‘Chasing The Fire Truck’ June 30, 1956

The scene is out of John Falter's boyhood, and from the hilltop that looks like an ugly fire. But Falter, having added a modern chemical fire truck which he feels certain will save the barn, reflects that when he starts a fire, he can put it out. Seriously, this evokes a fervent thank-heaven for telephones, gasoline motors, new-fashioned antifire devices, and the know-how and courage of volunteer smoke-eaters. Falter didn't ride a horse bareback to his long-ago fire; his horse ran away and Johnny dismounted into a passing haystack. Then, finding himself alive, he proceeded on shanks' mare. To return to 1956, three volunteer boy-models, one on a horse, helped the painter by careering down a steep California hill again and again, which astonished onlookers, as there was no fire.

150th Anniversary Hymn Sing

By Jennifer James

Psalm 100 tells us to "Make a joyful noise to the Lord," and surely that happened Sunday, June 26, as the First United Presbyterian Church, 20th and Harlan, celebrated the 150th anniversary of the church's founding. Approximately 190 people lifted their voices together as they sang hymns dear to the members of our church family.

The service began with an organ duet by Michele Gaskell, organist for the NEB-KAN parish (Falls City, and Hiawatha, Presbyterian churches) and David von Behren, senior at Cleveland Institute of Music. von Behren served as organist for the Falls City church for six years. Rev. Carolynn Winters-Hazelton, interim pastor, welcomed everyone and introduced Rev.

Roxie Sullivan, Tulsa, OK, former pastor of the Presbyterian parish, and Mrs. Jeanne Giles, Lincoln, wife of former pastor Rev. Robert Giles. Rev. Winters-Hazelton also described how church family members offered favorite hymn names and reasons for their choices. David von Behren introduced the program and set the tone for the day.

Shubert residents concerned about water supply

Last Thursday, June 23, the Village of Shubert held a city council meeting regarding pivot irrigation lowering the town's water supply. The people of Shubert have been concerned about their water supply for quite some time, even bringing up their concerns to the Nemaha Natural Resources District last year.

According to the NRD meeting minutes, the issue goes back to the spring of 2015 when two permits were approved for a Richardson County farmer who irrigates near Shubert.

On September 10, 2015, during the regular NRD monthly meeting; Chuck Wingert, NRD Water Resources Manager, reviewed issues regarding Shubert's problems with pumping air in August of 2015. He pointed out the locations of nearby irrigation and domestic wells in relation to the public water supply well. However, he added that there was not conclusive evidence that this was the cause of Shubert's problems.

In October 2015, Wingert updated the NRD Board on the Shubert Public Water Well Supply Well Concern. Pumps tests were done in that area on October 7, 2015; the transducers would be removed on October 9. The information would be sent to LBG to determine whether these irrigation wells are impacting the public wells.

During the November 2015 meeting, it was reported that the committee met with several concerned citizens from Shubert and Stella. Residents were asked to report any issues to the NRD so they were aware. Wingert stated that the report was somewhat inconclusive and things needed to be checked into, and further investigation needed to be done to determine if there were any problems with well screens. The committee discussed installing some transducers in Shubert wells to provide more continuous water level data. The report also told the irrigators that there might not be as much water available as they had hoped. Winger said they would continue to work with area residents and measure any wells they would like measured.

The board agreed to work with the public water supplier to come up with an emergency plan in the event of a water shortage situation. They also discussed the option to monitor wells, questioning whether a plugged screen was the problem. Director, Lisa Beethe asked if the NRD is going to do any of the other controlled tests mentioned in the report. She questioned if it was the responsibility of the NRD. Bob Hilske, NRD Manager, explained that they hoped to find out; what impact the irrigation wells had on the Village wells; provide information to the irrigator so he knew what risk he may get into; and help Shubert manage their water system to reduce the risk of low water levels in their wells.

In February 2016, another local farmer applied for two permits for irrigation. Director, Jim Gerweck commented on concerns expressed by neighbors about the wells. He suggested waiting until March to allow some of the domestic wells in that area to be registered so they could get a focus on the problem that is perceived by the public and many board members. There was concern from guests who asked if the NRD could limit the

City Council says yay to Smokin' on the Bricks, nay to fireworks

The Falls City, City Council met on Monday, June 20 for a brief but jam packed meeting.

Mayor Jerry Oliver began the night with some good news. During the Mayor's report he announced that the District Court has ruled in favor of the City, Consolidated Grain and Barge and the Community Redevelopment Authority. The ruling is in favor of 11 of the 12 causes of action stemming from a 2012 injunction suit filed by Salem Grain, David Leon Frederick and William Lester. The lawsuit was filed to try to halt the expansion of CGB into Falls City. A trial on the remaining cause of action is set to begin on June 28 and is expected to last three days.

Eric Froeschl asked the Council for a Special Designated Liquor License for the free Smokin' on Stone event to be held on July 8 and July 9, 2016. The event will be held between 18th and 20th and Stone Streets, in a gated off area. The license was approved, seven yes, one no.

Marc Merz requested to put a sign up at Stanton Lake for the new Disc Golf Course at no cost to the city. Merz also informed the Council that the Falls City Library would have disc golf equipment for people to check out and use. Motion was unanimously approved.

Rick Lemerond requested funds for the fireworks show he oversees each year. The display is the only display held in Falls City each year. Lemerond said an estimated 700 to 1,100 people attend the firework show on the north end of town. "This is bringing people to town, not a donation," said Lemerond.

He added that a few merchants donate extra funds each year just to keep the event going but he can't rely on that generosity forever. The Council said the budget committee may consider a donation for next year but they wouldn't be able to do anything this year.

Chuck Wingert, Water Resources Manager, said the NRD cannot limit the flow rate, but there could be an allocation. However, there would have to be a significant drop in the water table to prove that before determination. Other neighbors were concerned that their domestic wells should be allowed to be concerned as an amendment to the rules. The board explained that they could not change the rules for this situation since any changes would require a public hearing first.

It was concluded during the March 2016, meeting that the two well permits carried over from February would be approved. There was a report given on the installation of the transducer in the newer well and issues with installing one in the older well. The Village of Shubert requested the NRD help by paying to make changes to the older well to allow the transducer to be installed and also to provide a laptop or tablet for their use in recording readings. The quote for the work needed on the well was $4,100, and a laptop was estimated at $300.

In April of this year, A bid from Rieschick Drilling Co. of $2,050.00 to provide assistance to Shubert to install transducers was approved by the NRD. The action did not include the requested amount to cover a laptop for the Village. The Village wouldn’t agree to provide or match funds for the project. The committee started looking into everything that needed to be addressed and talked about educating the well managers to help them operate better. It was stressed by the board that they’re not trying to make a rule to address every potential situation. They are pushing to add some extra meetings to continue moving forward and address the changes in a quicker manner.

Shubert currently has two working wells and is running on the smaller of the two. A 35-gallon per minute well located in Shubert. The well, once designed to pump 150 gallons per minutes, ran at 90 until it was turned down to 35. The second and larger 100 gallon per minute well is located south of Shubert. The larger of the two wells is currently losing water.

The Village of Shubert is using about 20,000 gallons per day

- leaving the 35 gallons per minute well fully capable of handling Shubert’s current needs. During the meeting the Board asked about whether a voluntary water restriction was needed but it was decided that those type of measures don’t need to be taken at this time. No answers were found as to why the larger well was losing water. The pivot irrigation system operated by the local farmer suspected of lowering Shubert’s water supply has been shut off for the time being. It was decided to keep an eye on the issue throughout the summer and readdress the matter at the end of summer to determine what steps need to be taken.

The farmer at the center of the issue said he would continue to work closely with the village water operator and NRD about their irrigation times of usage, to assist them in their monitoring of the water levels at the village wells.

According to information drawn from the 2007 Census of Agriculture and the USDA 2008 Farm and Ranch Irrigation Survey; About 80 percent of the state’s public drinking water and nearly all of its private water supply are from ground water sources. Nebraska had at that time more than 100,000 registered irrigation wells and an additional 16,000 registered water wells. As of 2007, Nebraska had 8.56 million irrigated wells with Richardson County being one of the lowest counties in the state with only 2,180. Between 2002 and 2007 agricultural census years, Nebraska’s irrigated base expanded by 934,000 acres, moving it ahead of California.

Of approximately 55 million acres under irrigation nationally, about 15 percent are located in Nebraska. It appears that the NRD approved approximately 25 wells in our area from May 2015 to April 2016.

Accelerating Roads Construction

By Governor Pete Ricketts

Whether you’re taking your children to school, driving to work, or moving equipment for your farm or ranch, infrastructure helps to connect Nebraskans to their communities and one another. Our quality of life and top industries depend on a 21st-century infrastructure.

Over the course of the first year and a half of my administration, I have prioritized roads because they are one of the key ways we support the efforts of farmers, entrepreneurs, small business owners, and all Nebraskans who are working to grow our state. Last summer, the Nebraska Department of Roads (NDOR) and I announced the state would return additional roads funding to local governments through the state’s federal funds swap program. This session, we successfully worked with the Legislature to pass the Transportation Innovation Act, which aims to accelerate construction of the state’s expressway system, help facilitate bridge repair, and support infrastructure projects tied to economic development goals.

In the last couple weeks, the Nebraska Department of Roads and I highlighted major updates to the state’s roads standards recently approved by my office and the Nebraska Board of Public Roads Classifications and Standards (NBCS). This revision modernizes Nebraska’s requirements for new construction and preservation of state highways, county roads, and municipal streets in Nebraska.

The revisions do three things: First, they give counties and municipalities access to the Resurfacing, Restoration, and Rehabilitation Standards, also known as the “3R Standards.” Second, it completes comprehensive updates to the minimum design standards (MDS) for all public roadways in Nebraska. Third, the changes eliminate outdated MDS and makes other technical and stylistic changes. These updates, for example, will allow counties to replace existing bridge pilings with pilings of the same design, rather than investing in a new bridge built under new construction design standards. Previously, our standards would have forced local governments to make significant improvements in addition to making simple repairs to infrastructure.

The common sense changes made in this update not only modernize our state’s roads and bridge standards, but will also help your hard-earned taxpayer dollars go further as state and local government partner together to build the 21st-century infrastructure Nebraska needs to continue to grow.

While these changes may seem technical in nature, they are significant for the taxpayer because they help cut red tape and roadblocks for local governments seeking to maximize their roads improvement budgets. These standards will encourage local governments to address infrastructure needs in a more timely manner by allowing them to fix targeted issues, and they will help your elected officials stretch your tax dollars further.

In the coming years, my administration will continue to look for new ways to help local governments efficiently and effectively create the 21st-century infrastructure Nebraskans need to live their lives, grow their business, and build their communities. This initiative, like many others, took a lot of collaboration from many stakeholders over the course of three years, and it would not have been possible without the leadership and commitment of the Nebraska Board of Public Roads Classifications and Standards. As we continue to work to identify new ways to cut red tape, I hope that you will offer your own suggestions. If you have ideas, please call my office at 402-471-2244 or email at pete.ricketts@nebraska.gov. I look forward to hearing from you!

Bailey Bindle

Rachael Keithley

Bindle and Keithley receive Falls City Jaycees Scholarships

Graduated high school seniors Bailey Bindle of Falls City High, and Rachael L. Keithley of Falls City Sacred Heart, have been named the recipients of the annual Falls City Jaycees Scholarship. Each recipient is being awarded $1,000.00 toward the college of their choice. Both recipients have exhaustive lists of community involvement and school leadership, which fully encompasses the Jaycees Creed.

Bailey Bindle, daughter of Brian and Shawna Bindle, plans to attend Peru State College – School of Professional Studies to major in Criminal Justice Counseling and Psychology, and minor in Substance Abuse Counseling. Bailey remained on the Honor Roll, while being extremely involved in a number of clubs and activities. In her letters of recommendation, the following was noted regarding her character, “[Bailey] did more research and met again with the principal [after SADD was originally denied as a new club] and proved to him that students at this school needed [SADD]. . . . [Since its inception, SADD] has made such an impact that currently, SADD has 60 members.” Further, Bailey has furthered her involvement in SADD by her recent selection to represent the group on a national level as a member of the SADD National Student Leadership Council – a group of only nine students throughout the United States. Lastly, Bailey’s letters of recommendation confirmed she is a future recruit to become a Falls City Area Jaycees member because she has learned “community service is a life lesson that shows how important it is to help the community you live in, to thrive.” Congratulations, Bailey! Good luck pursuing your dreams.

Racheal Keithley, daughter of Michelle and the late Jerome Keithley, plans to attend Northwest Missouri State University majoring in Business. Racheal has also been involved in a number of extracurricular activities with school and the community as well as being the Salutatorian of her graduating class. She has received many honors and awards throughout her high school career, ranging from lettering in not only volleyball, basketball, and track, but also lettering in band and choir and receiving Superior Ratings at Districts. In her letters of recommendation, the following was noted about Racheal’s character: “[Racheal] worked well with the students in her class and was always ready to help a student that might not understand a concept well or just needed a little push to get started on a project.” Rachael has not only been very involved with volunteerism through FCSH and her church, but has also been a Jaycees member-in-training by volunteering at the Jaycees’ Demo Derby. We look forward to watching the continued development of Rachael’s leadership skills - hopefully even within the Falls City Area Jaycees’ organization. Congratulations, Rachael! Good luck pursuing your dreams.

The Falls City Areas Jaycees are proud to have these two outstanding students represent our organization and receive the 2016 Scholarship. The Jaycees would like to thank all the 2016 Scholarship Applicants – the decisions were not easy to make, and we know all the Applicants will be successful in achieving their goals. The Jaycees wish all members of the Class of 2016 the best of luck!

Kids enjoy Watershed of Wonders camp

On a hot day in mid-June, about 61 youngsters spent the day at Kirkman’s Cove Recreation Area near Humboldt for this year’s Watershed of Wonders day camp. Held Wednesday, June 15, the event was hosted by the Nemaha Natural Resources District and involved children from 18 different communities in southeast Nebraska.

During the five-hour day camp, the 10-12 year olds launched water rockets into the sky, tried their hand at archery, honed their fishing skills and got to get close to and even hold live fish, took a pontoon boat ride, road a hayrack across the lake’s flood control dam, and even participated in the Nemaha NRD’s own version of the Amazing “Water” Race. At the end of the day each participant received a bag full of goodies including their own 2016 Watershed of Wonders t-shirt. About half of the participants won prizes in a drawing at the end which featured such items as fishing rods, beach towels, tackle boxes, or other outdoor equipment.

The entire day’s activities, including lunch, snacks, drinks, and prizes, were provided at no cost to participants thanks in part to the generous donations from various vendors and organizations. Contributors and volunteers for this year’s Watershed of Wonders included: Humboldt Volunteer Fire Department, Nebraska Game & Parks Commission & Ak-Sar-Ben Aquarium, Subway of Auburn, Sun Mart of Auburn, Orscheln Farm & Home, Tecumseh, R&D Grocery of Humboldt, Big Indian Archers, Kirkman’s Lakeview Golf Course, Farmers Bank of Cook, State Bank of Table Rock, Casey’s General Stores in Pawnee City and Tecumseh, Custom Doors & Furniture of Auburn, Wabash Construction of Verdon, Kerner True Value-Tecumseh, Walmart-Beatrice, and Scheels-Lincoln. In addition Reece Luthy, Humboldt, graciously brought his pontoon boat out for the day giving rides and sharing water safety tips with the participants. Finally, many youth and adult volunteers stepped up to help with the days’ events, which could not take place without their contributions.

Watershed of Wonders originated in 2002 as a method of educating youth about the conservation efforts needed to help keep the waters of Kirkman’s Cove lake clean. Held every two years, the camp has also taken place at Iron Horse Trail Lake.

Free Back-to-School clothing giveaway returns to St. Paul’s

After last summer’s hiatus, St. Paul’s Lutheran Church (20th and Towle) will once again be holding a free Back-to-School clothing giveaway this year. The giveaway will be held during the first week of August, with volunteers setting up August 1-3 (beginning at 9:00am each day) and the giveaway taking place on the following dates: Thursday, August 1 (10:00am to 8:00pm); Friday, August 2 (10:00am to 6:00pm); and Saturday, August 3 (9:00am to 12:00noon).

Clothing donations will be accepted weekday mornings from 9:00 to noon beginning on Monday, July 11; donations at other times may be arranged by calling Sharon Walker at (402) 245-2134. Volunteers are also asked to call Sharon with their availability. Access to affordable clothing is an on-going need in our community, and we invite anyone with time and ability to consider being a part of our effort to address this need. Thank you in advance for your generosity in serving our community!

Firework safety tips to remember

In accordance with State Law the selling period for consumer fireworks begins on June 25th 12:01 a.m. and ends at midnight on July 4th. This selling timeframe can be shortened by city ordinances so citizens need to familiarize themselves with their local requirements. All retail stands need to be licensed and citizens should purchase their consumer fireworks at Nebraska stands. State law in Nebraska has changed to allow a broader selection of consumer fireworks, but there are still some restrictions. Some of the prohibited items include rockets with a stick attached, nighttime parachutes, and wire sparklers.

In 2015 Nebraska Fire Departments reported 49 fires directly attributed to fireworks. Those fires resulted in $60,417.00 of total loss.

A total of 176 fireworks related injuries were reported by 44 Nebraska hospitals during the survey period of June 25 through July 5, 2015. 27 hospitals reported no fireworks related injuries treated during this same time frame.

Here are some fireworks safety tips from the National Council on Fireworks Safety, American Pyrotechnics and the Insurance Information Institute that can make your celebration safer.

Safety first. Never throw or point fireworks at others.

Obey the law. Don’t use fireworks that are illegal in this state.

Keep fireworks away from children. Sparklers burn at up to 2,000 degrees, making them extremely dangerous for children.

ALWAYS read and follow the directions for fireworks carefully.

Don’t use malfunctioning items. Never attempt to relight a “dud.”

Have a fire extinguisher, hose, or bucket of water handy for emergencies. Drop used fireworks into a bucket of water. (Every year trash related fireworks fires occur because used fireworks are not fully extinguished.)

National Mosquito Control Awareness Week, June 26-July 2

The American Mosquito Control Association’s annual National Mosquito Control Awareness Week aims to educate about the significance of mosquitoes and the importance of eliminating them. Joh Burton, owner, Mosquito Squad, the largest and most experienced home and commercial mosquito control firm in the country, is putting mosquitoes on notice.

“The only good mosquito is a dead one. I’ve seen first-hand how neighbors working together, following CDC guidelines and walking their yards, can have a huge impact in eliminating mosquito breeding grounds. This is not difficult, we just need to be vigilant,” says Jon. Removal of standing water is the most essential tactic in mosquito elimination, yet too few homeowners aren’t actively removing it, let’s work together to change that.”

The professional technicians at Mosquito Squad recommend the following tips to help rid neighborhoods of dangerous mosquito breeding grounds:

TIP over anything that holds or collects water. A bottle cap filled with water holds enough water for mosquitoes to breed. Since mosquitoes breed in standing water, the elimination of standing water decreases a mosquito’s breeding ground. Mosquito Squad technicians report that yards with bird baths, play sets with tire swings, tree houses, portable fireplaces and pits and catch basins are the biggest offenders.

TOSS any yard trash including clippings, leaves and twigs. Even the smallest items can provide a haven for mosquitoes to breed and increase the population.

TURN over items that could hold water and trash. Look for children’s portable sandboxes, slides or plastic toys; underneath and around downspouts; in plant saucers, empty pots, light fixtures and dog water bowls. Eliminate these items or keep them turned over until used.

REMOVE TARPS that can catch water. Many homeowners have tarps or covers on items residing in their outdoor spaces. If not stretched taut, they are holding water. Check tarps over firewood piles, portable fire places, recycling cans, boats, sports equipment and grills. Mosquito Squad suggests using bungee cords to secure tarps in the yard.

TAKE CARE of your home. Proper maintenance can be a deciding factor in property values and mosquito bites. Regularly clean out gutters and make sure downspouts are attached properly. Mosquito Squad recommends re-grading areas where water stands more than a few hours, and to regularly check irrigation systems to ensure that they aren’t leaking and causing a breeding haven. Keep lawn height low and areas weed-free.

TEAM UP with neighbors. Despite taking all precautions in your own home, talking with neighbors is a key component to mosquito control. Townhomes and homes with little space between lots mean that mosquitoes can breed at a neighbor’s home, and affect your property.

TREAT your yard. Utilize a professional mosquito elimination barrier treatment around the home and yard. Using a barrier treatment at home reduces the need for using DEET-containing bug spray on both humans and pets. Individuals who want a more comprehensive mosquito control treatment can utilize Mosquito Squad, which uses the latest EPA-registered mosquito control barrier treatments, larvicide and all-natural substances to eliminate mosquitoes from yards and outdoor spaces.

About Mosquito Squad With 200 franchise locations nationwide, Mosquito Squad specializes in eliminating mosquitoes and ticks from outdoor living spaces, allowing Americans to enjoy their yards, outdoor living spaces, special events and green spaces. The Squad, the first and original mosquito control expert, has delivered more treatments than anyone in the industry and has been a proud supporter of Malaria No More since 2011. F&M Bank announces June Hometown Spirit Award

F&M Bank is excited to announce that their June “You’ve Got the Hometown Spirit” award goes to Jim Hill’s Paint & Glass! On June 22nd, they presented Charlotte Hill, Dan Hill and Ron Hill with their “You’ve Got the Hometown Spirit” award certificate and $50 in Chamber bucks.

In January of 1954, Jim Hill along with his wife Charlotte took a chance on the small community of Falls City and purchased a store from Fred Hillyard renaming it Jim Hill’s Paint and Glass. Jim Hill’s has been family owned and operated since day one. “The whole family has worked in the store at some point over the years”, Dan Hill noted, “We [brothers & sister] all started helping at the store in some way or another when we were little tots!”

Soon after the Hills opened their store, Jim was involved in the community by helping start a summer baseball and softball program known as Summer Recreation. Since Summer Recreation’s inception, Jim Hill’s Paint and Glass has sponsored a team in EVERY league. That’s over 275 teams!! The support from Jim and his family for what is now Falls City Recreation has been remarkable. F&M Bank is honored to recognize this family as being not only a staple in the business community but also a proud supporter of the community’s organizations.

Please join F&M Bank in congratulating their June “You’ve Got the Hometown Spirit” award recipient!

SENCA 10th Annual Benefit Golf Tournament hosts 15 local and area teams

On Saturday, June 18, Kirkman’s Lakeview Golf Course was filled with 59 local and area golfers gathered in support of the SENCA 10th Annual Benefit Golf Tournament.

Many of the same golfers return each year, some travelling a few miles or from nearby communities, others travelling from Lincoln, Omaha, or from out of state. Several of the teams were composed of second generation golfers whose family members have participated in SENCA tournaments during the past decade. Dan Watermeier, District 1 Nebraska State Senator from Syracuse, also participated.

In addition to the golfers, the event was supported by twenty-five sponsors, ranging in levels from Bronze ($100) to Platinum ($500) and the Hole-in-One grand prize of $5,000. Unfortunately no one took home the Hole-in-One prize, even though several of the golfers came close! Local and area businesses donated donuts and items for the delicious noon meal. SENCA staff donated baked treats.

Coffee and donuts were enjoyed by the golfers as they registered their teams and purchased Mulligans. Tee off was approximately 8:30 a.m.

Three flights of teams were recognized and awarded cash prizes. First flight, 1st place went to the Joy team (53) with the Blecha/Harlow team (57) securing 2nd place. Second flight, 1st place went to the Goofballs team (62) with the Godemann 2 team (63) taking 2nd place after a tie breaker (3) was determined on the 6th handicapped hole, #2, opposing team held a (4). Third flight, 1st place went to the Turnbull team (65) with the Godemann team (67) earning 2nd place.

Nine Flag prizes were awarded. Several golfers earned more than one prize. The prizes consisted of certificates for a free cart and nine holes of golf compliments of Kirkman’s Lakeview Golf Course.

Raffle winners did not need to be present to win. The drawing was done at the close of the tournament. Winners included: 4) Henry Doorly Zoo passes, Josh Kimpston (Hamburg, IA); 4) Kansas City Royals tickets, Katie Schlund (Pawnee City); and each winning a $250 Visa Gift Card – Sara Franklund (Auburn), Greg Keholm (Omaha), and William Sykes (Sabetha, KS).

In celebration of the 10th Annual Golf Tournament participants were provided with commemorative T-shirts. Participants also received koozies recognizing SENCA’s (Southeast Nebraska Community Action Partnership, Inc.) 50th Anniversary 1966 – 2016.

For more information regarding SENCA programs and services available in your community, please contact your local SENCA office or the Central Office in Humboldt at 402-862-2411. Information is also available at www.senca.org or www.facebook.com/senca1.

Is your water safe to drink?

(StatePoint) Although many Americans are aware of the water crises taking place in different parts of the country, such as Flint, Michigan and New Jersey, most believe themselves to be far removed from these situations. Experts caution however, that what’s happening there could happen anywhere, anytime to whole neighborhoods, individual streets or even just to a specific house.

Indeed, plumbing components still could legally contain up to eight percent lead as recently as January 2014. The good news is there are steps you can take to protect your family.

“The most important thing individual families can do to improve water quality is to filter it at home,” says Joseph Harrison, former chief of the EPA’s Safe Drinking Water Branch.

Harrison says there are filters that require installation, but the easiest option is to purchase a filtering system available at a local retailer that you fill with water and put in your fridge. Such systems come in various shapes and sizes, making them a good option for any size family or fridge.

For example, ZeroWater offers the only portable gravity-fed pour through filtration device that reduces the Total Dissolved Solids (TDS) measurement down to virtually zero and are certified by the NSF for lead reduction and other heavy metals to a safe level.

By removing 99.6 percent of all total dissolved solids, the filters get a 000 measurement on the digital water meter, which is equivalent to purified bottled water. They also remove more pharmaceuticals and chemicals than other leading two-stage filter brands, according to Good Housekeeping Research.

“Until all lead pipes in the water infrastructure system are safely replaced, consumers are largely on their own when it comes to protecting their families from lead,” says Harrison. “That’s why it’s so important to treat your water with a filter certified to reduce lead content.”

While all families should take steps to protect their health, proactive measures are especially crucial for families with pregnant women and children under six years old. This is because lead toxin exposure primarily affects developing brains and causes reduced intelligence, learning disabilities, developmental delays and fetal deaths.

To learn more about water filtration and how to test your water for lead, visit ZeroWater.com.

You don’t have to accept your local water quality as-is. By filtering your water, you can improve both its quality and its taste.

Ideas for Easier Household Shopping

(Statepoint) Navigating store aisles is more complicated than merely dodging other shoppers. With 50,000 new products introduced to consumers each year, it also means deciding which are best for you and your family. Without guidance, this can be overwhelming.

With this in mind, "Product of the Year," the world's largest consumer-voted award for product innovation, has announced this year's winners, which are backed by the votes of over 40,000 consumers.

The purpose of Product of the Year is to guide consumers to the best products as voted on by their peers. This year's winners can serve as a well-vetted guide to traversing store aisles to find innovative products:

1. Pantry Upgrades - Consumers this year voted for food products that offer healthier pantry upgrades. For those seeking healthier options, the Weight Watchers Smart Ones Smoothies, which won for the "Better for You" category, blends yogurt and fruit. The winner of the "Condiments" category, FRENCH's Tomato Ketchup, is free of gluten, high fructose corn syrup, preservatives, artificial flavors and colors.

For sweet tooth snackers, innovation in "Chocolate" was awarded to M&M's Crispy Chocolate Candies, and SweeTARTS Soft & Chewy Ropes topped the list for "Sugar Confections."

2. Household Innovations - Today, everything happens in one click and now that applies to cleaning your toilet. The new Lysol Click Gel applicator has been recognized for its innovation in the "Shower and Bath" category, as it allows you to press it against the inside of the bowl and with every flush it cleans the toilet for you for up to a week.

Laundry can get done faster when using a more advanced and powerful detergent such as the "Liquid Laundry" category winner, Tide HE Turbo Clean Liquid Detergent. This new formula offers six times the cleaning power in quick cycle versus the next-leading detergent in normal cycle.

3. Personal Care - New innovations are improving personal care, and surveys show that consumers are seeking multitasking products, such as Soft Lips Cube, which won Product of the Year's "Lip Care" category. Its formulation of shea butter with vitamins A, C, and E and SPF 15, features a sleek product design melding function and style in a glass-like cube.

Schwarzkopf essence Ultimate Omega Repair 11-IN-1 Leave In is this year's "Hair Care" winner, which intensively repairs damaged hair. In the "Feminine Care" category, Playtex Sport Collection is a must-have for athletic women, as the product twists and turns with their bodies to offer more protection.

4. Pet Favorites - If your pet's health is important to you, you're hardly alone. More pet owners are looking for higher grade, healthful food for furry friends. For optimal pet health, consider the winner of the "Pet Treats" category Milk-Bone Good Morning Daily Vitamin Treats, a treat that doubles as a daily vitamin, promoting well-being and longevity.

For another nutrient-filled flavor boost in doggy diets, consider Beyond Purées, the “Pet Food” winner, an innovative squeezable addition to dry food that supports health and is made of all natural ingredients.

5. Medicine Cabinet Essentials - Cut clutter by restocking your medicine cabinet with new items that can do more for you. Go beyond a regular sleep aid with “Vitamins & Supplements” winner Emergen-Zzzz, as it promotes sleep with melatonin, while fortifying sleepers with vitamin C and key antioxidants. Likewise, get more allergen protection bang for your buck with FLONASE Allergy Relief, which won the Product of the Year “OTC” category for helping to block six allergic substances as opposed to one. “Eye Care” winner, CLEAR CARE PLUS, gives contact lenses a deeper clean without irritating preservatives and harsh chemicals.

Make shopping simpler. Take a cue from other consumers to help find innovative items on store shelves that can improve your household routines.

- One day, angry colonists threw rocks and other items at British soldiers. The soldiers shot into the crowd, killing some people and wounding others. This event is called "The _____ Massacre." (1770)
- Next, the King insisted that people pay their taxes on tea. Angry colonists dressed up like Native Americans boarded the British ships. They threw the tea into the harbor. This event is called the Boston _____ Party. (1773)
- In 1775, the people of Lexington and Concord, Mass., gathered with guns to face arriving British soldiers. These clashes were the first of the _____ Revolution.
- George _____ became the leader of the American armed forces.
- The colonies of America declared themselves free from British rule on July 4, 1776, when the Second Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of _____.

A job description for each of the committees is available at the Extension Office.

Examples of possible opportunities include helping enter 4-H projects and displaying projects in the Ag Building and/or helping with the beef show, support auction, or many other events. For more information about volunteering, please contact the Extension Office at (402) 245-4324.

He described how several people asked about the date of the concert. He replied that the occasion was a Hymn Sing, not a concert. Then he realized it truly was a concert, and everyone present was an important performer in the concert. "This concert could not happen without the wonderful voices of each and every person here today."

The initial song was the church's anniversary hymn, "God of the Ages, Whose Almighty Hand" suggested by Dick James, who noted "This was sung at our wedding."

and Michele Gaskell who said, "This majestic hymn celebrates God's protection and love of us as He leads us through our paths of life." The Palladium Brass, a quintet from Omaha, provided a joyous accompaniment for this hymn and several others. Other hymns were "Jesus Christ is Risen Today," "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine," and "What a Friend We have in Jesus," with the last hymn added by von Behren. He told everyone that as he organized the program, he couldn't resist putting his favorite hymn in the list.

"How Great Thou Art," "Here I Am, Lord," "Our God, Our Help in Ages Past," "Hymn of Promise," and "The Church's One Foundation" were sung with love, before von Behren asked if any voices were tired. The congregation rested for a few minutes, while Ron Cima, husband of Gay Gibson Cima (FCHS Class of 1966) and member of the Choral Arts Society of Washington, D.C., wowed everyone with "America the Beautiful" suggested by Sharan Kerl as she wrote, "I can feel the grandeur R. L. Bates must have felt when atop Pike's Peak." During the song, ushers collected mystery hymn suggestions from people. "Eternal Father, Strong to Save," "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," "Great is Thy Faithfulness," "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing," and "I Danced in the Morning," filled the sanctuary with beautiful music. von Behren then drew from the mystery hymn suggestions. "Be Thou my Vision" was the choice of Amalia Hansen, Omaha, granddaughter of former church member John Morehead and Amy Morehead. The last song was the cherished hymn, "Amazing Grace" and the congregation was challenged to sing a verse a cappella. Rev. Winters-Hazelton offered a blessing at the conclusion of the Hymn Sing and thanked everyone for celebrating with the church family. The postlude was "Variations on Old One Hundredth" performed by the Palladium Brass. von Behren closed the occasion with one of his most popular pieces, "Toccata from Symphony V" by Charles-Marie Widor.

The congregation was invited to Westminster Hall for a reception after the service and a free will offering was collected. Half of the proceeds will go to the Little Stars Program, taught by Glenda von Behren and David von Behren. They introduce young children to the magic of music. The other half of the offering will go to the Richardson County SENCA food pantry.
