'Connell, 11906 S. 52nd St., Papillion, NE, 68113.

For more information, contact Jim Meier, director of the Honor and Remember Nebraska Chapter, meier260@cox.net or (402) 490-9293.

Tigers stumble against Bluejays

By Brian McKim

The Falls City Tiger football team hit the road last Friday night to take on the Ashland-Greenwood Bluejays. The Tigers were looking to go 2-0 while the Bluejays were looking for their first win.

Things looked good early for the Tigers as the Bluejays fumbled the first snap of the game and Brandon Banks of FC pounced on top of it at the Ashland 27 yard line.

The Tigers were unable to take advantage and turned the ball over on downs. After a seven play and 75-yard drive, the Bluejays got on the board first with a three yard run by Bryce Kittrell with 7:32 to play in the first quarter. On the next Tiger drive, Kittrell scooped up a fumble and returned it to the Tiger five yard line, on the next play he scored making it 14-0 with 7:18 to play.

On the next drive, the Tigers were moving the ball, but an interception ended the drive prematurely. Two plays later the Bluejays connected on a 75-yard touchdown pass down the left sideline to take a 21-0 lead with 3:00 to play in the opening quarter. That would be it for the scoring until the Tigers finally got on the board with 5:59 to play in the half making it 21-7.

The Tigers began their possession on the Ashland 34 yard line after a big defensive stand. Seven plays and 34 yards later Colin Cook went right up the middle for the score. The big play of the drive was a completion on fourth and eight from Cook to Rudy Vrtiska down the right sideline for a 24 yard gain to set up first and goal from the nine-yard line.

Ashland came right back though when on third and 13 from their own 34-yard line Kittrell again shredded the Tiger defense for a 76-yard touchdown run with 4:51 left in the half.

The Tigers moved the ball well their next possession before turning it over on downs at the Ashland three yard line with 1:19. The defense held and forced a punt, which traveled only four yards but it hit a Tiger player, and the Bluejays recovered at their own 15-yard line with 22 left in half. FC couldn't catch a break the first half.

The second half didn't start well for the Tigers as Kittrell again took the wind out of the Tigers sails by going 80 yards for a touchdown with 9:08 to play in the third quarter making it 35-7.

The Tigers weren't giving up though as Cade Schawang capped off a five play 54-yard drive with a touchdown. After the PAT kick by Lucas Aldana, the Tigers trailed 35-14 with 10:29 to play in the game. Ashland came right back with an eight play 70 drive for a score making it 43-14 with 6:52 to play.

Falls City got one last score as Cook hit Noah Milam for an 18-yard touchdown pass with 4:08 to play. That would be it for the scoring as the Tigers fell 43-20. FC had four possessions inside the Bluejay five yard line and came away with no points.

"I thought initially we came out a little flat. Effort and execution were an issue. The lack of execution lead to turnovers, and some of our defensive let downs," said Coach Fritz.

Patrick Micheelsen led the way for the Tigers ground attack with 64 yards on eight carries. Collin Cook completed 11-24 pass attempts for 175 yards and one touchdown. Vrtiska caught six passes for 76 yards and led the way on defense with seven tackles while Cole Kirkendall had five.

The Tigers will travel to Fairbury next week to take on the 2-0 and Class C-1 #8 Jeffs. Fairbury has outscored its opponents 109-16 this season. Falls City beat Fairbury last season 14-13.

"Fairbury is a really good team and plays good team defense and has a very explosive and balanced offense. I think our kids will be excited to play them, great challenges provide great opportunities," said Coach Fritz.

Falls City came right back with two in the fifth to secure a 7-6 win. FC was out hit 11-4 but came away with the w.

Finally, in the third game of the day, the lady Tigers took on the host team Auburn.

Irish dominate Weeping Water Indians

By Brian McKim

The Class D-2 #1 ranked Irish completely shut down the Weeping Water Indians on Friday night at Jug Brown Stadium.

The Irish jumped out to a 36-0 lead after the opening quarter before finishing the contest with a 68-0 win. With the shutout, the Irish have outscored their opponents 118-0 so far on the young season.

The Irish kicked off to begin the game and forced a quick three and out. Two plays later quarterback Drew Bippes took it 35 yards on the ground for the score. The PAT kick was no good, and the Irish held a 6-0 lead two minutes into the game.

After another three and out the Indians were forced to punt and Sean Arnold returned it 32 yards to the Weeping Water 14 yard line. From there Arnold took it in on the second play from eight yards out for a score making it 14-0 after the PAT run by Christian Harring.

The Irish were back at it again after another three and out on defense, Harring took the handoff and rolled 50 yards on the first play for the score. Bippes ran in the conversion attempt, and the Irish held a 22-0 lead with 5:47 to play in the opening quarter. On the next Irish possession, Tristan Keithley caught a 27-yard pass from Bippes for the touchdown. The kick by Brady Keller was good and with 1:30 left in the quarter the Irish led 29-0.

On second down of the next Indian drive, Theo Rhorer hit the quarterback causing an interception by Tanner Cromer who rumbled 18 yards for the touchdown. The Keller kick was good, and the Irish held a commanding 36-0 lead after one-quarter of play.

In the second quarter of play, the Irish defense forced yet another punt, this time the snap was fumbled, and the Irish took over on the WW 34 yard line. Four plays later Arnold took it to paydirt from 14 yards out making the score 43-0 with 9:16 to play in the second quarter.

The Sacred Heart defense came to play Friday night forcing a three and out yet again. This time Jake Hoy capped off a 63-yard drive with a 12-yard scamper for the score making it 50-0 heading into the locker room.

The third quarter began with Austin Sells scoring on a 39-yard run to give the Irish a 56-0 lead. Not to be outdone freshman Kyle Bauman caught a deflected pass for the INT and returned it one yard for the score with 55 left in the third quarter.

The final score of the contest came with 1:24 on the clock as freshman Jack Feigener capped off a four play 40-yard drive with a one yard run for the score to give the Irish the 68-0 win.

Hard to believe but nine different players on the Irish 22 man roster scored a touchdown in the game. The Irish tallied 419 yards on the ground and 35 through the air while holding the Indians to just 23 rushing yards and 39 yards through the air.

The reserves got the bulk of the work Friday night with Austin Sells leading the way on the ground with 112 yards on nine carries. Harring and Ryker Hoy led the way on defense with each having seven tackles.

"We continually talk about challenging each other in practice and getting the most out of practices, so we are ready when that big game comes," said Coach Doug Goltz.

The Irish will be out of action this week with a bye week.

Irish JV FB roll to win

The Falls City Sacred Heart Irish junior varsity team hosted the Fremont Mills JV team at Jug Brown Stadium last Monday.

The Irish scored 42 unanswered points before Fremont Mills got on the board. The Irish held leads of 18-0 after the first quarter and 42-0 at halftime.

Sacred Heart finished the contest with a 56-6 win. Del Casteel had a rushing and receiving score and Jarrot Simon scored on a reception and on an interception to help pace the Irish.

Tiger VB girls split pair of games to start season

The Falls City Tigers volleyball season got underway last Thursday, with the lady Tigers splitting a pair of games.

In the first game Falls City faced the Titans from HTRS and fell in straight sets 25-13 and 25-12.

The Tigers bounced back in the second game with a two set win over Johnson County Central 25-20 and 25-18.

Tigers Cross Country off to a good start

By Brian McKim

The Falls City boys and girls cross country teams competed last Thursday in the Beatrice Invitational.

The boy's team has to replace Kyle Leafy who was a three-time state qualifier and a 13th place finisher at state last fall. On the girl's side, four of the five runners were lost to graduation.

According to Coach Hawley, the boys will be young this season, but they are motivated, "Many of the boys had great summer mileage, and I expect them to start the year well, but finish very strong."

For the girls, the Tigers will return Mazey McCullough, a state qualifier last year whom Coach Hawley expects to see her continue to progress. "I am excited about the number of kids competing for Falls City this year! Should be a good season for both boys and girls," said Hawley.

On Thursday for the boy's newcomer, Braden Kobza was the top finisher taking home a fourth place medal in 18:18. Mason Crawford also scored a medal for the Tigers coming in ninth in 19:35.

For the Lady Tigers Mazey McCullough ran a 22:46 for a sixth place finish and freshman Brenna Leyden came in ninth in 23:23.

Lady Irish Volleyball improve to 3-1

The Falls City Sacred Heart Irish volleyball team opened the season on August 24, with a game against Lourdes Central Catholic.

The Irish came away with a win in three sets 25-21, 25-19 and 25-13. The Irish were in action over the weekend as well as they took part in the Weeping Water Invitational. The morning began with a win over East Butler in two sets 25-10 and 25-23.

In the next contest the Irish faced the Conestoga Cougars and made quick work of them 25-8 and 25-9. In the final game of the day the Irish fell to HTRS in the finals 25-19 and 25-20 and settled for a second place finish.

Six family activities to be enjoyed indoors and outside

(StatePoint) If spending more time together is on your family's to-do list, consider the following tips and ideas to make the most of each experience.

- Run a 5K. Encourage the entire family to get active by participating in a 5K. Whether you walk, run or a do a bit of both, this is a distance that many people of all ages can accomplish with some preparation. For bonus family time: train together in the weeks leading up to the race, then plan a special meal or outing afterwards to celebrate your collective accomplishment.

- Watch a movie. Get the family together, and even consider making it a party by inviting a few friends and neighbors for the ultimate gaming or movie night. With a projector, you can enjoy a film or video game indoors or out. Look for low-maintenance and energy-efficient projectors that offer convenience, such as the SLIM series from Casio. Their latest models offer increased light output for improved colors. Lightweight, they make an easy, portable choice, whether movie night is in the living room, the backyard, or around the block.

- Play a game. You don't need any special equipment to hold a family game night. Play charades, 20 questions or Botticelli. These are all fun guessing games that require you to think fast and work together.

- Get outdoors. Get yourself somewhere beautiful for a hike, bike or kayaking trip. Use new technology to enhance the experience and help you fully enjoy the adventure. For example, the new WSD-F20, a smart outdoor watch from Casio, is equipped with built-in, low-power GPS and full color map functionality that can be used offline to track your location, even when you're offline. Apps allow you to add notes to otherwise unmarked spots on the map to help you return to that ideal viewpoint or fishing spot.

- Volunteer. Most communities have plenty of one-time volunteer opportunities appropriate for kids and families. However, you can also create your own opportunities if no formal programs exist locally. From cleaning up the park to delivery groceries to a family in need, volunteering as a family is a great way to spend time together.

- Make Music. Explore your musical creativity by playing and remixing your own music. Consider using new technology such as the Dance Music Mode on Casio's LK-265 portable keyboard. Learn your favorite songs with the keyboard's lighted keys and remix the tracks. Choose from 50 styles of electronic dance music with different variations of drum beats, bass lines, and synth parts, as well as effects to polish tracks.

Falls City man accused of helping murder suspect flee state

A Falls City man has been accused of helping Desiderio Hernandez feel after the fatal shooting of Joseph Debella Jr. in 2015.

Michael Seager is charged with being an accessory to a felony. Records indicate that Seager drove Hernandez to Horton, Kansas after Debella was shot on the night of August 5, 2015. Seager remains in custody.

Families are getting savvy paying for college

(StatePoint) College costs may be on the rise, but families are as determined as ever to make higher education a reality for their children.

According to "How America Pays for College 2017," a national study from Sallie Mae and Ipsos, students and parents shared paying for college responsibilities equally in academic year 2016-17, each contributing about one-third of the expense.

In addition, 98 percent of families surveyed took proactive measures in order to reduce college costs. That included choosing an in-state school, living at home, and enrolling in an accelerated program.

"Throughout our 10 years of conducting this study, families have consistently demonstrated they are determined to make college happen, and they've also become more value-conscious as they pay for higher education," said Raymond J. Quinlan, chairman and chief executive officer, Sallie Mae.

For those families with college-bound students, Sallie Mae recommends a 1-2-3 approach.

Maximize money that doesn't need to be repaid. Scholarships and grants paid 35 percent of college costs last school year; and scholarships were used by 49 percent of all families.

You can get in on this action by utilizing free scholarship search tools from companies like Fastweb, Chegg, and Sallie Mae. To stay organized, maintain a spreadsheet of each scholarship's details, including application due dates.

Explore federal student loans. All college-bound students should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, no matter what they believe their eligibility is - and repeat this every year they are in school.

Consider a responsible private student loan. Regardless of cost, nearly all families (98 percent) agreed college is an investment in a student's future, and 86 percent of families said they expected their child to attend college since he or she was pre-school age or younger.

The project committee will be taking a closer look at these projects and analyzing construction delivery methods that best suit the school district's needs. Furthermore, community input, project design, financing options and a possible partnership with the Southeast Community College Learning Center all play major roles in developing a timeline and moving a project forward. Nearly all projects scheduled for completion over the summer months are wrapping up.

2.4e Funds Transfer to Depreciation (ICI) Fund: The Depreciation Fund is supported by end-of-the-year transfers from the General Fund. The Depreciation Fund supports the annual textbook and technology plan, and has also been used to replace depreciated items such as the band and choir uniforms at the high school. The fund provides an avenue to support the eventual purchase of costly capital outlay by reserving such monies from the General Fund. The transfer from the General Fund to the Depreciation Fund will be $140,000.

2.4f e-Funds for Schools On-Line Payments System: This unique program has been designed specifically for schools and can be implemented at virtually no cost to the school. The program allows parents to pay the school by having their personal checking account or credit card electronically debited, thereby eliminating checks and cash they now send to the school with their children; saving the school time and money. The district expects the on-line payment system to be up and running by early fall 2017.

Tubach and Tubach, The Collector's Eye

By Lori Gottula

This Friday night, September 8, an exciting new art show will open in the Stalder Gallery of the Falls City (NE) Library and Arts Center. The show opens with a light reception at 6:30 p.m. A gallery talk, featuring artists Allan Tubach and Lisa Tubach, will follow at 7:00 p.m.

According to Christina Wertenberger, curator of the gallery, the show is titled, "Tubach to Tubach: The Collector's Eye," and will feature paintings by former Falls City native, Allan Tubach, and his daughter, Lisa. The paintings are in the permanent collection of the Falls City Library and Arts Center, having been donated by collector Merle Stalder. Stalder began collecting Allan Tubach's work decades ago, and through that relationship, became friends (along with his late wife, Marsha) with Allan and his wife, Dorothy. When their daughter, Lisa, also began selling her art work, the Stalders became one of her biggest supporters. As a result, the Tubachs decided to honor Merle by holding a combined show for the collector. "Tubach and Tubach, The Collector's Eye" was born.

Allan Tubach is a native of Falls City, having graduated from Falls City High School in 1957. According to a press release about his work, he has been described by National Geographic Magazine as "One of the Midwest's outstanding painters, who explores the essence of life on the great American prairie."

The release also stated that "Tubach's paintings are included in over 500 private, public and corporate collections nationwide. His work has been shown in galleries and museums throughout the United States and in Paris, Tokyo and Warsaw. Tubach was a recipient of the 1988 Nebraska Governor's Arts Award."

As if that were not enough, the show will feature Allan's daughter, Lisa, as well. She is currently a professor of art in the School of Art, Design and Art History at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA. She teaches in both the undergraduate and graduate programs.

According to her press release, "Lisa Tubach's creative work has been exhibited in numerous solo and group exhibitions throughout the U.S. and internationally through opportunities in France, Scotland and Japan. Current gallery representation includes Lorrie Saunders/Pop Blossom-Art Gallery (Norfolk, VA), Anderson O'Brien Fine Art (Omaha, NE) and through artist registries, including The Painting Center (NYC) and The Washington Project for the Arts (DC). Her work is also represented by the "Art-in-Embassies" program of the U.S. Department of State, and has been a part of group shows in Peru and Suriname.

This gallery opening and art show promises to impress the novice all the way up to the art critic. And it's right here in Falls City. Mark this Friday on your calendar. The Falls City Library and Arts Center is the place to be.

The show is sponsored by the Richardson County Arts and Humanities. It will hang in the Stalder Gallery through October 21. For more information, contact Christina Wertenberger at (402) 245-6034.

Falls City Does hold Supermarket Sweep

The Falls City DOES were looking for something fun to do to raise money and landed on something that hadn't been done before, a spin on the classic game show, Supermarket Sweep.

Nancy McKim got the ball rolling by contacting Angie Phroper at Sun Mart to see if they would be willing to work with them. Once it was a go, the organization sold tickets to earn a spot in a quiz competition held during Cobblestone weekend. Around 200 tickets were sold, and three chances were drawn. The three finalists who chosen for the 'sweep' were Ben Simpson, Sharon Walker, and Jenny Strecker.

Jenny Strecker answered the most trivia questions correctly and was chosen to take on the challenge of running through Sun Mart collecting as much as she could in the short amount of time she was given. She had several obstacles along the way with masked gorillas, a cow and a pig trying to keep her from getting all she could.

In the end Jenny was able to fill a few grocery carts and the DOES were able to earn money to donate to the Backpack Program, the Richardson County Cancer Fund, Summer Rec., SENCA, the Chasin' Dreams Benefit, Dogs for the Deaf, and the Falls City Sacred Heart and Falls City High School After Prom parties.

"I think all who participated and those watching had a great time, and our little animal friends that helped out did a great job!" said Nancy McKim.

 Away they go, whooshing toward someplace where there's lots of green land and a far-arching abundance of sky. All hands are sparkle-eyed with vigor and vim, even mother, although she had to start doing chores at six a.m. to get this show on the road by eight. (Ignore Spot-eye, the dog, who is just taking a cat nap). In due time the food is eradicated, the gang's vigor is renewed, the dog takes a dog nap, and mother applies her vim--to doing chores. And by and by in artist John Falter's purple night everybody passes out except you know who, there at the wheel--and for heaven's sake, look who has come to in the back seat! Mother doesn't reflect that a woman's work is never done; what she does think is, They're my babies, including old batter-out here beside me, and I love taking care of them all.
