COMMUNITY MEDICAL CENTER ANNOUNCES NEW 3-D MAMMOGRAPHY MACHINE

In February, Community Medical Center CEO, Ryan Larsen shared the County Health Rankings and how Richardson County ranked with overall health and wellness. The first rankings were in 2010 and Richardson County was ranked as the least healthy county in Nebraska. Since then, the county has made slow but steady progress to number 51 (out of 93 counties).

CMC took this progress as heartening, according to Larsen, as the latest reports showed significant opportunities for continued improvement. The county scored poorly for indicators that tend to reduce risks from cancer

FCPS STAFF MEMBERS AND STUDENT TEST POSITIVE FOR COVID SOME STUDENTS ASKED TO QUARANTINE

On Tuesday, September 22, 2020, The Falls City Public School confirmed one staff member and one student testing positive for COVID-19 within School District 56; then on Monday, September 28, 2020, another staff member was confirmed to have tested positive for COVID-19.

Some Falls City Public School students were asked to quarantine at home as a precaution for themselves and other students' safety.

"Everyone requiring quarantine has been notified," said Falls City Public School Nurse, Jenny Helmick. "There are many different settings in a school that would place a person within six feet for a cumulative time period of fifteen minutes. If both people in this situation do not have a mask on, then those individuals will be asked to quarantine themselves. The only way out of quarantine is if the COVID positive person and the individual around that person are both wearing a mask."

Helmick assured the Journal that parents need not be concerned at this time. "Most people testing positive for COVID think it is just allergies," said Helmick. "Please take the time to screen yourself and students prior to coming to school." She added, "Parents should screen their children prior to coming to school every morning for two or more of the following: fever (measured or subjective), chills, cold/shivering, muscle pain, headache, sore throat, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea. At least one of the following:

SACRED HEART TO SERVE FREE MEALS AS PART OF COVID CHILD NUTRITION RESPONSE WAIVER #56

Falls City Sacred Heart Catholic School has been notified through the Nebraska Department of Education that the USDA will allow the school to serve free meals due to the COVID-19 Child Nutrition Response-Waiver #56.

As an extension of the Summer Food Service Program, all preschool through twelfth grade children qualify for free meals on days when school is in session through December 31, 2020, or until available USDA funding runs out.

The program allows Sacred Heart School to credit the full pay and reduced student meal accounts retroactive to the first day of school, August 13, 2020.

If the funding runs out before December 31, meals will revert back to full pay, reduced, or free as determined by current guidelines.

Under current guidelines, this program will not be in place for the second semester. Meals are provided to all children regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability. All families who have not completed a free and reduced application are encouraged to do so for the 2020-21 school year, however, this is not required to receive the free meals. "USDA is an equal opportunity provider."

FIVE BLOCKS OF LANE STREET TO BE BLOCKED OFF FOR TRICK OR TREATING

By Charlie Radatz

In the absence of Mayor Shawna Bindle, 3rd Ward Councilmember Mitch Merz, the city council president, presided at the Council's very brief Mon. Sept. 21 Council meeting, only four votes were taken. The Council voted 7-0 with councilman Derrick Leyden absent to grant a request from a representative for Lane Street residents, Jessica Santo of 2222 Lane Street, that city barricades be put up to close Lane Street to auto traffic from 21st to 26th Streets between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m., on Halloween, Sat., Oct. 31. Ms. Santo furnished the Council a letter signed by residents supporting closing the street to automobiles and off-road vehicles such as golf carts to limit the possibility of any child becoming injured while trick or treating for Halloween in that area, long a popular target of trick and treats. Lane residents will participate in a porch lighting contest in conjunction with Halloween, and she reported she had spoken to principals of both Falls City North School and Sacred Heart Schools and both agreed, as she put it, "the kids need this" because of the recent Covid-19 restrictions on group activities. Trick or Treating is permitted under the most recent COVID rules issued by Governor Pete Ricketts. She also invited residents of other portions of the city to use the median in that five-block area to distribute candy to youngsters if they so desire. Ms. Santo said Farm and City Ace Hardware, Dorr and Clark Funeral Home, and the Sunmart have all agreed to make portions of their parking lots available for parents dropping off their children. Crossing guards will be stationed at 21st and Lane, an often busy intersection.

The Council also voted 7-0 to approve a request from Tabitha Bachman and Christian Tollefson for the use of Prichard for a wedding reception Nov. 14, 2020, with alcohol to be served. City Administrator Gary Jorn said he requires the couple to purchase a liquor liability policy to insure themselves and the city should any personal injury or property damage occur due to a person having consumed liquor at the event. He said Governor Ricketts current Covid-19 restrictions on public gathering would permit up to 300 persons to attend.

On a 6-1 vote with one absent, the Council approved on third reading an Ordinance permitting the licensing of puppies of nuisance breeds while they were undergoing obedience training. Also approved by the same margin was the routine Consent Agenda that includes approval of the minutes from the previous meeting, approval of the current meetings agenda, the police report, and the treasurer's report.

HUNTING AND FISHING IN NEBRASKA

By Governor Pete Ricketts

The crisp, cool air in the mornings and evenings signals the start of fall in Nebraska. It's the time of year when many Cornhuskers head outdoors to hunt and fish. On September 26th, Nebraska will join the nation in celebration of National Hunting and Fishing Day. This important day has extra significance in Nebraska, where hunting and fishing are part of our cultural fabric. For generations, dads and moms have been taking their children to tree stands and creek banks to teach them how to hunt and fish.

For many, hunting or fishing is a relaxing way to spend a day with friends and family. These activities give Nebraskans the opportunity to unwind from the work week, explore the natural beauty of Nebraska, and spend quality time together. They also present the opportunity to pass along a love of the outdoors to the next generation. My son Roscoe and I go on an annual turkey hunt together, and we've made many fun memories on our trips together.

Whether you're a seasoned veteran or beginner, Nebraska offers abundant opportunities to hunt deer, turkey, and upland game. There are deer in every county of Nebraska, and our state has been the site of some legendary trophy bucks. In 1962, Del Austin of Hastings took down a 39-point whitetail with his bow, setting a Pope & Young world record that would stand for nearly 40 years! The impressive buck, nicknamed "Old Mossy Horns," has become part of Nebraska hunting lore and still ranks fifth all-time among whitetails. Ten years ago, Kevin Petrzilka of Brainard shot a huge, 17-point whitetail buck in Saunders County. With typical antlers measuring 198 2/8 inches, it was named one of the 20 Best Bucks of the Decade (2010s) by Field & Stream magazine.

Nebraska is also one of the nation's top destinations for turkey hunting. Wild turkeys have become plentiful statewide since being reintroduced by the Commission in 1959. Currently, Nebraska has two turkey hunting seasons, and the birds can be found in every county of the state. Last October, I headed to Dawes County for the Governor's Pine Ridge Wild Turkey Hunt near Chadron. The Turkey Hunt is a wonderful example of a creative initiative that invites tourism to our state. It showcases the scenic landscapes of northwest Nebraska, puts visitors in contact with wildlife, and allows tourists to enjoy one of Nebraska's greatest attractions—its kind-hearted and hospitable people. While the hunt's events are postponed this year, I look forward to other turkey hunting opportunities this fall.

In addition to having plentiful habitat for deer and turkeys, the grasslands of Nebraska host a diversity of upland game species. Ring-necked pheasants, bobwhite quail, sharp-tailed grouse, and prairie chickens all make their home here in the Cornhusker State. The late Lynn Berggren of Broken Bow, who served on the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission from 2008 to 2016, was a champion of creating opportunities for pheasant hunting. In 2016, the Commission launched its Berggren Plan for Pheasants. Its ambitious goals were to improve pheasant hunting by increasing pheasants, increasing hunter access to land holding pheasants, and increasing the number of pheasant hunters. Since the plan's inception, the State has completed 2,100 projects with private landowners, positively impacting more than 187,000 acres of habitat throughout the pheasant range.

If you want to pass along your love of the outdoors to young Nebraskans, there are several opportunities available for you. This fall, the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission is sponsoring its Take 'em Hunting program for a second year. It encourages Nebraskans to pass on their passion for hunting by taking a friend, neighbor, or family member along for the experience. To participate, snap a photo during your hunting trip and submit it online at outdoornebraska.gov/takeemhunting. You'll be eligible to win gift cards, hunting gear, and the grand prize—a camo John Deere crossover utility vehicle.

The Nebraska Game and Parks Mentored Youth Archery Program is another great opportunity for young hunters to gain skills under the guidance of a veteran hunter. The program is open to bowhunter education graduates who are 12 to 17 years old. Hunters are paired with qualified instructors for a full archery season. Mentors show participants how to scout, hang tree stands, interpret animal signs, and safely handle the animals they harvest. For more information, visit outdoornebraska.gov/mentoredhunts.

Nebraska also boasts nearly 450 lakes and streams that are open to public fishing. Anglers can fish for walleye, channel catfish, rainbow trout, largemouth bass, and more. We stock more than 50 million fish each year. With fall trout stockings, great fishing opportunities await in the coming months. Our online 2020 Fishing Forecast will help you find out where the fish are biting (outdoornebraska.gov/fishingforecast).

Hunting and fishing are extremely important to our state's economy. They have an annual economic impact of over one billion dollars and support nearly 12,000 jobs. Many of our rural communities, in particular, benefit from the tourism of hunters and anglers who visit our state for these outdoor pastimes.

Purchases of hunting and fishing permits help fund the stewardship of our state's fish and wildlife, and increasing interest in these activities will help grow more opportunities for Nebraska's sportsmen and women. If you'd like to learn more, visit the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission's website at outdoornebraska.gov. When you go to the blind or pond this fall, consider taking someone new with you. Sharing your passion helps other Nebraskans experience the joys of hunting and fishing, while providing fun and excitement for all.

INCIDENT MANAGEMENT TEAM CAN BE A LIFE-SAVER

Capitol View
Nebraska Press Association
By: J.J. Schmidt

The left coast is on fire and the right coast and parts of the South are being whipped by tropical storms.

Fire danger in Nebraska is high as well with more drought-ridden acres burned so far than in some years.

But, thanks to cooperative and collaborative efforts, the Cornhusker State is handling matters better than ever.

The Nebraska Forest Service says about 25,000 acres have burned and that's on the high side of average. Two big fires were sparked in one of the driest Augusts ever. The Hubbard Gap fire burned 4,000 acres in the Wildcat Hills of Banner County and the Aristocrat Fire burned 400 acres south of Chadron on state forestland.

The good news, it could have been much worse had it not been for teamwork between local and state agencies. Volunteer fire department chiefs in both incidents said they learned --from the fires that burned more than 500,000 acres in 2012 -- to call for help early on. Still, six volunteer firefighters were injured in the Hubbard Gap fire, which also prompted two emergency evacuations.

In response to the 2012 fires, the 2013 Nebraska Legislature allocated extra funds for more equipment and training. Now, the administration of Governor Pete Ricketts has taken one more all-important step and created a fully operational Type 3 All-Hazards Incident Management Team.

No, it's not just another committee. It's not a bunch of people running around with clipboards and file folders and attending meetings. This IMT is the real deal, considering the involvement of the Nebraska Emergency Management Agency, the State Fire Marshal's office, the Nebraska National Guard and the Nebraska Forest Service.

Ricketts said the new Incident Management Team is helping better coordinate Nebraskans to provide leadership during extended emergencies including wildfires, floods, and other disasters. It will be most useful when communities face challenges beyond the capabilities of local responders.

Hopefully the IMT will eliminate the red tape and the hesitancy to call for help that has plagued the system in the past. It is supposed to work at the scene of a disaster to coordinate a response along with the State Emergency Operations Center at NEMA and federal partners, if needed, to secure resources and personnel that exceed a local jurisdiction's capabilities.

It's touted as a commitment to build strong partnerships. Local jurisdictions, often stretched to the limits in finances and time management, can now request that the State directly manage the disaster response. The team will be responsible for coordinating efforts in the wake of wildfires, floods and other disasters. A bonus is that the team can engage individuals with specialized training for a quicker response.

Officials with the Nebraska National Forests & Grasslands are urging visitors to help prevent wildfires because fire danger is rated as very high. The agency has reported a total of 11 fires this year, four caused by humans, and seven by lightning. Visitors should be aware of fire restrictions and know that target shooting and use of power equipment can spark a wildfire. Campfires should be kept small, fully extinguished and never left unattended. Fireworks and exploding targets are not allowed on national forest system lands.

State Fire Marshal Chris Cantrell calls the IMT "a major milestone towards Nebraska being capable of assisting its citizens in their greatest time of need."

I'd say that's great news, perhaps the best so far from this unusual year.

and heart disease. These include higher than average rates of smoking and obesity, lower levels of physical activity, and much lower rates for basic screening, like mammograms and colonoscopies. When looking solely at health behaviors, Richardson County still received one of the lowest scores in the state.

As Community Medical Center was on the verge of launching proactive measures to improve overall health and wellness, the Corona Virus (COVID-19) hit our community, state, nation and world. Fast forward seven months later, Larsen states today, "This report has not been forgotten and CMC is getting back on track and taking action. All of these are issues we can do something about. Additionally, we have shown over the last decade that we can improve by working together and being persistent."

As identified in the report, Women's Health Issues were a priority. Larsen confirmed that the hospital sees women's health as an opportunity. "In discussions with our doctors and community groups, we think improving women's health could have a big impact—both for the women themselves and for their families—since women are often both caregivers and the drivers of health behaviors in their families. Further, we're finding that the hospital and other organizations can and need to do more to support the health of women."

Community Medical Center is proud to announce a vital first step, the investment of a new 3-D mammography unit. This new unit performs Tomosyn-thesis (3D) screenings, which allow for more efficient and accurate mammograms. Getting a mammogram is the same for the patient, but results are more accurate due to the upgraded technology. With expert CMC technologists, the radiologist is able to see the breast tissue in thin layers, rather than one flat image. Julie Fiegner, CMC Director of Imaging, says, "The 3-D mammogram shows us pictures of the breast tissue in thinner slices, so it's similar to being able to read each page of a book and get the full story."

Larsen said that the hospital is working with the health department and local health care organizations for Women's Wellness with mammography, cardiovascular screenings, fitness, behavioral health and more. We have the potential to benefit a great number of women and families."

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Community Medical Center asks all women to talk with their providers about getting a mammogram and other wellness exams. It is recommended women age 40 and over should have a mammogram every one to two years. Call the CMC Imaging Department at 402-245-6556 to schedule your mammogram.

Candidate for Nebraska Legislature, District 1

CASINO REVENUE: REAL PROPERTY TAX RELIEF

I am announcing my support for achieving real property tax relief for Nebraska via casino gambling which will be on the November ballot in three initiatives – 429 (amending the constitution), 430 (authorize casinos at licensed racetracks), and 431 (designate revenue for property tax relief and to fund compulsive gamblers assistance.) In fact, I am the very first GOP candidate to support this initiative.

Appointed Senator Julie Slama opposes this real property tax relief initiative. Slama opposes expanding gambling in Nebraska.

Listening to thousands of voters across our 5-county region, I have come to believe that adding this new revenue stream is our only viable option for achieving real property tax relief. I encourage voters to vote YES on 429, 430, and 431. Let me explain.

The concluding weeks of the Nebraska Legislature in July and August demonstrated that our elected officials are simply not up to the task of real leadership. The so-called 'grand compromise' of LB1107 was simply 'too little, too late' on the topic of property tax relief. In fact, property taxes won't be reduced by even a single dollar. And appointed Senator Julie Slama opposes this real property tax relief initiative. This dismal lack of leadership has convinced me that voters themselves must take action to ensure real property tax relief. Fortunately, on the November ballot, we have the power.

The petition initiative would legalize casino gambling at six licensed horse racing locations and earmark 70% of the new taxes received into the general fund to help provide real property tax relief. An estimated $500 million or more is being spent by Nebraskans in casinos in neighboring states – that money could stay in our state and generate as much as $80-$120 million in new tax revenue that could be used to aid property tax relief across the state, instead of sending it to surrounding states.

Nebraska racetrack casinos could create over 4,600 new Nebraska jobs, help defray property taxes, bolster local government budgets, and provide counseling to problem gamblers.

To be clear, I personally am not a gambler, but for some it is entertainment. I realize that some with addictive personalities can be lured into making bad choices and we must take precautions to assist them. But in my final analysis, this is our best option for real property tax relief.

Nebraskans need state senators who listen, lead and will make tough decisions. This is one of those times. The mark of a good leader is to be a good listener. I have listened and now am ready to lead on this important issue. We cannot achieve real property tax relief by kicking the can down the road. That's why I'm taking a bold stand by supporting expanded casino gambling. Money from it will go to real, lasting property tax relief.

In the Nebraska Legislature, I will continue to be a strong advocate for real property tax relief. To visit with me about this important issue, visit my website: PalmtagForNebraska.com.

Shubert's ALA Unit #222

By Elizabeth Ketner

Shubert's ALA Unit #222 met at the Shubert Library on Sept. 8, 2020. President Tana Brown called the meeting to order, and Chaplain pro-tem Linda Patchen gave a prayer for the ALA Star. The Pledge of Allegiance was repeated, "God Bless America" was sung, and the ALA preamble was recited. The meeting was declared open. Seven members answered roll call. Secretary pro-tem Elizabeth Ketner read the minutes of the Aug. 11, meeting and they were approved as read.

President Brown gave the treasurers report in the absence of that officer. There was a notation of bills paid and money received. Marilyn Capps made a motion to accept the report, and Sharon Sells seconded it. The motion carried. It was noted that the unit's books had been audited by Vicki Beilke and Mrs. Ketner and found to be in accord. No bills were presented.

Committee reports: Ms. Patchen is arranging a tour of homes for December. Money received from that goes to local VA &R. The unit has yet to select a veteran. Education: the HTRS third grade teacher is Sheri Drake and she would like ten books from the 10 for ten program. Members are paying their dues right along. No goal for membership has been set yet. It appears that the same guidelines will be used for essays as last year. The teachers in Falls City are ready to begin and HTRS will be contacted.

Sympathy cards: Mrs. Sells noted she had recently lost her husband.

The flag retirement ceremony, previously set for earlier that evening, had been canceled due to rain and cold. Mrs. Ketner hopes to set this up for October.

Potluck: Ms. Patchen said the unit could host this at the Still Centerfield building if the post's building is still out of service. The date would be Oct. 6. Mrs. Brown said she had prepared the unit's updated standing rules and would be going to department for approval soon. The unused Easter candy will be given to Headstart or church youth programs. The unit secretary, Doris Erickson, recently died, and the unit received a thank you from her church for its assistance with serving the family dinner. The Humboldt unit sent Unit 222 a sympathy card in honor of Mrs. Erickson. It was noted that the fall round-up would be Oct. 17 in Cook, with registration at 11:30 and lunch provided by their unit.

Unit 222 is now without a secretary. The executive committee will find a candidate for that office. Mrs. Ketner is filling in temporarily. Member Lana Willman will have surgery later in Sept. It was noted that the proper title of the unit is Shubert Unit #222, American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Ketner reminded members that she is collecting UPC codes from Our Family products for HTRS. There was a suggestion from the department that units donate cookies, etc., to police stations as a symbol of appreciation. President Brown will find out more about this, as some places will not accept homemade

Fisher House opens for Veterans, Military on Omaha VA Medical Center Campus; brings new service to Nebraska Veterans

The VA Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care System in partnership with Fisher House Foundation opened a Fisher House Sept. 9, adding another extremely valuable resource on campus for area Veterans and their families.

The Fisher House features 16 fully furnished suites in a two-story 13,000 square foot facility that will serve as a "home away from home" for the families of Veterans and military service members receiving treatment at the Omaha VA Medical Center. The Fisher House was constructed by Fisher House Foundation and gifted to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. Construction for the project began roughly one year ago and marks the 88th such facility constructed by Fisher House Foundation. It is the first one built in Nebraska.

"This is another exciting addition to our Omaha VA Medical Center campus that will provide our Veterans and families with an unprecedented level of comfort and ease of mind as their Veterans or military service members receive the medical care they need and deserve," said B. Don Burman, Director of VA Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care. "We cannot adequately express our gratitude to Fisher House Foundation and all of those who made this facility possible. What you are doing in support of our Veterans and military service members is something that should make all Americans extremely proud."

"Fisher House Foundation is thrilled about opening this house in Omaha, the first in Nebraska," said Chairman and CEO of items.

Monetary assignments were discussed. Gift shop, veterans home, and gifts for Yanks were some of the many. Mrs. Ketner made a motion to send money to three of them, with a second by Mrs. Capps. Other possibilities will be gone over in October.

Last year the unit purchased 1300 poppies. It was decided to do the same this year. Extras could be used to make tray favors for local nursing homes. A letter from the department commander was read, where he stressed showing appreciation to law officers. There was a suggestion to send cards of thanks to the law, fire, and first responders, etc.

The charter will be draped at the October meeting in honor of Mrs. Erickson. It was noted that serviceman Mike Kuker has retired, Andy Kelsay is in Italy, and Isaiah Lockard is in Basic Training. Names of local service members will be collected for Christmas cards.

The next meeting will be on October 13 at the library. The meeting was adjourned, Ms. Patchen gave a prayer from the Star, and the meeting was closed.

Fisher House Foundation Ken Fisher. "The people of Omaha understand the contributions Veterans and their families have made to this great nation. This new home is their way to honor that service and sacrifice."

Along with the 16 fully furnished suites, the Omaha Fisher House includes a large dining room, library, living room, fully stocked kitchen and laundry facilities, and an exterior patio. Each of the suites includes a private, wheelchair-accessible bathroom.

According to Colleen Vonderhaar, Omaha Fisher House Manager, the staff is eager to serve area Veterans and their families. "We are extremely excited to open this amazing home up to our Veterans and families and begin providing them a level of peace and comfort as their loved-one undergoes treatment here at the Omaha VA Medical Center," Vonderhaar said. "Our goal is to provide our guests with a level of comfort and service that will allow them to better focus on supporting the needs of their loved-one. This amazing house will allow us to do just that."

A virtual tour of the Fisher House is available at <https://www.facebook.com/watch/?v=627527951285506>.

Fisher House Foundation is best known for its network of comfort homes where military and veterans' families can stay at no cost while a loved one is receiving treatment. These homes are located at major military and VA medical centers nationwide, close to the medical center or hospital they serve. Fisher Houses have up to 21 suites, with private bedrooms and baths. Families share a common kitchen, laundry facilities, a warm dining room and an inviting living room. Fisher House Foundation ensures that there is never a lodging fee. Since inception, the program has saved military and veterans' families an estimated $500 million in out of pocket costs for lodging and transportation.

Richardson County Farm Family Awards presented at the Richardson County Fair

Richardson County Farm Family Awards were presented at the Richardson County Fair on Saturday, September 19. Four families were presented awards for continuous family ownership of their farmsteads. Volunteer awards were also presented during the presentation.

The Heritage Farm Family awards go to the applicants who can show continuous family ownership for at least 150 years. In this category, the Cornelius Family Farm was awarded.

The southeast quarter of section 32 in Porter Township was originally acquired by Joseph K. Cornelius in 1861.

The farm has grown to 880 acres and is currently owned by Mark and Barn Stappenbeck and Kurt and Pat Stappenbeck the great grandchildren of Joseph K. Cornelius.

The Cornelius family was not in attendance for the presentation.

The Richardson County Ag Society was presented awards for years of Volunteering for the Richardson County Fair. Awards were presented by Todd Mayer, Ag Society Board Member to the following:

Charlie Crook (20), John Cander (25), Kristy Fischer (25), Sarah Nims (25), Betty Stauffer (25), Terry Glathar (3), Alan King (30), Tom Standerford (40), June Hayward (45), Joe Standerford (45), Jeane Standerford (50), Glenn Hayward (65), Jim Standerford (75).

President Brenda Frederick asked for a moment of silence as a tribute to Jeane Standerford who passed away in 2020. Jeane was a very active member volunteering for service, 50 years, to the Richardson County Fair both with the Ag Society and the Humboldt Chamber Coronation program.

Duaine Stalder, Curator for Quad County Historical and Research Society aka Quad County Museum, Humboldt, received the History Nebraska - Heritage Hero award from Lance Bristol, President of Board of Trustee of History Nebraska during the fair.

Duaine Stalder is curator of the Quad County Museum in Humboldt. The museum has been in existence for 10 years, and Duaine has been there from the beginning which includes the days when there wasn't even a building to house historic items.

The museum is housed in a smallish former bank building. Duaine is currently superintending an expansion project to the second floor, an area which has not been used for years. He has become an architect, carpenter, electrician, painter for the undertaking.

Duaine shows up at the building almost daily. Sometimes he is there to accept a donation or to show the museum to someone with an interest or to continue the remodel with his hammer. As a lifelong resident of the area, he has a firsthand knowledge of many events and people from the past. He delights in Quentin Bowen (right) presented Keith and Brenda McKim The Heritage Family Farm Award during the Richardson County Fair. The award was presented to Porter Township and the Brenda McKim Family Farm established in 1870 - 150 years ago. The 240 acre farm was originally owned by James Corwin Fergus in 1870 and then his son Frank Fergus and his wife May. Later it was passed to Frank and May's daughter, Helen McKim and her husband Orval. In 2014 James Fergus' great-grandson, Keith McKim and his wife Brenda took ownership of the farm. The farm currently produces corn, soybeans and cattle.

Andy Dunn (right) presented Susan Brown, her daughter Geri and her children Noah and Ellie the Pioneer Award during the Richardson County Fair. The Pioneer Family Farm Awards are for farms that have been owned within the same family for at least 100 years. The Rieschick Family Farm, located just north and east of Falls City Airport, this farm was purchased by W. F. Rieschick in 1919. In 1963 the farm transferred ownership to his daughter Katheryn Rieschick Wengelzel then on to a nephew, Albert Rischick and his wife Margie in 1964. In 1985 the farm was acquired by current owners, Susan Rieschick Brown and Jane Rieschker Petersonn, who are grandnieces to the original owner, W. F. Rieschick.

Bradley and Cheryl Rausch received the Pioneer Family Farm Award from Andy Dunn while Quentin Bowen announced it to the crowd at the Richardson County Fair. Brad Rausch's great-grandfather, John Rausch Sr., purchased a 160 acre farm on March 15, 1915 for $144 per acre. It was later passed down to his son Albert and then to Albert's son Wayne. Wayne began working this farm the day after his return from WWII, and never stopped until his death, nearly 70 years later. Over the years, the farm has had cattle, hogs, sheep, chicken, ducks, horses, dogs and cats. It's raised corn, soybeans, milo, wheat, alfalfa, and clover and has been the home to generations of Rausch children. (All photos were provided by Sandy Stalder) tracking down a significant date or identifying the location of a no-longer existing building.

His interest and love for preserving the past goes beyond the ordinary. His abilities have made the Quad County Museum possible. He is a great example of someone who is using his retirement years to best advantage. Duaine Stalder is deserving of being named a Heritage Hero. (Information submitted by Sandy Stalder)

Different ways kids can give back

Children can learn about the importance of giving back at an early age. Youngsters who become accustomed to volunteering and supporting charities may be more inclined to continue doing so as they get older.

Parents magazine reports that the number of parents with young children who are volunteering and getting involved has increased in recent years. As family schedules continue to be busy, charitable work done as a family unit can be an ideal way to spend time together and engage in activities for the greater good.

Kids can get involved in many different charitable efforts. Quite often children are forward thinkers and innovators and may have their own unique ideas in regard to volunteering or charitable work, but the following are some ways kids can get involved in giving back.

- Donate food. Children can easily gather food to donate to a food pantry in the area. Set aside a bag to donate and pick one item for the donation bin each time the family visits the supermarket. When the bag is full, deliver it to an organization in need. Children also may work with their schools to have a collection box on campus and encourage other families to donate.

- Participate in a "walk" or "run." Walks or runs for a cause are popular events in which participants solicit pledges tied to their performances. While these are traditionally group efforts, COVID-19 may change the way future walks are organized. Participants may be able to do a walk or run on their own and still raise funds for local charities.

- Be a buddy. Children can be paired up with a senior at a nursing home, a child at a children's hospital or even a kid who is new to the neighborhood and hasn't yet made school friends. Companionship can be a great gift.

- Get involved in a cleanup campaign. Picking up litter from parks, beaches, streets, and even around school grounds can be a great foray into volunteer work. Go beyond just removing trash. Organize a planting event or remove brush and weeds as well.

- Collect funds. Children can learn the joy of charitable giving by starting small. Keep a change collection jar at home and toss change from shopping excursions or coins they may find while out and about in the community. When the jar is filled, cash in the coins and donate to a charity of your child's choosing.

Children can begin learning about the benefits of being charitable individuals at a young age when their parents introduce them to volunteerism and other ways to give back.

Throughout Darlene's life, they would live there, being blessed with four children: Darrel, Darla, Duane, and Diane. Throughout the years, in addition to raising her children and running the household, Darlene worked side by side with Dean on the farm using their red equipment.

When she had the time, Darlene loved to sew and became a wiz at patching jeans. She was known to wear out a deck of cards by playing solitaire. Darlene also loved to travel to many Rodeos, watching the family rope, wrestle steers, and barrel race. Darlene and Dean enjoyed square dancing as well.

As a member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Darlene played the organ for the church and was a member of LWML. She belonged to the Champion Extension Club for many years and was 4-H Leader as her kids grew. She also was a Nebraska Elections Poll Worker for more than 26 years.

Darlene developed Diabetes and battled the complications associated with the disease over the years. In February of 2020, she was admitted to Good Samaritan Society-Auburn. When the family was unable to visit her at Good Sam because of the COVID-19 Pandemic, they made the decision to move her home to care for her with the help of Darla and Samantha and Hospice Care. Back at home, she enjoyed reading the daily paper, watching game shows on TV, and looking at pictures and other memories of her life.

On Monday, September 21, 2020, Darlene passed away at home with family around her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dean's parents, Orvin and Emma Volker, infant brother Dalen Boden, sisters and brother-in-law Lillian and Leland Bohling, Orva Jean Gobber, brother-in-law Fred Jenkins, nephew Tim Gobber, sisters- and brothers-in-law Mildred and John Kalous, Gladys and Maynard Schneider, Neva and Jim Thies, and brother- and sister-in-law Lloyd and Donna Volker.

Darlene will be forever remembered by her husband Dean; children Darrel Volker of Auburn, Darla and husband Ron Remmers of Olathe, KS, Duane and wife Linda Volker of Auburn, Diane Johnson and special friend Randy Dalby of Nemaha; grandchildren Samantha (Derek) Gaughan, Wade Colgrove, Dustin Volker, Brandon (Lacey) Volker, Clarissa (Justin) Heinsen, Lance Volker, Royce Johnson, Derek (Holly) Volker, Emily Remmers; 10 great-grandchildren; sister Elvera Jenkins of Johnson; brothers Robert (Delta) Boden of Auburn, Marlin Boden of Nemaha, Willard (Janice) Boden of Nemaha; other relatives and friends.

A funeral service, officiated by Rev. Jonathan Rathjen, was held on Thursday, September 24, 2020, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Auburn. Sandy Wilson was organist and accompanist for congregational songs. Casket bearers were Wade Colgrove, Dustin Volker, Brandon Volker, Lance Volker, Royce Johnson, Derek Volker, Derek Gaughan, and Justin Heinsen. Honorary bearers were Samantha Gaughan, Clarissa Volker, Emily Remmers, lacey Volker, and Holly Volker. Burial followed in the Nemaha Cemetery at Nemaha.

Tiger VB falls twice

By Brian McKim

The Tiger volleyball team had a short week after their game against Savannah on Tuesday was cancelled due to COVID concerns. The Tiger's only other action for the week was a triangular in Syracuse on Thursday, September 24, against the Rockets and Nebraska City Lourdes. Unfortunately for the Tigers, they ran into a pair of tough teams, dropping both games and falling to 5-10 for the season.

In the match against Lourdes, Falls City won the first set 25-23 before dropping the final two, 25-17 and 25-12. Lexi Brewer led the Lady Tigers with six kills. Reece McNeely was next with four and RaeAnn Thompson added two. Lindsey McNeely had the only ace serve of the game for FC. Chase Nolte and Ashleigh Kirkendall each had a block at the net and Makinley Scholl has 20 digs while Brewer added ten. Kirkendall also led the playmaking with ten assists, while Scholl finished with 23 serves received with just two errors for the Tigers.

The Tigers ran into a strong Syracuse team in the other match of the evening. The Rockets dominated the Tigers 25-10 and 25-12. Thompson led FC with four kills; Brewer added three and R. McNeely and Nolte each had two. Scholl led the squad with 12 digs and Brewer finished with 11. Kirkendall led Falls City with nine assists and Nolte led the team with 15 serves received. The Rockets improved to 13-1 for the season with the two-set win.

Falls City hosted Horton on Monday night. Hiawatha was scheduled to take part, but due to them moving to remote learning, the sports teams are not allowed to participate in activities. On Saturday, the Tigers will play in the Johnson County Tournament at JCC High School in Tecumseh.

Tigers run past Jeffs

By Brian McKim

The Falls City Tigers picked up a big win on Friday night, downing the Fairbury Jeffs 55-0. Not only did the Tigers improve to 4-1 for the year, but they also ended Fairbury's three-game winning streak over the Tigers. FC controlled the game from the beginning, leading 20-0 after the first quarter and 33-0 at the half. The Tigers added 14 points in the third and eight in the fourth as they literally ran past the Jeffs, 55-0.

Falls City controlled the game's pace, finishing with 450 yards rushing while limiting Fairbury to 27 yards on the ground and just 66 through the air. Overall, FC held a 477-93 total yard advantage. The Tigers finished with a 25-7 first down advantage and FC won the turnover battle 6-1, forcing six interceptions. On the second play of the Tiger's first offensive possession, Leighton Vice took the ball left and raced 46 yards, untouched for the game's first score. The Lukas Aldana kick made it 7-0 with 10:01 left in the first.

Facing a fourth and five at their 44, Fairbury tossed their first of six interceptions.

FC marched down the field, covering 41 yards in seven plays, ending with Vice taking a late option to the right in from three yards out to make it 14-0

Tiger softball falls to 5-17

By Brian McKim

With the Falls City softball team heading into the season's home stretch, the Tigers dropped all four contests they played, including going 0-2 in their first appearance in the ECNC Tournament in Auburn on Saturday.

The week began with a 12-4 loss on Tuesday, September 22, in Fairbury. FC scored first in the third when Madi Jones drove in Elyse Poppe with a one-out single to give Falls City a 1-0 lead. The Jeffs struck right back, plating four runs in the bottom half of the inning and never looked back.

Trailing 5-1 in the top of the fifth, FC managed to make it a game again. Walks by Poppe and Abby Harms brought Jones to the plate, who made it a one-run game with one swing of the bat. The HR to center field made it 5-4. Fairbury rattled off seven unanswered runs to hold on for the 12-4 win.

FC was out hit by Fairbury 16-7. Sara Black was 2-3, Jones was 3-3 with a double, one HR and four RBI. Brewer pitched four innings, allowing seven hits and five runs. Poppe pitched the final 1 1/3, allowing nine hits and seven runs.

In the second game of the week, the Tigers hosted Freeman on Thursday. One big inning by Freeman doomed the Tigers. An eight-run second inning proved to be too much for FC to overcome as the Tigers dropped the game 10-2.

Freeman kept moving the base runners in the second. Three doubles, six singles and a walk led to the eight Falcon runs.

In the bottom of the second, Harms started a two-out rally by getting hit by a pitch. A base hit by Courtney McClintock put runners at first and third. A steal of home by Harms and an RBI single by Zoey Ebel made it 8-2.

FC wouldn't threaten again, as Freeman added single runs in the fourth and sixth. Freeman out hit FC 15-6.

McClintock went 2-2 at the plate and Ebel was 1-2 with an RBI. Poppe took the loss, pitching six innings, allowing 15 hits and ten runs.

On Saturday morning, the Tigers were playing in their first ECNC Softball Tourney held in Auburn. In game one, the fifth-seeded Tigers took on the fourth-seeded Weeping Water Indians. Weeping Water staked an early lead, running away with a 10-2 win in five innings.

FC scored first in the top of the opening frame. With two outs, Jones singled to left field and came home on a double by Kacy Brewer. The Indians responded with four runs in the bottom of the first and never trailed. Weeping Water extended their lead to 7-1 in the second. FC got one run back in the third. Jones reached on a two-out single and later scored on an RBI single by Brewer to make it 7-2. WW added three more runs to advance to the next round with a 10-2 win.

Weeping Water out hit FC 15-7. Jones went 3-3 with two runs scored, Brewer was 2-3 with a double and two RBI and McClintock was 2-2. Poppe was saddled with the loss, giving up 15 hits and ten runs over 4 2/3 innings.

In the next game of the tourney, FC faced Freeman for the second time in three days. The Tigers exploded for four runs in the first frame, but the Falcons responded with eight runs in the second. FC got three back in the third to make it 8-7, but Freeman outscored FC 8-1 over the final two innings to send FC home with a 16-8 loss.

Back to back singles by Poppe and Jones set Brewer up for a three-run bomb to left field to give FC a 3-0 lead. After reaching on a single, Abby Harms scored on an error to make it 4-0. In the third inning, Thayer Armbruster led off the inning with a HR to center field

THROW IT AWAY

I'll be glad when we can throw these masks away
We will laugh and shout; won't that be the day?
Off we will go in a rush, not afraid of someone to touch
We won't steer way from crowds where shoulders brush
Shake hands with a friend or give someone a hug.
Or sit down at a bar and hoist up a mug
Contact sports we will no longer fear.
Sit in the grandstand or stand up and cheer.
What a story we can tell; we lived it and know it so well.
Oh yes, I'll be glad when we can throw these masks away!
The COVID virus was not a respecter of anyone;
Attacked the old and even the young.
Some lost their lives and many were real sick
Discretion was not shown with the victims it did pick.
For those that contacted the virus it didn't go well
Some even called it a living hell.
Oh yes, I'll be glad when we can throw these masks away!
Here's hoping this act is over, we sure don't want a replay.
Turn the children loose and let them have a good day
Now they can jump on the school bus and ride far away
You can sit beside some one at the picture show
Or go out to eat and sit close by a person you don't know.
Dance all night on a crowded dance floor,
Perhaps it is playing ball or a tug of war.
Soon we will have a vaccine in a tiny jar
Then after awhile our fears will go away
Oh yes I'll be glad when we can throw these masks away!

after the PAT kick with 6:17 to play in the first.

After forcing a punt, the Tigers were back at it on offense. The Tigers, more specifically Vice, picked up its third TD of the night. A three-yard TD run capped off a six-play, 69-yard drive. The extra-point kick was no good and FC led 20-0 with 2:22 still on the clock in the opening quarter.

After another pick, the Tiger offense made it 26-0, driving 74 yards in nine plays to take a 26-0 lead. This time, Vice followed his blockers and raced to the endzone's left corner for a 12-yard TD.

On the first play of the next drive, FC got its third INT, setting them up at their 43-yard line. Three snaps later, Vice got his fifth TD of the night on a 48-yard run. The PAT kick by Aldana made it 33-0 with 6:20 left in the half. That's where the game stood entering the locker rooms at halftime.

The Tigers scored three more times in the second half. First, Dalton Helmick scored from seven yards out in the third to put the Tigers ahead 40-0. Then Carson Simon made it 47-0 after a seven-yard run up the middle. The PAT kick was good, and FC led by 47 with 4:14 to play in the third.

The final score of the game for FC game came on a 12-yard carry by freshman Kadya Strecker. The two-point conversion run was good, and FC led 55-0 with 8:02 still on the clock.

Vice had a career night, finishing with 175 yards rushing on just ten attempts and scoring five touchdowns. Simon added 77 yards on six attempts, Drake Butler had 42 yards on seven carries and Jace Heckenlively had 41 yards on seven attempts. Butler was 1-1 passing for 27 yards and Vice had one catch for 27 yards.

Defensively for the Tigers, to make it an 8-5 game. Hannah Collier reached on an error, Brylee Gilkerson doubled and both runners scored on a double by McClintock to make it 8-7. FC final run came in the fifth. Singles by Jones and Brewer brought Havyn Ruiz to the plate. Ruiz got an RBI single to make the final 16-8.

Jones went 3-3 with a walk. Brewer was 2-4 with three RBI and a HR, and Armbruster was 1-2 with an RBI HR.

FC played at St. Joseph Lafayette on Tuesday and will host Syracuse on Thursday, October 1, for the final home game and the regular-season finale. FC will begin postseason play on Monday, October 5. Teams in the subdistrict will be Auburn, FC, Fort Calhoun, Syracuse and Weeping Water.

"The ECNC Tournament didn't go as we had hoped," said Coach Joe Dunn. "We have some girls playing some different positions because of the COVID quarantine where we lost two girls. Basically, we need to hit the ball better to be able to compete with the teams were playing. Our team goals right now are to get the finals of the district tournament and compete well."

Heckenlively, Wyatt Olberding and Justin Brewer all had five stops. Rayce Farmer had a massive night in the defensive backfield, recording three of the team's six interceptions. Heckenlively, Jaxyn Strauss, and Aldana each added one INT.

The Tigers will travel to Lincoln Christian on Friday, October 2. The Crusaders are coming off their first loss of the season, a 28-10 loss to Auburn last Friday night.

Irish FB team rolls the Eagles

The Sacred Heart Irish football team pounced all over the Johnson-Brock Eagles on Friday night at Jug Brown Stadium. The Irish, now 4-1, scored the games first 46 points en route to the easy homecoming victory. Two years removed from a state title, the Eagles failed to offer much resistance to the Irish on either side of the ball.

Things went well for the Irish all night long. On the first play of the game, Jack Fiegenger stepped in front of an Eagle pass, getting the INT, returning it 27 yards for the score. A two-point conversion run by Evan Keithley made it 8-0 just eight seconds into the game.

On the second drive of the game for Johnson-Brock, it was Jakob Jordan's turn on defense, getting the pick and giving the Irish the ball at the Irish 17. Ten plays and 63 yards later, Del Casteel took the handoff three yards to paydirt to make it 14-0 with 7:03 on the first-quarter clock. The PAT run by Jordan pushed the Irish lead to 16-0.

With the help of a couple of penalties, the Eagles moved the ball down the field on the Irish defense, getting to the SH 26 before Jordan got his second INT of the contest. After the third interception of the game,

SH began the drive at their six-yard line.

SH wasted little time getting back on the scoreboard. A 21-yard run by Casteel set up a pass play from Jordan to Fiegenger that brought the Irish down to the Eagle 28-yard line. Tyler Catlin plunged in from five yards out for the third Irish TD of the game. Jordan kept the ball for the conversion to put the Irish ahead 24-0 with 10:59 to play in the half.

After stopping the Eagles on downs at the Irish 20, QB Jordan threw his first pick of the season, giving Johnson-Brock the ball at their 32. A fumbled snap and then sack by Derek Schawang put a stop to the next Eagle drive. Brogan Nachtigal blocked the punt attempt, setting the Irish up with excellent field position at the Eagle 34 with 1:04 to play in the half. With nine ticks left on the clock, Casteel crossed the goal line from three yards away. The PAT run by Catlin made it 32-0 at the half.

The third quarter began the same way the first half ended. SH covered 53 yards in just five plays, ending with a four-yard Casteel TD run. The PAT pass from Jordan to Jake Froeschl made it 40-0 with 9:36 to go in the third period.

The Irish forced a three and out, taking over at the Eagle 30 to begin the next drive. On the first play, Jordan faked a sweep and found Froeschl coming across the field for a 30-yard TD

Apple Picking Time

John Falter's scene for the harvest time painting is his native Midwest; he sketched those barns and the rail fence near Weston, Missouri. The farm, long owned by the Blythe family, is one of the oldest in Northwestern Missouri. Falter completed the painting when he got back to his home in Pennsylvania, and the trees, the apple pickers and the farm woman are done from memory. It wasn't hard to recall similar scenes from his own boyhood, although as he worked, the phase of apple picking Falter recalled most vividly was fresh apple pie. In a burst of nostalgia he asked to have it for dinner. He enjoyed every bite, and it wasn't until later that it occurred to him the pie he had eaten with such pleasure was cherry.

Don't count on lower Insurance costs for next year

"Thinking About Health," is part of the Nebraska Press Association's partnership with Rural Health News Service, which will provide Nebraskans with unbiased health-related information, designed to help better understand the health issues facing our communities, state and nation.

By Trudy Lieberman

Steve Schneider owns a digital marketing agency in Indiana where he insures six people on the company's health insurance plan – two employees and their dependents – for about $37,000 a year. He says it's an "ultra-high" deductible plan that requires each family to pay the first of the year's $12,100 in medical costs out of their own pockets and charges totaling $6,050 for each family member before the insurance plan pays.

That's hardly insurance, but that is the norm. "Every year," Schneider told me, "it's how much can we offer and how much can employees pay? How high can I push the deductible to lower the premium?"

Schneider is one of thousands of small business owners who are making that same calculation this fall. In Stowe, Vermont, Jen Kimmich runs a craft brewery and wonders how long she can continue to pay a large share of the costs to insure her 42 employees.

She provides full coverage for all her employees even if they work as few as 10 hours a week. "They deserve it," Kimmich says, "but it's expensive, and we don't know how much longer we can keep paying for it."

Why is insurance going to cost so much again this year? Keep in mind that the out-of-pocket costs consumers pay in the form of high deductibles, copays and coinsurance are just as important as the premiums in determining the total cost of your insurance.

Cost sharing is simply another way to make consumers pay more for their coverage.

But why is insurance still so expensive when the news media is full of stories about how Americans have stopped going to the doctor and avoiding medical services, either out of fear of contracting the coronavirus or fear of racking up high medical bills they would struggle to pay?

Don't fewer services mean less demand that would prompt doctors, hospitals, and other providers of medical care to reduce their prices as a way to attract patients? That's the way it works with other goods and services.

Don't bet on it, says Dr. David Blumenthal, president of The Commonwealth Fund, a philanthropic organization in New York City. "The reduction in insurers' costs from reduced use of routine services will be much greater than the cost increases associated with care of COVID-19 patients. That means companies have realized substantial short-term profits."

Blumenthal added, "Consumers shouldn't assume they will get the benefit of the doubt. If there's any doubt about how much the use of care will go up, insurance companies will assume the worst. That's what investors want."

The companies have market power. Although insurance actuaries, the ones who crunch the numbers, say there is plenty of pressure from employers to keep premiums low, insurers have enough clout to raise deductibles, copays, and coinsurance. That places the burden on those who get sick.

Hospitals, which account for about one-third of U.S. health care spending, also have market clout. Bob Herman, a journalist who covers the hospital industry for Axios, told me, "The public safety net and rural hospitals haven't been doing great and have been neglected for years. One the other hand, he says, "It's a different story with the big, urban hospital systems."

"They are sitting on large rainy-day funds, which were built up by high prices over the years," he explained. "COVID put a wrench into some of their plans to expand, and expansion is good for hospitals. They are crying poverty but are paying consultants and lawyers millions of dollars to complete acquisitions."

Many hospitals have begun costly advertising campaigns to drum up business. As that business returns, prices for hospital services are not likely to drop.

Dr. Sandeep Jauhar, a cardiologist at Northwell Health in New York, says hospitals in the state argue, "We need to ramp up care." He added, "Some departments are being told to not only resume care at pre-pandemic levels but to boost volume of care to make up for financial losses." In other words, they are being told to drum up business, and in many cases they have enough market power to keep prices high. While medical experts urge people not to delay needed care, it's important to remember that Americans often get too much care. "Hundreds of billions of dollars are spent unnecessarily on health care," Jauhar says, and maybe we should reboot in a different way. "Maybe patients don't need as much care as we've been providing."

Even if the number of services performed goes down, I'd wager, the price will continue to go up.

What kind of insurance increases are you expecting?

Commissioners vote to buy new motor grader

By: Charlie Radatz

During the Tue., Sept. 22, meeting of the Richardson County Board of Commissioners, a motion was made by Commissioner John Caverzagie to approve the purchase of a Caterpillar 140G motor grader at the contracted price of $294,300 less a trade-in allowance of $59,000 to make the final purchase price $235,300 from Nebraska Machinery Company from contract #032119-CAT. The motion was seconded by Commission Chairman David Sichel and approved with all three Commissioners voting aye. The action was taken after further review by the Commissioners of the information received to purchase a 2020 road grader with pricing available through Sourcewell Contracts.

Action on the motor grader was taken during the portion of the meeting devoted to hearing from Highway Superintendent Steve Darveau, Jr. updating the Board on the routine maintenance being done this week on County roads and bridges.

Superintendent Darveau reported that funds had been received from FEMA in the amount of $133,668.92 for reimbursement of damages and expenses related to the winter storm and flooding of 2019.

The Highway Superintendent reported that work had been done at the Humboldt Road Department yard and plans are being made to demolish and remove the wooden structure. Darveau also reported that County bridge match applications need to be submitted for state funding and he reviewed with the Board those projects that are being considered for submission.

The County contracts with outside firms to assist the County Assessor's office with some of its property assessment responsibility and a motion was made by Commissioner Sichel to approve an agreement with Prichard & Abbott to provide professional appraisal services for oil and gas mineral interest for tax years 2021 and 2022 at a price of $1,930.00/year. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Frank and approved on a 3-0 vote.

Sheriff Hardesty and Roland Merwin, Chief Deputy Sheriff, updated the Board this week on the Law Enforcement Center's business. During their report, a motion was made by Commissioner Caverzagie to approve an annual salary increase of two percent for dispatchers, jailers, clerical, maintenance and deputies effective July 1, 2020, at the Law Enforcement Center. The motion seconded by Sichel and also approved 3-0.

The Commissioners reviewed a proposed land subdivision, and it will be considered at next week's meeting.

The Board of Commissioners adjourned its meeting after voting to allow the payment of all claims that were submitted during the week prior to the session.

Village of Rulo Board of Director's Meeting Minutes August 10, 2020 at 6:00 pm Rulo Library

Trevis Keller, Chairman opened the meeting at 6:30 p.m.

New Business: Proposal for Village Engineer for FEMA projects. Four engineers were sent requests for qualification. A motion was made by Nathan Popejoy to accept JEO as our engineer as they have previously done some projects for Rulo in the past. Motion was seconded by Becky Simmonds and the motion was approved unanimously.

Claims & Treasurer's Report-Shannon Homeyer: A loader for the village was purchased by auction, this was approved for purchase 6 months ago. This will be helpful for road repairs. Motion needed to approve payroll and claims made by Becky Simmonds, seconded by Nathan Popejoy. Claims approved.

Fire Department: No new report. State Fire Marshall visited the auditorium and we have established occupancy rating for potential rentals. We do have a few other requirements before we meet the recommendations.

Old Business: The Fish Shack Legal Opinion was obtained. An official survey was obtained as a part of the required paperwork for the FEMA claim. The survey was supplied to legal for their review and it was determined that the Fish Shack was indeed on Village Property and would need re-moved. Previous boards did not have the authority to authorize citizens to use the Villages property for personal use. It was determined that this property would need to be removed.

Kim Koelzer returned to our meeting and the Village Board entered into an agreement on the boat dock. There has been some confusion on the donation of the docks. The Village was under the impression that the docks were donated many years ago, and have been insured through the Vil-lage for many years. In order to avoid any confusion in the future, the board accepted the official donation of the docks and this agreement will be filed at the Register of Deeds Office, Richardson County Court House with the required survey and other legal documents required from FEMA from the 2019 Flood. The Village of Rulo appreciates the donation of the docks.

FEMA Update, we have applied with the State for an Emergent Threat Grant in order to pay for the 12.5% match of the FEMA funds granted. These funds would also allow us to update the water me-ters, pay the 12.5 % match and do some other needed repairs. We have made it past the application process and the funds have been set aside for us to now meet the application requirements for funding.

Water Department-Steve Johansen sent a message to the clerk that he did not have anything to report.

Cemetery Report: Mowing-Trevis Keller. We have had some mower breakdowns but should be resolved here soon.

Keno Report, submitted to the board and held on file.

Jorden Frederick made the motion to close the meeting, seconded by Nathan Popejoy. Meeting closed at 6:40 p.m.

pass to make it 46-0 with 6:29 to go in the third.

Johnson-Brock finally broke into the scoring column with 6:02 to play in the game. After a bad snap by the Irish on a punt attempt, the Eagles took over at the SH 11-yard line. Four plays later, the ball carrier broke the plane for the game's final score to make it 46-6.

The Irish outgained the Eagles on the ground 181-27 and through the air, 139-87 for a total output advantage of 320-114. The Irish defense also forced four interceptions and had a blocked punt. Casteel led the Irish with 75 yards and three touchdowns on 11 attempts. Will Ewers was next with 45 yards rushing on six carries. Jordan did the bulk of SH's passing, completing 9-13 pass attempts for 133 yards and a TD. Fiegenger had four catches for 68 yards and Keithley added 35 yards on four grabs.

Nachtigal had a big night for the Irish defense, finishing with seven tackles, including three sacks and a blocked punt. Casteel added nine stops and Froeschl had six. Jordan has two interceptions and Keithley and Fiegenger each had one.

"Our defense got us some turnovers this week, that's what we need to continue doing," said Coach Doug Goltz. "Our first-team defense didn't give up a TD, had four interceptions and we blocked a punt. Our offense was efficient too."

The 4-1 Irish will travel to Humboldt on Friday, October 2, to take on the 0-4 HTRS Titans.

fever (measured or subjective), chills, cold/shivering, muscle pain, headache, sore throat, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea. At least one of the following: new cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing, loss of taste and/or smell. Has at least one symptom and answers "yes" to: Is there someone in your household who is currently in quarantine or currently positive for COVID-19? If the answer is yes to any of these questions or have other questions, keep your child at home and contact your school."

Helmick did say that quarantine can affect a person's mental health and they are trying to prevent that as much as possible. "If you know someone who is struggling, please contact the health department and/or the school for information regarding support. We are using the information we have collected to teach others how to protect themselves and to improve our classrooms for better social distancing. Classrooms do not always have enough room to maintain a six-foot distance between each person. The only way to stop quarantine is wearing a mask in those situations; therefore, we are still strongly recommending that everyone wears a mask at all times."

The Southeast District Health Department (SEDHD) reports a new total of 59 cases in Richardson County as of Friday, September 25, 2020.

80+ age group.

There have been 156 new cases in the District in the last 30 days.

All identified close contacts will be asked to self-quarantine. Individuals with symptoms consistent with COVID-19 should self-isolate to avoid transmitting the virus to others.

As of Sunday, September 27 the total cumulative confirmed cases of COVID-19 within the district were 399.

The Hiawatha School board voted last Friday to remain on remote learning at their elementary school through October 9, but resume on-site learning at the middle school and high schools this past Monday. This came after moving to all remote learning due to extensive quarantining due to COVID exposure in the elementary school. The board will meet again on October 5.

Local COVID-19 testing available every Wednesday from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. at Community Medical Center in Falls City. Pre-Register at TestNebraska.com. Testing is free through Test Nebraska.
