The Big Red's bye week sure makes a dull October Saturday afternoon for the multitude of us Cornhuskernuts.

Spooks on the Square’

The Falls City Chamber Main Street will be hosting its annual “Spooks on the Square” from 4:30-6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 31. Along with trick or treating downtown merchants, there will be mini hay rides, a “spooky” photo booth, as well as carnival games and booths.

At 5:30, all “spooks” will gather at the downtown mini-park for the “Spooks on the Square” costume contest. This year the costume contest will have a youth division, an adult division (best costume), as well as a Best Overall “Spooks on the Square” costume winner. The youth division will be broken down into the following categories: Most Creative/Homemade, “Spook”iest/Scariest, Most Comical/Funniest, and the Best Celebrity Look-Alike.

New this year will be a “Spooks Across Town” ghost hunt. “Spooks” will be hidden at participating Chamber Main Street merchants across town the week of Halloween. The “ghost finders” will bring their “spooks” to the Chamber Main Street booth at the “Spooks on the Square” event in exchange for prizes such as gift certificates, discounts and free merchandise from the participating retailers. Ghost hunters are limited to one spook per person.

An Affair to Remember

By Nikki McKim

Dyan Cannon - a name that is lost on so many.

Some may recall that she’s that Lakers’ fan with the amazing hair. Others my age may remember her from “Ally McBeal.” Some may even remember her from “Heaven can Wait” or “Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice.” However, most people know her from her turbulent marriage with actor Cary Grant.

Having read every single Cary Grant biography, this is where I was first introduced to Dyan Cannon. She was married to Cary Grant for three years and bore him his only child. She was also the first woman in the history of the Motion Picture Academy to be nominated for Oscars both in front of and behind the camera.

Dyan Cannon is a bit of a question mark to my generation. Until 2011 when she released her book “Dear Cary,” I was a little scared to read it. Would she speak of him unfavorably? Would the image of Cary Grant finally be shattered? Many had never really understood their paring. The elephant in the room is the 33-year age difference between them. Plus, the romantic dreamer in most of us wanted Cary Grant to marry Irene Dunn and live happily every after.

Dyan’s book wove a tale of love and romance from the start. She fell for his charm (who wouldn’t) and he fell for her youthful spunk. They were married for three years before they split. Dyan and Cary continued to jointly raise their daughter Jennifer until his passing in 1986.

After reading this book I had newfound respect for Ms. Cannon. She had married and divorced the most beloved actor and man of all time. That’s pressure nobody wants to know.

When my sister Cori heard that Ms. Cannon would be starring in a play in Overland Park, KS, she thought this would be the ideal birthday gift for me. So a few weeks after 30th birthday we made our way to Overland Park to The New Theatre’s Saturday night showing of Ken Ludwig’s play, “The Fox on the Fairway” starring Dyan Cannon.

“The Fox on The Fairway” is a comedic play written by Ken Ludwig in 2010, set against the backdrop of an annual golf tournament between two rival clubs. Jim Korinke played Bingham, the Quail Valley president who

At the north end of Main Street in Stella are the Arboretum and Greenhouse, maintained by members of the Stella Garden and Research Clubs. This area was shared with more than 90 folks Saturday evening, when the two clubs hosted “An Evening of Art,” displaying the works of some very talented people, offering refreshments and letting visitors see just part of what this Richardson County community has to offer.

I’ve been impressed with those who call Stella and Shubert home for about as long as I’ve been at the Journal — almost 40 years. Early on, when Bill, Del and Marj were trying to figure out what to do with me, I spent many days (and Friday nights) at Southeast Consolidated School, getting stories about neat things that were happening at the school and photographing Mustang football games. Faculty members and staff were always forthcoming and friendly and more than willing to provide a young (then) and inexperienced reporter a snapshot of the progressive education that was taking place in the classrooms of a school they were so very proud of. With good reason.

In those days, Richardson Countyans, in one way or another, supported five school systems: Humboldt, Southeast, Dawson-Verdon, Falls City Public and Sacred Heart. DV and Southeast were forced to close. Humboldt consolidated with Table Rock and Steinauer. Today, three schools educate youngsters that five used to do. Long before that (check out Bill Schock’s 50 years ago column) there was a school in almost every village in the county.

The citizens of those communities could not afford to maintain their schools. That’s just the way it is. Dwindling enrollments and increased education costs took a toll. I’m not sure it’s for the better.

In Stella (not exclusively), an education is still available. The Arboretum and Greenhouse offer it. So do libraries in our county villages. And a variety of educational programs are only a drive away at the Falls City Library and Arts Center. I hope parents and kids are taking advantage of those programs.

When I arrived at the Arboretum and Greenhouse in Stella Saturday evening, a young guy in a golf cart offered a ride from my car to the site. It was only a short way and I can use all the exercise I can get, so I declined. But it was a nice touch (and I know whose golf cart it was; one of those teachers I used to enjoy talking with at Southeast).

Upon entering the Greenhouse, I was just about floored by what I saw — a variety of art that would be welcome in any home or on any wall. Beautiful works, created by skilled and talented people who have that special eye and the ability to translate what they see onto the medium in which they work. I envy that ability and admire those talents.

Artists who had works on display included Beth Eickhoff, oils and pastels, Chris Joy, oils, Diana Rieschick, oils and porcelain, Barb Ely, oils, Vicki Beilke, photography, Ernie Werner (at age 92), tramp art, Anna May Whittington (at age 96!), folk art, Linda Aue, folk art, Janet Kirkendall, stamping and stenciling, and Jan Mason, quilting. Each artist — and they are all artists — had their best on display and each was more than willing to talk about their creations. The interaction only added to a fun evening. You should have been there. You missed out on some excellent food and refreshments, as well.

As I was getting ready to leave, I spoke briefly with Jerry and Chris Joy. Chris, whose mom, Camilla Banks taught me in junior high, showed me the Arboretum pond and some of the grounds. My thought was, “What a perfect, quiet, beautiful place to sit, relax and read a book.” Or just take in the sights. Stella has a special place here and I’m sure there are Garden Club and Research Club members who’d love to show you.

Another compliment for Stella and its citizens: While typing the Sept. 10 Village Board minutes I noticed something a bit unusual, but heartening. In addition to Chairman Joy and all of the board members present, Clerk Vicki Owings recorded the presence of 12 guests. From what I could tell, those guests weren’t present to gripe or moan or protest one thing or another. They were just there to participate. I think that’s the way democracy is supposed to work.

To Falls City and the Surrounding Communities:

In behalf of Peru State College and its athletic department, I would like to publicly thank you for your support of our football program.

Thank you to the Falls City Public Schools for being willing hosts for our games on Oct. 5 and Oct. 19. There was a tremendous help from your staff before and after each game.

Thank you to all who came out and supported us at both games. The turnout for our Hall of Fame Game this past weekend with Culver-Stockton College was outstanding. Those inducted into the Hall of Fame were happy with the crowd and acknowledgment they received at halftime. And of course, your support helped us win another close one!

Thank you, too, for your continued support and we hope many of you will follow us on our other “home away from home” games in Nebraska City on Nov. 2 and 9. The Nov. 2 game will be Homecoming so you can come to Peru, run the “Toughest Mile,” go to the parade, and enjoy festivities on campus before heading to Nebraska City. Then, on Nov. 9, we will be recognizing our 18 seniors.

Again, your support of the Bobcat football program is much appreciated.

Sincerely,
Steve Schneider

Poll: Rural Nebraskans rethink water priorities in wake of drought

Eighty percent of rural Nebraskans with farming interests experienced a loss of business income because of last year’s drought, according to the Nebraska Rural Poll.

Poll responses also indicated rural Nebraskans’ priorities for water uses have shifted since they last were surveyed on the issue, in 2004.

The 18th annual University of Nebraska-Lincoln poll was sent to 6,320 households in Nebraska’s 84 nonmetropolitan counties in March and April. Results are based on 2,317 responses.

Nebraska was wracked in 2012 by what has been described as the worst drought in at least 50 years. Eighty-eight percent of rural Nebraskans with occupations in agriculture reported decreased farm production in 2012, with 42 percent saying they experienced this to a great extent.

Eighty percent of respondents said they lost income. While national reports tended to focus on the near-record farm income levels due to higher prices, the poll shows that for Nebraskans in the middle of the drought, price increases could not overcome production losses.

“It serves as a reminder that agriculture faces unique production and economic risks and points to the critical nature of delayed action in Washington, D.C. over future agricultural policy,” said Brad Lubben, UNL public policy expert.

With memories of that drought in mind, rural Nebraskans also appear to be rethinking priorities for water use. Seventy-three percent rated indoor use in existing homes as a high priority; 56 and 51 percent listed livestock and crop irrigation, respectively, as high priorities. In 2004, only 48 percent of respondents listed livestock as a high water-use priority.

Only 28 percent of respondents listed indoor use in new housing developments as a priority use, and only 10 percent listed outdoor recreation, down from 34 and 18 percent, respectively, in 2004.

Poll respondents seem to be saying “we can’t just build businesses and homes and add new uses without knowing the water will be there,” said Lubben.

Randy Cantrell, rural sociologist with the Rural Futures Institute, added: “There’s a message here for economic developers. They have to be participants in these discussions about water.”

Seventy-three percent of poll respondents said they had voluntarily reduced water use in response to last year’s drought.

“That strikes me as a positive note about rural Nebraska’s willingness to contribute,” Cantrell said.

Also, 75 percent reported loss of wildlife and wildlife habitat.

The Rural Poll is the largest annual poll of rural Nebraskans’ perceptions on quality of life and policy issues. This year’s response rate was about 37 percent. The margin of error is plus or minus 2 percent. Complete results are available online at <http://ruralpoll.unl.edu>. The university’s Center for Applied Rural Innovation conducts the poll in cooperation with the Nebraska Rural Futures Institute with funding from UNL Extension and the Agricultural Research Division.

Sez ‘I’
Veteran’s Day

Recently, the Congress applauded themselves for ending the Government shutdown they imposed for failing to do the job they had been elected (hired) to do for the American people. Americans should have been outraged by this and these employees should be fired. While millions of Americans suffered, they continued to get paid and live as though life was unaffected. . . . like they were privileged above all others.

Since the founding of this nation, our very values and freedom have been preserved and protected by a small group of volunteers willing to give up all; family, friends, comfort, regular meals, warmth, communication, even their lives to ensure that their countrymen will never know hardship, want, pain, or loss of those values and freedom. These are the Veterans that walk silently among us and ask for nothing and would never think of applauding themselves for doing their job, particularly after doing it late and incompletely!

Today, less than one-half of 1% of the American population serves in the military. People complain about our defense budget, yet we have one of smallest Army’s for a country our size in the world with all that we do and are responsible for. That’s the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines and Coast Guard and Active Duty National Guard and Reserves. If Falls City were to be attacked by a highly trained terrorist group, we would have about 12-15 military people among our 4,000 population to defend our town. Do you think we could close off all the access points into Falls City with 12-15 Soldiers?

All we want to do now is forget about the wars and the veterans. If it didn’t involve you or someone you knew . . . then so what? If you were against the wars . . . then so what? Who cares about the veterans? They volunteered; it’s their own fault if they got hurt or injured or killed, not mine! I can say that all Americans owe their freedom to the Veterans of America’s military, but it has little meaning because most Americans take their freedom for granted. They have never been without it. Americans as a rule have never known hardship, want, pain or loss as a result of war, or conflict or terrorism . . . so they can’t appreciate what any Veteran has ever done on their behalf. Only the Veteran that has been there — has experienced that hardship, that pain, that loss — can know and so he will continue to walk silently among his countrymen and salute the flag and weep when another is laid to rest, because he knows. He knows.

Guest Editorial

From the Desk of the Richardson County Treasurer:

After multiple questions were brought forth in my office, I invited Sergeant Thede and Trooper Schoen of the Nebraska State Patrol to the Richardson County Treasurer’s office to discuss proper use of farm plates. They were both happy to oblige to the request, and met with my office staff and Commissioner David Sickel on Monday, September 30th, 2013. The following is both the statute reading, and various topics of discussion we had dealing with farm plates.

Farm plate use is defined in Section 60-325 of the Nebraska Legislature. It reads as follows:

Farm truck means a truck or sport utility vehicle, including any combination of a truck, truck-tractor, or sport utility vehicle, and a trailer or semitrailer, of a farmer or rancher (1) used exclusively to carry a farmer’s or rancher’s own supplies, farm equipment, and household goods to or from the owner’s farm or ranch, (2) used by the farmer or rancher to carry his or her own agricultural products to or from storage or market, (3) used by a farmer or rancher in exchange of services in such hauling of supplies or agricultural products, or (4) used occasionally to carry camper units, to tow boats or cabin trailers, or to carry or tow museum pieces or historical vehicles, without compensation, to events for public display or educational purposes.

So what does this mean? A vehicle that is plated as a farm truck is to be solely used for the purpose of farm operation with the exceptions listed in section (4). My staff questioned various scenarios dealing with farm plates.

1) “Can I plate my SUV as a farm truck?”

The answer is yes and no. If you are using an SUV to retrieve household goods then yes it can be farm plated. If you are using the SUV to drive to and from your office job in town, then no, it should not be farm plated.

2) “Can someone drive their farm plated truck into town for lunch?”

Yes, you can. Both officers made note that part of a farm operation is that the farmer needs to eat, whether that be at home or at a restaurant in town.

3) “Can a student drive a farm plated truck to school?”

Students should really not be driving farm plated trucks to school. If they have a truck that they want to drive it should be licensed as commercial. The minimum commercial weight is the same price as a farm plate, and can still be used in farm operation just as a farm truck is.

4) “Can I use a farm truck and trailer to move my child to a new house or college?”

Yes, you can. It is the transportation of household goods to or from the owner’s farm.

The key to remember with farm plates is that you must be doing something that completes a task needed by the farm. Buying groceries, going out for lunch, driving somewhere for parts all complete a function that keeps that farm operating and therefore is allowable with a farm plate.

If you do not fall into just one category then there are two options. The first option is to plate the vehicle as commercial. Commercial Plates can be used correctly in nearly every situation. The second option is to double plate the vehicle. You are allowed to display multiple plates at the same time when double plating. For example, you can plate a truck as Commercial for driving to a job in town, and also plate it as Farm with more weight for your farming activities. If you have more questions the following website is a great tool to learn more about the DOT, IFTA, CDLs, UCRs, and many other points that truck operators should know.

My office greatly appreciated the fact that Sergeant Thede and Trooper Schoen were willing to answer our questions. I feel the meeting proved very informative. believes this year is his club's year to win. Playing the rival Crouching Squirrel president and token "bad guy" (Dickie) was Mark Robbins. The two men decide to place a $2 million wager on who will win this year's tournament. Dyan Cannon plays Dickie's ex-wife (Pamela), who is willing to help Bingham beat her ex-husband at all costs.

I am not a theatre reviewer and won't be able to really do this play any justice but, there are classic mishaps, a parental surprise and in the end, lots of love.

Each moment Ms. Cannon entered the stage, whispers rippled through the theater. Ms. Cannon who, at 76 sported some skin-bearing outfits that I wouldn't have been able to pull off on my best day at 17. Every single outfit complimented her mile high heels. I was so nervous she would fall. I forgot we were dealing with a pro here. She was amazing. It was all too easy for me to forget her age. My lord, if I can even wear heels at 40 I will celebrate, but heels and belly baring tops. That, my friends, deserves an award!

I don't think my eyes ever left her. As soon as she walked out onto the stage the atmosphere changed. It was electric. While it was difficult to depict a golf tournament on stage, I personally thing they nailed it. I loved the music, the set, the actors, the story, and the dinner.

Once the play was over it went from amazing to absolutely perfect. The cast bowed, we clapped and it was over. There Dyan Cannon stood alone on stage. What would she say, what would she do? First she thanked us for being a great audience and mentioned how much she really enjoyed Kansas City and its residents. Then it happened: A Cary Grant story.

As soon as she mentioned him the room fell silent. She then proceeded to tell the story of how she accompanied Cary Grant to Jamaica while he filmed "Father Goose." During one of his afternoons off they went to the beach. As Cary swam in the ocean, Dyan sat on the beach. Suddenly she heard him screaming in pain. She started to go in after him but he told her not to. He screamed as he made his way to the shore. His leg was aflame with spines of a Sea Urchin.

When they got inside the maid came running in and whispered to Dyan, "Only one cure for that mam, you got to make water on the sting." Dyan looked at her confused as to what she was hinting at. The maid then got to the point," You know, go to the bathroom on it" In shock, Dyan yelled, "I have to pee on his leg?"

After she realized the maid was serious she told Cary to go into the bathroom because she knew how to fix it. She told him to put his leg in the tub. After some back and forth, Dyan dropped her pants and straddled his leg. She couldn't believe she was about to pee on the leg of the biggest movie star in the world. After a few tries and battles with "stage fright," she was able to do it and it worked.

Cary told her after, "I never thought I'd thank anyone for taking a pee on me, but right now it seems like about the nicest thing anybody's ever done for me, thank you." And that was the story about how she peed on Cary Grant.

She finished by speaking a bit about her book, Cary Grant, Saturday Night Live and Chevy Chase before she exited the stage.

Brian and I went in search of the stage door and waited to possibly meet her. The lead male actor walked out and asked if we were waiting for Dyan. I confessed that we were. He told us we could go on inside. We didn't argue, we went on in and stood by a door marked "Dressing Room."

The security guard started down the hall right for us and I knew we were cooked. He told us we could come on in a bit further to keep warm. Then we waited. My hands were shaking, and my mouth went dry. I was a wreck.

The door opened and there she was. All 75 lbs of her (mostly hair). I asked her for photo. Brian took my phone and started snapping. I kept telling myself to calm down and not to pass out. Try as I might, I was a total crazy person. She had her two little Chihuahuas with her. As my sister and brother-in-law pet and talked to her about her dogs I sat and creepily smiled. I was too nervous to join the conversation.

The entire time this I was holding her book and a Sharpie. I was so nervous I didn't ask her to autograph it. We said our goodbyes and walked out the door. Meeting someone famous is scary. What happens if they are rude or brush you off? They could ruin your image of them in a matter of seconds. She didn't. She was sweet and patient with us.

Sunday morning I went right for my computer. I had to write everything down before I started to forget the little things. I published it on my little blog that only a handful of family and friends ever read.

Tuesday morning I received an email at work from a lovely man who works at The New Theatre. He had found my blog. My first instinct was to close the email and physically hide under my desk from it. I knew they were upset I had taken photos then posted them online. The gentleman said he had a Google alert set for The New Theatre and my blog popped up. He complimented my writing and said he thought it was funny and he shared it with the director of the play (Almost a southern belle, nearly fainted at this point). The director enjoyed it so much he printed it to share with others in his office. He also said he would like to give a copy to Dyan and would be happy to send me an autograph and an invitation to another show.

My blog is my favorite hobby. I love writing and write how I speak. I say things I would casually say to my family and close friends. I also only expect about 30 people to actually read it. That's when I started to go over things I had said that the Director, and possibly Ms. Cannon would read. Panic set in.

The gentleman and I exchanged a few emails as I received more and more traffic to this post. We set up a time to go down again on Sunday to see the show and meet Dyan. Knowing someone outside of my family enjoyed my writing was a rush. Knowing that Dyan Cannon was seeing it was scary and exciting.

After a weekend of rereading Dyan's book and researching her, we finally made it down to Overland Park for our second theatre experience. We walked in and were told by our fabulous waiter, Roman, that we were VIP's and he was going to make sure our experience was great. Our table had a large envelope addressed to me. I was trying really hard not to tear it open with the excitement of a 3-year-old on her birthday. I slowly opened it and pulled out a lovely head shot of Dyan Cannon that said

"Precious Nikki, you are a treasure and so generous with your thoughts. All My Love, Dyan." From then on I was beaming. Soon after a woman walked up and asked us if we wanted to move to a table along the stage.

Then it happened. Something I never saw coming.....

Announcements were made. "Please turn off your phones, photos are not allowed,

And the part of Pamela will be played by Cathy Barnett because Dyan had been injured."

People who had heard the announcement started talking a bit louder, questioning if what they had heard was right. It took everything I had to hold back my tears. I had been so excited to see her during and after the show.

I didn't have much time to mope because the music started and the curtain rose. This time I was able to focus on the other actors and the story a bit more closely. I heard more of the jokes and got lost in the story. I had been scared that Ms. Barnett wouldn't be as good as Ms. Cannon. I was wrong. She wasn't better, and she wasn't worse. She was different. She brought something entirely different to the role that Dyan had perfected. She was really fantastic.

The main actor played by Jim Korinke was the star of the show this time. His timing was impeccable and his facial expressions were priceless. Matt Holzfeind shined in his role as Justin. His slapstick reminded our son Alex of "The Three Stooges." Everyone laughed so hard at his falls and wacky outfits. There was even a point in the play where he hit a doorframe and I know every single person in the place kind of bounced back and gasped in reaction to it.

Ashley Pankow played Louise and being able to see her expressions up close was fun. She is so expressive and just nailed her role. Mark Robbins in the role of Dickie managed to get the most laughs throughout the play. He was funny, yet played bad guy beautifully.

Seeing it this time up close and under different circumstances was awesome. Seeing it the first time was really wonderful, but seeing it the second time gave you the freedom to really catch all of the jokes and appreciate what these people were doing. They should all be so proud of the production they put on. I realized much more this time around how perfectly cast each single person was.

We have really fallen in love with The New Theatre. The food, atmosphere, staff and show. I really recommend you head down and see for yourself. It's perfect for a date night, family night, and anniversary or just for something different. It takes a lot for me to wear a dress but I promise you it was worth it. Also, find the stage door after the show. Who knows, you may be able to meet someone you admire. I never thought I would, but I did.

Dyan was able to finally return to the stage last Friday. If you have any questions you call the box office at (913) 649-7469.

Falls City High Class of 1973 holds 40th reunion

By Rosie Jones Rastovski

The Falls City High School Class of 1973 held its 40-year reunion the weekend of Oct. 11-13, with 39 classmates in attendance throughout the weekend.

The committee included Carlene Jones Cudney, Terri Fisher, Deb Haws Hood and Rosie Jones Rastovski. Help with decorations was provided by Lee Ann Hardt Shobe, Lori Hollens Cervantes, Diann Palmer Schawang and Joleen Smith Widman.

On Friday, the group met at 5:30 at Lem's for socializing and getting reacquainted. Members of the Sacred Heart Class of 1973 who attended were Marty Froeschl, Kevin McGinnis and Donna Olberding.

At 10 a.m. Saturday, the group met at the high school and had a guided tour of the building and grounds. Many stories and memories were exchanged and enjoyed. At 11 a.m., they went to The Would Eye and watched the Husker game and visited.

The group convened at 6 p.m. at Country Cabin in Hiawatha for a social hour. Kim Buckminster provided music from the 70's. Lee Ann Hardt Shobe and Bob Jones served as emcees. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weinert, a former history teacher from Falls City High. Before dinner, candles were lit and a moment of prayer was held for four classmates: David Wilson, Diane Kentopp, Cindy Marrs Collier and John Snider. Bob Carter led the invocation and dinner was served at 7 p.m.

After dinner, Lee Ann and Bob posed trivia questions regarding 1973. Thank you's were given to all who helped organize and decorate for the event. A video made by Lee Ann was viewed and enjoyed. A letter from Gloria Kentopp Wheeler, and a letter and pictures from Kathy Weigand were also shared as they were unable to attend.

It was decided to have the 45-year reunion in October 2018, and the same committee would organize it. It was also decided to have a mini reunion next Aug. 8-10, hosted by Charlie and Betty Maze.

Donations were taken and a check sent to the Falls City Educational Foundation.

On Sunday morning, an inspirational service was held at Candlelight Cabin at Stanton Lake. Betty Steinman Maze began with prayer, followed by a service led by Bob Carter. The service ended with The Lord's Prayer.

Class members and guests who attended some or all of the weekend's festivities included: Dennis and Cheryl Rodgers Fisher, Hastings, NE; Linda Duey Messing, Prescott, AZ, and her sister, Kay Duey Richter, Kansas City; George Engelhardt and Cindy Krause, and Kenny Chapp and his son, Brian, all of Lincoln; Bob Jones, Olympia, WA; Paula Mullins, her brother, Rod, and niece, Rock Port, MO; Joe Yocum, Milford, NE; Lee Ann Hardt Shobe, Grand Junction, CO; Bob and Diane Carter, Hickman, NE; Terri Fisher, Scottsdale, AZ; Lori Hollens Cervantes, Bellevue, NE; Debbie Haws Hood, Mound City, MO; Ed and Rosie Jones Rastovski, Wahoo, NE; Rodney Frederick, Great Bend, KS.

Society

Tri-State Corners

Ten members of the Tri-State Corners Genealogical Society met in the Pioneer Plaza meeting room on Thursday, Oct. 3. President Norma Thompson called the meeting to order and asked the group to introduce themselves to new members Ronda Chab and Kathy Volz. Jorene Herr took roll and read the minutes and Richard Zentner gave the treasurer's report.

Cemetery and necrology projects remain unchanged. Clipping continues for the obituary file and the name Maine was added to the GenWeb site. Old pictures from towns around the county will be added soon. There no was archivist report.

Correspondence was received from a Tisdell and newsletters were shared for the Brown County (KS), Eastern Nebraska and Holdrege Area genealogy groups. Upcoming events include the Genealogical Conference in Lincoln Oct. 12 and the Greater Omaha Fall Conference on Oct. 26. A query was received for the Ogden family.

For old business Bill Rowan shared an email he received about Sylvester Wilson, a scoundrel who edited a newspaper in Humboldt. In new business a nominating committee comprised of Bob Ferguson and Ruth Norvell was appointed.

Denny Norvell provided the program, which was a word search comprised of members' first and last names. A prize was planned for the ones who found their own name first, and finished the puzzle first, but unfortunately the dog got to it first.

During the show-and-tell time, Richard mentioned that he was looking for graduate years for a number of veterans. The meeting was adjourned with the next meeting being at 7:30 on Thursday, Nov. 7, in the Pioneer Plaza meeting room.

Salem man sentenced to 10 years

A Salem man arrested for stealing batteries from a farm near Verdon in August of 2012 was sentenced in Richardson County District Court last Tuesday and will spend the next decade in the custody of the Nebraska Department of Corrections.

Kyle H. Wissler, 28, was found guilty earlier this year of burglary, a Class III felony, and theft by unlawful taking, a Class IV felony. Richardson County District Judge Daniel E. Bryan Jr. handed down the sentence, which orders Wissler to serve no less than 10 years, but no more than 12 years in prison for the burglary charge, as well as two years in prison for the theft charge, with the latter charge to run concurrent to the burglary charge.

Wissler's troubles began after what started as a motorist assistance check by Richardson County Sheriff Randy Houser in October of 2012.

A search of Wissler's vehicle allegedly revealed a quantity of hypodermic syringes that were bundled together with a table-spoon, and numerous tools, including a reciprocating saw with a blade designed to cut metal. Also discovered were two automotive batteries.

As the investigation continued, Houser believed Wissler was involved in a theft of John Deere equipment batteries from a farm near Verdon in August of 2012. The affidavit states Richardson County Sheriff's Deputy Jeff Frederick received information from an individual in Rulo who purchased two suspicious John Deere batteries from Wissler on Aug. 13, 2012. Frederick took the batteries as evidence, which were later identified as being the batteries that were stolen from the property near Verdon.

Wissler was placed in the Richardson County Jail on preliminary charges of felony possession of a deadly weapon by a prohibited person, felony possession of burglar's tools, possession of drug paraphernalia, operating a motor vehicle during period of suspension and theft by unlawful taking or disposition.

More from District Court...

A 28-year-old Lincoln man was also sentenced in District Court last Tuesday after being convicted of attempted possession of a stolen firearm.

Ian Malcolm was sentenced by Richardson County District Judge Daniel E. Bryan Jr. to serve no less than 20 months, but no more than 24 months in the Nebraska Dept. of Corrections.

Malcolm was ordered to pay costs of $182.21.

Malcolm was given credit for 112 days served.

Saturday at Mary’s Appliance

The annual Partners in Education bake sale will be held from 9 a.m.-noon Friday, Oct. 25, at Mary’s Appliance.

P.I.E. is a nonprofit organization that raises money to help Falls City Public Elementary Schools with many events. Some of these are Spring and Winter Music Programs, field trips, Santa Claus visits, South School Honor Roll Sundae Bar, Hoops and Jump Rope for Heart and Bring a Friend to Lunch. Partners in Education also sponsors the Little Miss and Mrs. Cobblestone competition.

P.I.E. also has purchased random school supplies that are requested by teachers. Every year a scholarship is given to a deserving senior. Many fundraisers are held through the year. The bake sale is one of them.

P.I.E. is always looking for new members and volunteers. Those interested are asked to check out P.I.E.’s page on Facebook.

...the long, cold winter months ahead.

Have you ever watched squirrels in the fall gathering all the acorns they can find?

Read the clues to fill in this puzzle:

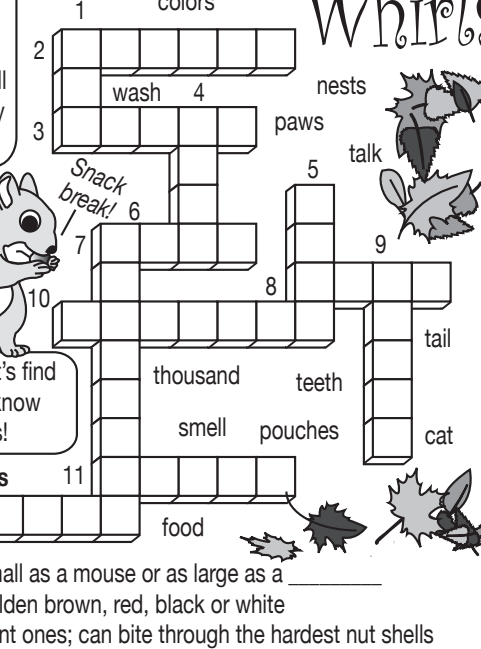

- may be as small as a mouse or as large as a _____
- fur is gray, golden brown, red, black or white
- four sharp front ones; can bite through the hardest nut shells
- used for steering, balance, shade and warmth
- use these to hold; bury food
- over one _____ types of squirrels
- squirrels bark, squeal and chatter
- _____ themselves a lot
- find nuts with this keen sense
- ground squirrels have these in cheeks to carry food
- make these in tree hollows, branches, in ground
- fruits, nuts, berries, seeds, insects, eggs

Whirls of Squirrels!

Invitations were sent out on oak leaves to all members of the squirrel family for a festival.

- These squirrels build nests in branches and hollows. They do not store food, but bury it to find later.
- These are the noisiest squirrels. They like to live in forests. They are the smallest of the tree squirrels, but they are very fast.
- These squirrels sleep during the day. They move and eat at night. They climb to high spots in trees, then jump and glide!
- These members of the squirrel family - woodchucks, prairie dogs and marmots - all have burrows in the earth. They store food and hibernate in winter.
- These members dig burrows. They have dark and light stripes on their faces. They carry food in cheek pouches to store it for the winter. They sleep, but they wake up to nibble food.

Read the clues to fill in the puzzle to find out who is at the festival.

Lady Tigers to Johnson tonight

By Jim Langan

Falls City High’s volleyball team dropped all three of their home matches last week to fall to 6-20 on the season. The Lady Tigers lost to St. Joe Lafayette (MO) in three sets last Tuesday and were on the wrong end of both matches in Thursday’s home triangular with Auburn and Marysville (KS).

Lafayette put FC away, 25-21, 25-17 and 25-17. Chelsea Campbell and Alyssa Frederick were both perfect on their serves, as Campbell converted 11-for-11 attempts with five points scored and Frederick went 9-for-9, also with five points scored. Frederick, who is just a freshman, had a solid all-around game against Lafayette and added 16 digs, five kills and two blocks to her stat line. Madison Olberding put away five kills and Libby Bauman finished the match with eight blocks, including six solo stuffs.

Thursday FC won a tight first set over Marysville, 27-25, but fell behind 16-4 in the second set before roaring back to cut the Bulldogs lead to four points, 20-16. Marysville regained control, however, and won the second, 25-19, then put FC away quickly in the third, 25-12. FC served the ball well in the loss, converting 59-of-60 attempts with six aces.

FRIGHT NIGHT

GANG-RELATED. Falls City's defense - here, eight of 11 Tiger defenders swarm the Auburn ballcarrier during a 22-16 Homecoming victory Friday at Jug Brown Stadium - ultimately saved the day, as well as the team's postseason hopes. FC, now 5-2 and a near-cinch to qualify for the playoffs for the second year in a row, trailed 10-0 early to the upset-minded and now 2-5 Bulldogs. FC trailed 12-8 at half, but held Auburn without a single first down in the second half and eventually clinched the win with a fourth quarter TD drive that spanned 66 yards in 12 plays and chewed up nearly seven minutes of clock. Junior Brenden Heckenlively capped it with a one-yard TD run. FC Thursday travels to 6-1 Lincoln Christian and must win to have any hopes of hosting a first-round playoff game on Halloween.

By Jim Langan
Friday night's latest installment of the Falls City and Auburn gridiron rivalry could best be summed up as a tale of two halves. A slow start by the Tigers coupled with awful field position and a physical Bulldog team, made life tough for the orange and black. FC eventually celebrated its Homecoming with a 22-16 victory, improving to 5-2 on the season, but managed all of four yards and a punt the entire first quarter and two of the Tigers' other three first half drives resulted in a punt and a turnover. FC trailed 10-0 midway through the second quarter and seemed shellshocked by the Bulldogs, who came out and hit FC in the mouth early. Twelve minutes into the game and it was pretty evident this was not the 2012 Auburn team FC handled, 35-0. Plus, the nearly full moon over Jug Brown Stadium provided another reminder that when the Tigers and Bulldogs tango, expect the unexpected. The Tiger defense clamped down on Auburn and held them without a first down the whole second half, which FC head coach Darin Fritz said was the difference in the game. "I just thought we played really well defensively. Offensively we were good enough to win, but sloppy. I was really proud of the guys in the second half. We made some adjustments and they came out and played hard." FC held the Bulldogs to 87 yards on 34 carries. Auburn passed for two scores and tallied 93 yards, but 61 yards happened on one play - a third quarter touchdown reception by Reason Garcia that tied the game at 16-16. Chase Thompson and Jack Hartman finished with eight tackles each to lead FC. Jordy Stoller had a team-high four solo stops, while Reese Hogue, Tucker Merz and Brenden Heckenlively each finished three solo tackles. The Tiger offense hung in there after some early struggles and grinded out three long scoring drives, including FC's longest drive of the season: a 12-play, 66-yard scoring drive that chewed up nearly seven minutes of the fourth quarter and acted as a knockout punch, with junior Brenden Heckenlively providing the uppercut with his one-yard game-winning TD run that put FC up for good, 22-16. FC used an eight-play, 73-yard drive to score their first touchdown and then came back in the third quarter with a six-play, 67-yard drive to go ahead 16-10. FC junior running back Jordy Stoller put the exclamation point on each of those drives, scoring on a 15-yard run in the second quarter and then breaking free for a 47-yard touchdown scamper. Stoller led the Tigers with 110 yards rushing on nine carries. FC's backs combined for 46 carries and 296 yards. Fritz said the Bulldogs made it tough on them and credited them for their effort. "We couldn't get anything going because of the physical play of the Bulldog defense," Fritz said. "They definitely took us out of our game offensively in the first half. Auburn is a team that is improving every week. We thought we could handle them, but knew we would have to play well to win." The Tigers turn their attention to Thursday's regular season finale in Lincoln against Lincoln Christian, which suffered its first loss of the season last Friday to Syracuse. The district-champion Rockets rushed for 345 yards and had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the 42-21 win. Christian remains a top-10 team and rightly so, as they have talented athletes at key positions, starting first with 6-5 senior quarterback Logan Power. Power rushed for 115 yards and three touchdowns against the Tigers last year. Senior wideout Leighton Chicoine and senior running back Ben Plambeck are Power's two biggest threats, but also keep your eye out for Jared Bubak, a 6-foot-4, 210-pound sophomore. "Their level of execution is really good, coupled with the fact that they have really good athletes at crucial positions," said Fritz about the 6-1 Crusaders. "They can be a matchup nightmare. We need to be physical and mistake free this week." Kickoff Thursday is at 7 p.m. at Beechner Field, located at Lincoln High, 2229 'J' St.

Pair of Tigers qualify for state cross country

Falls City High runners Lainey Larsen and Krystal Samqua ran their way into the field of this Friday's State Cross Country Meet in Kearney by finishing in the top 15 at districts last Thursday. Having the Tiger tandem competing together on the state's biggest stage will be twice as nice for Tiger CC head coach Cody Hawley, who, for the first time in his 15 years with the program, will coach a pair of runners in the state meet. "The girls' team ran one of their better races of the season," Hawley said. "Our goal this year was to get a girls' team to state and they were very close to accomplishing that goal."

Hawley pointed to the fact that it was the first time all year that his one through four runners finished with a time-gap of less than 60 seconds as the reason for the Tiger girls' successful day. Officially, Larsen and Samqua finished 12th and 15th, respectively, at the Class C-1 District Meet, which was held in Fairbury. Larsen, a sophomore who has quickly evolved into the figurative "pace car" of the Tiger girls' CC team, finished with a time of 22:57 and more importantly, set a tempo for the

Peru State climbs to No. 12 in polls

The Peru State Bobcat football team made another big jump in the NAIA Football Coaches' Top 25 Poll, marking the third consecutive week the Bobcats have climbed in the polls. This week, the 'Cats moved up four spots from 16 to 12, after four teams ahead of Peru State in the rankings suffered losses last week.

The top seven teams remain unchanged in the NAIA Football Coaches' Top 25 Poll, the national office announced Monday. Top-ranked Morningside (Iowa) moved one step closer to becoming the first team since 2009 to last the entire season at No. 1, as the Mustangs received their seventh-straight top mention with 13 first-place votes and 288 points in the sixth regular-season edition.

Morningside, who has been the unanimous pick six times this season, improved to 6-0 with a 62-27 dismantling of Dakota Wesleyan (S.D.) last Saturday.

The victory – combined with a loss by then-No. 14 Concordia (Neb.) – gives the two-time defending Great Plains Athletic Conference (GPAC) champion Mustangs sole possession of first place in the league standings. Morningside returns to action Saturday in a 1 p.m. CDT kick-off against Briar Cliff (Iowa).

Peru State won their second-straight game on the last play of the game Saturday at Jug Brown Stadium in Falls City.

Kicker Greg Conry connected on a 32-yard field goal as time expired to give the Bobcats a 31-28 victory over the visiting Culver-Stockton College Wildcats.

With the win, the 16th-ranked Bobcats improved to 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the Heart of America Athletic Conference (HAAC). The Wildcats fell to 0-7 and 0-5 in the HAAC after having been in all but one of the games this year near the end.

Falls City Sacred Heart may have been waiting for this game to happen. A scary thought considering the top-ranked and undefeated Irish are outscoring their opponents by nearly 50 points per game, but prior to Friday's 69-14 dismantling of Lewiston, Sacred Heart was only averaging 319 yards per game, down from 394.1 in 2012.

Nitpicking? Oh yeah, but everything was working Friday, as the Irish erupted for a season-high 544 yards of total offense, including a season-high 397 rushing yards.

Lewiston has now surrendered 1,051 total yards, 785 rushing yards and 130 points in their last two games against the Irish.

FCSH got off to a relatively slow start, considering the yardage they racked up, and the Irish only led 14-6 after the first quarter. Irish quarterback Chaz Dunn tossed both of his touchdown passes in the opening quarter, first connecting with Sean Strasheim for a 37-yard strike, then on their next drive, Dunn found Austin Malone for a 50-yard touchdown pass.

The two touchdown passes were Dunn's 16th and 17th of the season. Dunn was picked off twice, but finished 8-for-12 with 132 yards.

FCSH hit the ground hard after the first quarter, none more than junior running back Sawyer Kean, who got loose in the second quarter. Kean scored three of his four rushing touchdowns in the second frame on runs of one yard, 20 yards and 40 yards to push the Irish lead to 35-6 at the intermission.

Palmyra rolls, keeps Titans winless

Humboldt-TR-S was defeated 53-6 by Palmyra last Friday night in Humboldt to fall to 0-7 on the season.

HTRS managed only seven first downs and were held scoreless until late in the fourth quarter, as Palmyra's Alex Thomsen passed for 265 yards and four touchdowns on 16-of-23 passes. Thomsen also ran for two scores, a 28-yard run in the second quarter and then again from 17 yards out in the third quarter.

Ben Railsback accounted for the only Titan touchdown when he scored from 13 yards out with 4:29 left in the game. Railsback rushed 15 time for 82 yards. Nolan Schafer finished 8-of-16 through the air with 73 yards, as he connected with Schuyler Kuhlmann four times for 48 yards. Kuhlmann also led the HTRS defense, finishing with five solo tackles, 10 total stops and an interception. Tony Knudson also recorded 10 tackles and Patrick Pindea finished with five solo tackles and eight overall.

The Titans have dropped 17 games in a row dating back to a first-round state playoff loss to Elmwood-Murdock in 2011.

HTRS wraps up their 2013 regular season Thursday at 7 p.m. at Elmwood-Murdock (4-3).

Kean added his fourth-straight Irish touchdown with 5:21 left in the third when he broke free for a 20-yard score. He finished the day with the four TD's and 184 yards on 17 carries.

Malone added 131 yards on 12 carries, including a 23-yard TD run late in the third quarter.

FCSH's two senior leaders on defense, Brandon Schawang and Jarod Fiegenger were dominant again and helped keep the clamps on Lewiston.

Schawang, who leads the Irish in tackles, had six solo stops and 15 total tackles to go with two sacks, five tackles for loss and a 53-yard scoop-and-score touchdown at the start of the fourth quarter. Schawang also carried the ball five times from his fullback position, tallying 44 yards and a one-yard touchdown plunge.

Fiegenger recorded three more sacks and now has 13 on the season.

Zavan Kirkendall had a solid game defensively for the Irish. The junior linebacker finished with five solo tackles and 10 total stops.

Malone picked off two passes from his cornerback position and senior defensive back Colin Niemeyer made four solo stops.

Senior placekicker Yianni Haralabidis connected on all nine of his extra-point attempts and has hit 47-of-50 on the season. Haralabidis attempted a 41-yard field goal attempt just before the half Friday night, but just missed it to the left.

The Irish (7-0) travel to Deshler Thursday for a 7 p.m. game against the winless Dragons.

FC Sacred Heart's Maggie Goltz (34) and Rachel Parrish (30) put pressure on Courtney Mathewson of Pawnee City (17), while teammates Elizabeth Magdanz (20) and Abby Magdanz (12) ready themselves for the dig during the Irish and Indians match at Prichard Auditorium last Thursday night.

No. 5 Lady Irish look to even up season series with No. 4 Jets tonight in Sterling

By Jim Langan

Falls City Sacred Heart travels to conference rival and district foe Sterling tonight for a showdown between two of Class D2's best teams. The Lady Irish take with them a five-game winning streak, a number five ranking and a 20-3 record.

Fourth-ranked Sterling boasts an 18-5 record and can wear a feather in their cap for being one of the three teams to beat FCSH.

Sterling narrowly defeated the Irish in two thrilling sets 26-24 and 25-23 to claim the fifth-place consolation trophy of the Mudecas Tournament, which makes tonight's triangular between FCSH, Sterling and Lourdes Central Catholic all that more compelling.

If Sacred Heart can escape Sterling with a win over the Jets tonight and even up the season series at 1-1, next Friday's Pioneer Conference championship in Humboldt could have the makings of something special.

Looking ahead makes good fodder for fans and members of the media, but it must rank way up there on the majority of coach's "Least Favorite Things List."

Sacred Heart's regular season, for all intents and purposes, wraps up in Sterling tonight and then it's all eyes on postseason play.

First stop being the previously discussed Pioneer Conference Tournament, which begins with next Monday's first round games in Pawnee City and Humboldt. The Lady Irish are seeded No. 2 and await the winner of No. 7 Diller-Odell (13-10) and No. 10 Lewiston (2-21), who play at 4:30 p.m. in Pawnee City. FCSH and D-O/Lewiston also play in Pawnee City and start at 7 p.m.

Opposite Sacred Heart is No. 3 Friend and No. 6 Lourdes, who face each other at 5:45 p.m.

in Humboldt. Friend is 20-3 in Class D1, ranked fifth and currently riding a six-game winning streak. Friend boasts wins over Sterling, Freeman and Exeter-Milligan and will undoubtedly be a tough out.

On the other side of the bracket are No. 4 Johnson-Brock (13-8) vs. No. 5 Pawnee City (11-12), No. 8 HTRS (11-10) vs. No. 9 Wymore Southern (8-13) and top-seeded Sterling, who await the HTRS-Southern winner.

Tuesday's semifinals are scheduled for 5:45 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. in Humboldt and the championship is set for 8 p.m. Friday. The third-place match will precede Friday's championship.

The Lady Irish earned victory number 20 at home last Thursday in a four-set victory over Pawnee City, 25-17, 25-12, 21-25 and 25-18. The win also marked the third of the season for FCSH against Pawnee City.

FCSH swept a pair of matches at last Tuesday's triangular in Johnson against hosts, Johnson-Brock and HTRS.

The Lady Irish got all they could handle from J-B, who beat FCSH, 25-21, in the first set and then forced FCSH to the brink in the second and third games, 29-27 and 25-23. Heits and Goltz combined for 27 kills. Ashli Jordan served three aces and recorded 26 digs.

The first match of the night was against HTRS and Sacred Heart hung on in three sets, 29-27, 19-25 and 25-20. Goltz again led the attack with 15 kills and Abby Magdanz went 15-for-15 serving with four aces.

Elizabeth Magdanz combined for 92 assists in the three matches last week.

Lady Irish JV Volleyball

FC Sacred Hearts junior varsity volleyball team picked up win number 12 with a two-set home victory over Pawnee City last Thursday, 25-21, 25-20. Libby Dunn was a perfect 13-for-13 serving with nine points. Lexi Barnes recorded six assists and Jade Hill put away four kills.

The Lady Irish JV also recently finished fourth at the Nebraska City Lourdes JV Tourney. FCSH defeated Sterling, 25-10 and 25-18, but lost to Weeping Water (25-10, 22-25, 10-15) and NCL (23-25, 25-9, 11-15)

Tough stretch continues for HTRS volleyball team

The Lady Titans, already reeling from a three-game losing streak and in the depths of their toughest stretch of games this season, will not find any quick relief in the form of easy opponents as their regular season nears its end.

Humboldt-TR-S, now 11-10, dropped a pair of matches last Tuesday at a triangular at Johnson-Brock and have lost six of their last seven after starting the season 10-4, began pool play yesterday at the Elmwood-Murdock Booster Club Tournament.

The five-team field includes Class C2 No. 4 Freeman (18-3), Class D2 No. 7 Mead (18-4), Class C1 Malcolm (12-13) and hosts Elmwood-Murdock (13-10). HTRS started with a 5 p.m. game against Malcolm, then faced Mead at 6 p.m. and closed out their night against E-M at 8. HTRS finishes pool play against Freeman at 7 p.m. tonight in Murdock.

The top two teams from the pool play square off for the championship at 8 tonight.

Last Tuesday in Johnson, the Lady Titans took the second set from D2 No. 5 Falls City Sacred Heart, 25-19, after losing a highly contested first set, 27-29.

HTRS hung with the Irish in the third set, but fell 25-20. HTRS recorded 72 digs in the match and were led by sophomore Claire Svoboda, who finished with a team-high 20 digs to go along with 12 points and four aces. Courtney Allen and Ashton Nanninga finished with nine and eight kills, respectively.

The loss to FCSH may have lingered, as HTRS fell to J-B, in another hard fought, three-set match, 16-25, 25-20, 22-25. Allen led the attack with seven kills, while also recording a dozen digs. Carmen Alexander served seven points and finished with a team-high 24 digs, while Nanninga recorded five kills and four ace blocks. Mollee Sharpe also finished with five kills.

It doesn't get any easier for HTRS next week in the Pioneer Conference Tournament. HTRS is the eight seed and opens with Wymore Southern (8-13) in the first round on Monday at 4:30 p.m. in Humboldt. The winner moves on to play D2 No. 4 Sterling (18-5) at 7 p.m. Rounding out the field are (current record, tournament seed): Johnson-Brock (13-8, No. 4), Pawnee City (11-12, No. 5), Friend (20-3, No. 3), Lourdes Central Catholic (10-11, No. 6), Diller-Odell (13-11, No. 7), Lewiston (2-21, No. 10) and FC Sacred Heart (20-3, No. 2).

Games will be played next Monday, Tuesday and Friday in Humboldt and Pawnee City and the tournament concludes with Friday's championship match, which is scheduled for 8 p.m. in Humboldt. Admission is $5 for adults and $4 for students.

Special Education services including, but not limited to: speech-language pathology, psychology and audiology services. Also, early childhood, learning disabled and multi-handicapped services and special education administrative services. The service unit has a certified nursing staff who works with staff, parents and students regarding health issues. Professional Development services include, but are not limited to: curriculum, instruction, standards/assessment planning and development, school improvement assistance and State and Federal grant projects. ESU 4 also contracts with the State of Nebraska to provide administrative, support, and educational services for the Nebraska Center for the Education of Children Who Are Blind or Visually Impaired (NCECBVI) located in Nebraska City, NE. Several ESU 4 employees have worked and work as representatives on statewide and nationwide assignments. ESU 4 also chose to take advantage of a law, whereby insurance costs for the unit can be taken from the budget. This plan has allowed ESU 4 to get cash buildup as well as a new building for the children's special education needs. A new building was built on the site the board purchased several years ago for this purpose. ESU 4 students and staff moved into the building and began classes in January 2009. Our students love the new facility. Teachers, para-educators and parents love the building as well. The ESU 4 Learning Center is located at 1109 R Street, Auburn, Nebraska. During 2011-2012, ESU 4 & ESU 6 agreed to provide data services to each district served by these two service units. The Digital Virtual Learning Group serves 26 school districts.

- 2.0 INFORMATIONAL ITEMS/REPORTS
- 2.1 Staff/Student/Organization Report: AD Darwin Palmer spoke to the Board regarding the request to add boys' baseball as a high school sport. Palmer stated that in order to equalize the number of sports offered to the high school students if boys baseball is added, the District should add two girls' sports, either soccer, tennis or golf. Palmer addressed the possibility to co-op with Auburn for girls' soccer and also gave some estimated costs for the addition of boys and girls sports. Palmer stated that he has received positive and negative comments regarding the addition of boys and girls sports. Principal Dunkhas stated that he has spoken with the Executive Director of the NSAA and cannot recommend the addition of boys' baseball only as it would be a disproportion of boys and girls sports. Discussion was also had concerning the fact that boys' baseball, girls' tennis and soccer would be Spring sports and would pull some students from the track program. If girls' golf was added, it would be a fall sport along with cross country, softball and volleyball.
- President Hollens suggested that the proposal for adding boys' baseball as a high school sport be placed on the agenda for next month's regular Board meeting as an action item. It was also the consensus of the Board that boys' baseball be placed on the agenda as an action item.

- The District needs to designate a Board member as our NASB voting delegate for the Delegate Assembly held during the State Education Conference. Each District is allowed one delegate. If more than one Board member would like to attend the Delegate Assembly, they are welcome to attend and observe, but only one person can actually vote. Martin volunteered to be the voting delegate representing FCPS.
- The Education Committee, chaired by Sen. Kate Sullivan, held public hearings across the state over the past couple weeks. The committee took testimony on LR182, an interim study resolution that directed the Committee to study alternatives for financing public education in Nebraska. Testimony was heard from various special interest groups including Nebraskan's for Tax Freedom, Buffet Early Childhood Institute, First 5 Years, Nebraska Early Childhood Business Roundtable, Farm Bureau, Open Sky Initiative, and metro area school districts. Some of the broad topics that brought testimony at the hearing included:
- Less reliance on property tax by including a sales/income tax local choice option.
  - Providing additional need/support for schools as it relates to early childhood, SPED, and Limited English Proficiency, outside of TEEOSA.
  - State taking more of a role in facilities upkeep/construction/early childhood facilities.
  - Investment in early childhood education.
  - Establishment of an education trust fund to assist in years of slow state funding.
  - Support/opposition to the teacher education allowance and instructional time allowance within TEEOSA.
  - Removing the levy lids.
  - Problems with the common levy among Learning Community Districts.
- The NCSA is working with the NASB to form an inter-local organization to address student health and wellness. All public schools in the state of Nebraska are urged to participate. This organization is being named The Nebraska Whole Child Project. Our participation is important in this initiative. Approving the agreement does not bind any school to anything or commit local resources to anything. This project will attempt to facilitate "best practices" for student health and wellness. Also, NCSA/NASB will try to solicit private sector funds that will be used to help schools collect fitness data, which can then be used to adopt policies and procedures to increase student fitness and lower student obesity. The membership agreement will need to be approved by the board. Information on the project is included in the appendix for your review.
- The ESU's DVLG Distance Learning and Internet Connection Consortium e-Rate appeal process is still underway. Superintendents were informed Sept. 19 that a decision on the appeal application could be made by the end of November, by the Universal Schools & Library's Division.
- 2.4b Building & Grounds Update: The Project Committee met Sept. 30 & Oct. 2 for a site review at each of the District's facilities. The committee will be prioritizing the 2013-2014 project list over the next couple months, and make a formal recommendation to the full board to consider later this winter.
- 2.4c Continuous School Improvement & District Goals: The annual School Improvement workshops are Oct. 29-30, in Lincoln. This workshop is designed to help School Improvement Leaders lead district personnel in the Continuous School Improvement Plan.
- Continuous School Improvement Plan Goal Summary: All Falls City

- Public School students will increase their achievement in math problem solving across all content areas.
- Teacher and Principal Evaluation Pilot: The Nebraska Dept. of Ed's teacher and the principal evaluation model pilots are currently in the first year of implementation at FCPS. The teacher and principal evaluations are aligned with the NDE Performance Framework and the Marzano Framework for Effective Instruction. All probationary faculty will be evaluated at least once each semester, with the formative evaluation in the fall semester, and a summative evaluation during the spring semester. Permanent faculty will receive either a formative or summative evaluation annually, based on what step they are at in the evaluation cycle. This applies to teachers and principals. Data compiled through more frequent walk-throughs, utilizing the iObservation tool, combined with the formal classroom observations consisting of a full instructional period, will be the basis for the overall performance rating a teacher or principal receives. Selected teachers will also be drafting Student Learning Objectives (SLO's) in the first semester, and tracking the SLO's during semester two. Principals will be completing an Action Plan in place of the SLO's required for teaching faculty. In addition, a Professional Development Plan will be drafted and approved upon the completion of the summative evaluation in semester two, to be implemented during the 2014-2015 school year. I have attached the Evaluation Procedures Sequence in the appendix as a guide.
- Professional development and support for teachers and administrators is a critical element for successful implementation of the initiative. Scheduled trainings by the ESU4 Professional Development Team include:
- Oct. 24 - Administrator Rounds 1-4
  - Nov. 20 - Administrator Rounds 8:30 - 11:30
  - Nov. 15, Dec. 11 (tentative) - SLO Training @ HS Media Center
  - Jan. 7 - Administrator Rounds 8:30 - 11:30
  - Jan. 31 - SLO Follow Up 1:45 - 3:45
  - April 30, May 2 (tentative) – Professional Development Goals
- An update on the District's strategic plan and district goals were furnished to the Board for their review.
- 2.4d tigIR's Learning Initiative: The tigIR's 1:1 Learning Initiative is currently in the faculty professional development and support phase. Six, before/after-school-training sessions are taking place between Sept. 30 and Dec. 2 in preparation for the iPad rollout. All high school teachers are required to attend each session. Key dates for the iPad rollout include:
- Oct. 22 – Parent/Teacher Conferences: Mark Billington from Apple will be set up in the High School Commons to run through different ways iPads can be used in the classroom, showing some apps for different subjects.
  - Dec. 9, 11 & 18 – iPad kickoff event. Parents and students required attending one evening session.
  - Jan. 6 – 1:1 iPad environment at FCHS.
- 2.4e Nebraska State of the Schools Report: NeSA statewide tests in grades 3-8 and 11 were administered for the first time in spring 2010. The tests measured the newly revised Nebraska reading standards and determined whether Nebraska students were proficient on standards. New test results show FCPS students scored higher on their 2013 state mathematics, science & writing tests, with reading scores going down slightly from 2012. A breakdown of district performance will be posted at the Central Office and can be accessed at <http://www.education.ne.gov/>
- 2.4f Negotiations Planning: The first meeting between the Board's Negotiations Committee and the FCEA Negotiations Committee is currently scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 13 at 6 p.m. in the Central Office.

- 2.4j Board Member Meetings: NASB Area Membership Meeting, Oct. 9, NE City; NASB/NASA State Education Conference, Nov. 20-22, La Vista.
- 2.4k Other Items: None.
- 2.5 Reports by Board members and/or Board Committees: Board member John Martin spoke about his attendance at the NASB meeting. It was noted that each Board member should have a copy of the current Superintendent's contract and that there should be some type of session for new members of the Board so he or she knows what the expectations are for being a Board member. It was also noted that an evaluation of all coaches is administered by the administration and the Athletic Director.
- 2.6 Additions: None.

rest of her teammates that nearly resulted in the first Falls City High girls' team to qualify in 30 years. Samqua finished just 10 seconds behind Larsen and the Tiger junior claimed the final qualifying position, as the top 15 from each of the four districts earn a spot at state.

Larsen and Samqua are the fifth and sixth girls to qualify for the state meet under Hawley and the first since Alicia Huettner in 2010. Jessica Kelz qualified in 2007, Alissa Gyrha finished in the top-10 three-straight years from 2002 to 2004 and Katie Parsons reached the state meet in 1999. Brett Boltz in 2004 and Timothy von Behren in 2008, also qualified during Hawley's tutelage.

The remaining Lady Tiger runners – sophomore Lauren Bierman (33rd, 24:56) and freshmen Cheyenne Dovel (22nd, 23:56) and Morgan Roberts (23rd, 23:56) – kicked hard as well and helped the team take home sixth place with 69 points, finishing only nine points behind the third-place state qualifying team of Hastings Adams Central. Lincoln Christian and Auburn were squeezed between FC and Adams Central in fourth and fifth place with 63 and 66 points.

"I knew this district was going to be a competitive battle, but I didn't expect the scores to be so close together," said Hawley of the bottleneck of teams vying for that third and final ticket to state. The nine points separating Adams Central and FC was by far the fewest of the four districts. At the C-2 meet, 44 points separated Wahoo and sixth place Boys Town. In C-3, the margin was 74 points and in C-4, 24 points stood between Gothenburg and Kearney Catholic.

The Kearney Country Club, located at 2800 19th Avenue, is once again the site of the State CC Meet. Larsen and Samqua will run in the first race of the day Friday with the Class C girls slated to begin at noon. The Tiger duo will be in starting box number 17 with four other runners, two from Fort Calhoun and the other two from Holdrege, which just so happens to be the school of last year's Class C state champion. Gabriella Garcia, now a senior at Holdrege was the only upperclassmen in Class C to win a district title last week. Lincoln Christian sophomore Collette Williams won the C-1 district. Platteview freshman Megan Gillen was the tops in C-2 and C-3's district champion was freshman Marta Pulfer of Wayne.

Admission Friday is $7 for adults, $5 for students and gates open at 10:30 a.m.
