The beginning of a new chapter

Falls City Librarian Hope Schawang is calling it quits after nearly four decades of memories.

Schawang has witnessed things change not only for libraries in general, but she was there planning and packing up shelves of books to move to the new Library and Arts Center in 2007.

She shared how the library ended up at its current location.

"It started with two guys having coffee and one man told the other man, 'I'd really like to do something good for the town.' The man who's a library supporter said, 'build a new library,' and so from that, one cup of coffee was the seed," said Schawang. "The old building is beautiful still, but we couldn't expand due to the lot that we were on. We were on three, using the basement, the upstairs, three floors. It wasn't feasible to put in an elevator and with computers and all the new things that were added, it seemed like every night we went home, the shelves moved a little bit closer. So I think just from there, it just became a thing."

She remembered that the idea was initially met with some negativity, making it challenging.

The new library went on the same sales tax as the new Aquatic Center, which, Hope said, paid for one hundred percent of the Aquatic Park and half of the library building cost, which was three million dollars. Private donations and grants paid the rest.

"So many wonderful people that I worked with made that happen. It took ten years to get that money; there were a couple of setbacks. I think it got the ball rolling for the new hospital and the improvements to Jug Brown Stadium," said Schawang.

Before the move to the new Library and Arts Center, Schawang said that 36 years ago, when she started, they didn't even have a computer in the building.

"We literally bought the first computer way before Windows," said Schawang. "It cost a fortune compared to what things cost now. We had to do 40 steps to get to print a document." Then they

A couple weeks ago I wrote a two-part story on the fight for the county seat.

Before researching this story, I knew nothing about this part of Richardson County's history. Back in January, when I wrote the article about the Martin/Margrave incident, Bob Ferguson emailed me and told me that I should write about this topic and the shooting that occurred during one of the elections. Bob was a great guy and a good cheerleader to have. We would have had a good time talking about this story and an even better time talking about the 36+ hour train ride I just returned from.

I had only started researching this story when Bob passed away, and I regret not finishing it sooner.

April's been an incredibly difficult month. I started the month with a tremendous personal loss. I should say, a wonderful family and a lot of friends endured a massive loss. But, I lost someone who I've known almost my entire life.

I'd forgotten how important he was in the development of the person I am today until I started sharing stories and going through photos. He was someone I shared a lot of my firsts in life. My first plane ride, my first stick-shift driving lesson and funny enough my first car wreck. I took my first trip away from my mom with him and had my first real heartbreak with him and on and on. I could sit and think for hours of all the things I got to do for the first time with him. He was the one who helped me come up with a story to tell my mom when I drove her car through a barbed wire fence the day of our junior prom, the friend who helped me throw my dog a birthday party (and didn't make fun of me) and the friend who got me through my parents divorce. He made the most mundane things fun especially when things were really awful. We would sit for hours watching Telenovelas making up story lines because we didn't understand Spanish at the time, dumb, but fun.

Our friend Jeff said that he was the friend who made him take risks and he's right. He challenged us and took us out of our comfort zone to make priceless memories I wouldn't trade for anything.

We lost touch here and there as our lives changed, but we were lucky to always find a way to reconnect. I'm so thankful for that.

Days after, filled with trepidation I drove two hours, climbed aboard a train, at midnight and "rode the rails" from Lawrence, Kansas to Los Angeles, California.

When I stepped off that train that Monday I was a changed person. When I sent my friends a photo of myself that day, they said it looked like a mugshot. I had been through some things and seen some things, but I'll tell you about that next week. I never laughed, I often cried, and I was delirious.

The next week was supposed to be my favorite time of the year, The Turner Classic Film Festival. I go without all year and save every penny I find on the ground for this one week each year.

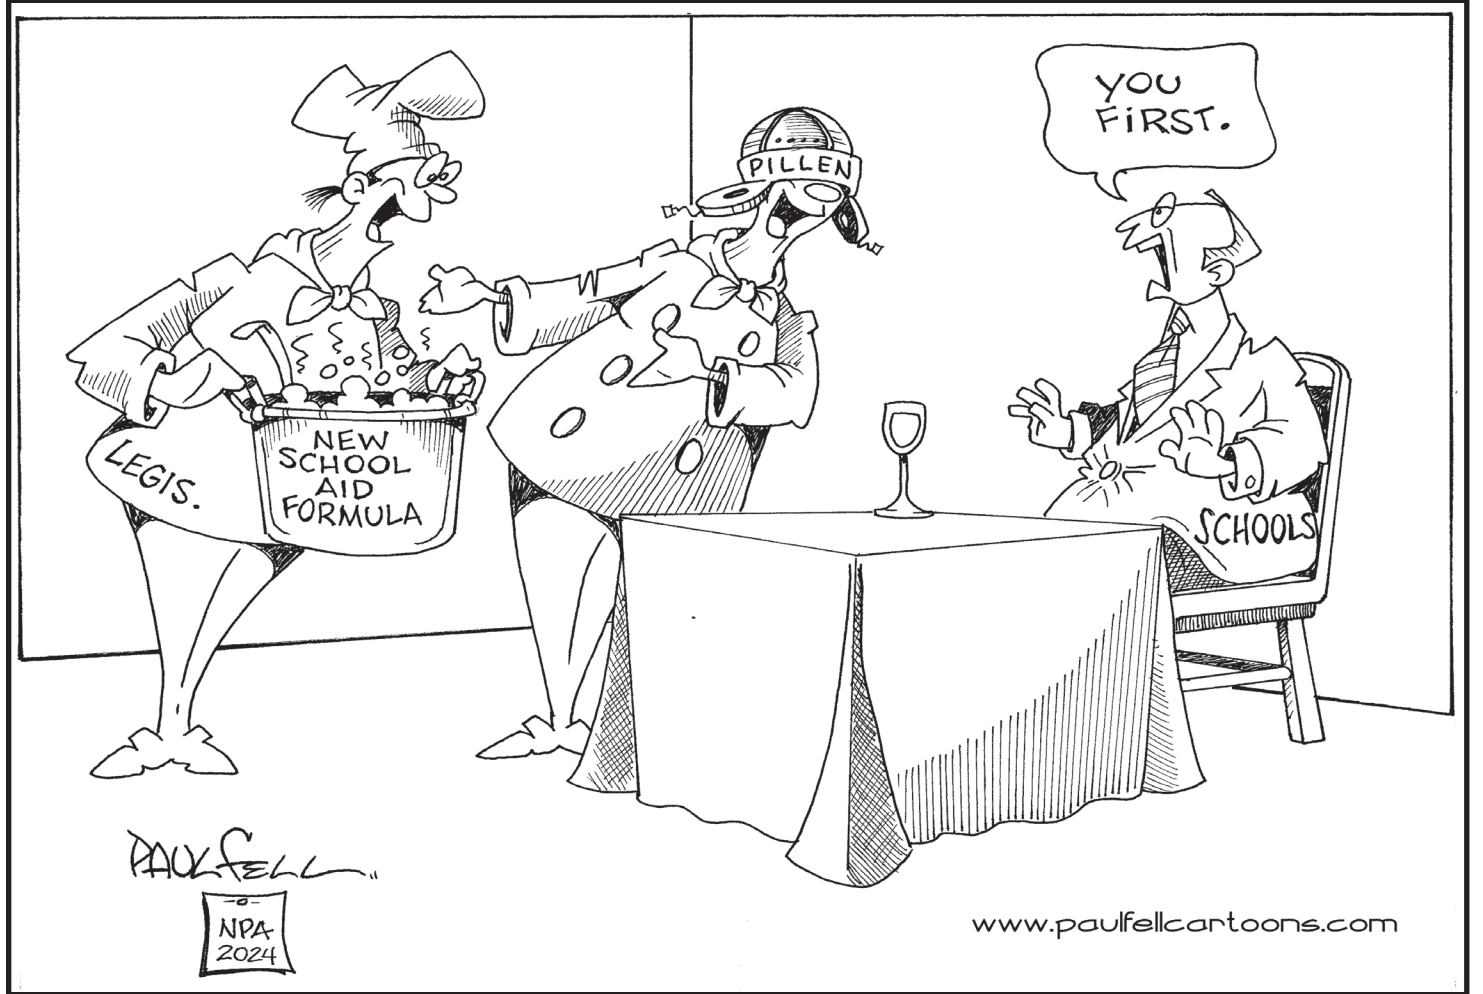

By Wednesday I'd booked myself a plane ticket to come home early. I rescheduled it and ended up staying a few days longer, but when we received the "shelter in place" notification from the festival staff due to a shooter outside the venue, I realized that may have been a mistake.

That wasn't the last of the many surprises this trip tossed at me.

We are now at the beginning of May, but as I write this, it's April 30th. The first time I left the house after I got home from the airport was to attend a funeral.

I can't wait to share the highs, George Clooney, and the lows, an active shooter-of a really horrible "vacation."

I think I'll be able to laugh about my trip next week. For now, I'm going to let April slip away as I spend one last day hidden in my bed trying to recover both mentally and physically.

SCHOOL FINANCING: DID SOMEBODY REALLY PUSH THE EASY BUTTON?

Capitol View Nebraska Press Association By: J.J. Schmidt

It seems way too easy a solution to a problem that has plagued the Legislature for years, school funding. But lawmakers have advanced Governor Jim Pillen's proposal for the state to pay public school districts $1,500 in foundation aid per student beginning with school fiscal year 2023-24.

The measure (LB583) would also increase state aid to school districts to help cover their special education expenses. It's all part of a larger package that includes income tax cuts, property tax relief and a cap on school revenue growth.

Catch this; it's the largest increase in state aid to public schools in Nebraska's history at approximately $300 million per year. It sailed through to second-round consideration in a very distracted legislative session highlighted by the relentless filibustering of two Omaha senators who are hell-bent on a single issue, allowing youth who say they want to be a gender other than what they were born to make life-changing medical decisions before they turn 19.

In that atmosphere, it might be easy to slip otherwise bad legislation through an 8-hour debate in which anything but the topic of the bill under consideration is being discussed.

What could possibly go wrong? Oh, the money could run out as conservative fiscal analysts have been warning. That would result in program and funding cuts in other areas. But hey, it's historic, right?

Bellevue Senator Rita Sanders introduced the bill at the request of Pillen. Yes, it's a party thing. But that seems to be what the Legislature has become this year with 32 Republicans and 17 Democrats identifying in the officially non-partisan body.

To say that the 32 have attempted to bully the 17 would be an understatement. After all, Nebraska is a Red State, and the Administration is all Republican. So, it's their world and we're just living in it. Look at how well that has worked out. Gone are the basics of compromise, civility, congeniality and negotiation.

They've been replaced by backbiting and name-calling and tears and shouting and threats. Gone and diminishing every day is the respect for the institution, as the participants are seen by those on the outside as a bunch of entitled brats. For every Republican who thought they were going to get their way and every Democrat who thought they were going to change things, STOP. It isn't working.

And after we wade through all of this comes an Education Committee amendment, adopted 41-3, to replace the bill with a modified version of the original proposal. As is the fashion this year, several other related bills have been blended in, apparently without much discussion.

As amended, 23 percent of foundation aid would be paid from a new Education Future

Fund. For school fiscal years 2023-24 and 2024-25, a district's foundation aid would be included as a formula resource, meaning its state equalization aid would be reduced by an equal amount. Beginning with the school fiscal year 2025-26, only 60 percent would be included.

Throw in some other numbers and percentages and a bunch of buzz words about equalization and property taxes and special education and you've got a jargon-filled proposal that most of us don't care to read about and probably won't be discussing anytime soon.

Bottom line, Sanders says that's intended to help large school districts, which lose funding somehow in this scheme without the amendment.

Ah, there it is. Large districts vs. small districts, the very thing that has made school finance messy and difficult in the past. That which would pack the halls with people and make committee hearings long and contentious seems to have been resolved and put in an amendment adopted by lawmakers who seem more concerned about having enough votes to end a filibuster than about whose ox is getting gored.

Sen. Danielle Conrad of Lincoln, a veteran of eight previous years of similar discussion about school finance, says the state can use its strong fiscal position this year to answer the "constant refrain" of school districts about the increasing cost of serving students with special needs.

"It is right and it is appropriate to utilize that historic funding advantage that we have available to ... infuse more resources into education," she said.

Omaha Sen. Justin Wayne opposes the bill, saying lawmakers should direct more funding to both urban and rural school districts that have a high percentage of students in poverty.

Education Committee Chairman Sen. Dave Murman of Glenvil agrees that the state school funding formula does not adequately compensate high-poverty schools but is confident the new plan would direct per-student funding to each district for the first time in decades.

It all sounds good but let me leave you with this. Once the schools are satisfied with the money they are getting, what happens when the pandemic-infused glut of funds runs out? What gets cut to provide the money for this program?

The best assets to leave to children and charity

By Nebraska Community Foundation President & CEO, Jeff Yost
Having an estate plan in place is so important. Doing so can save time, money and stress for your loved ones, not to mention prevent unnecessary family disagreements. If you are reading this, take it as your sign to finally get that plan in place. I assure you, it's easier than most people think.

When it comes to determining how you will distribute your assets, it's wise to talk with a professional advisor about the impact those assets may have on the people you love. The truth is, not all assets are created equal. Some are best left to children, others to charity. Nebraska Community Foundation works with generous Nebraskans and their professional advisors every day to determine the best ways to leave a legacy that benefits the people and places you care about most.

As an example, let's imagine a couple with four common assets: a residence, some farmland, a life insurance policy and a tax-deferred retirement account. To keep it simple, let's say each of these assets are worth the exact same amount – say $250,000. The couple decides that upon their passing, each of their four children will inherit one of their assets of the exact same worth. Seems fair, right?

In reality, depending on the asset and the heir, some inheritances can be more burdensome than others. In the example provided above, only one of the kids would be guaranteed the full $250,000. The other assets are a bit more complicated. Here are the implications these common assets may have for the beneficiaries that receive them.

Residence: If the value of the home has increased, the beneficiary will receive a step-up in basis. They will not have to pay income tax, however, there may be related expenses for things such as repairs, remodeling, realtor fees, and closing costs.

Farmland: Again, the beneficiary receives a step-up in basis. If they elect to keep the property, they will not have to pay income tax. There are, however, potential risks and costs to the beneficiary such as property

Falls City Middle School AOK Students

The staff and administration of Falls City High School have announced the selections for March High School Students of the Month. The honors go to the following students:

Upperclassmen- Kemper Foster, a junior, is the son of Drew and Stacey Foster, Emily Vitosh, a junior, is the daughter of Jason and Stacey Vitosh.

Underclassmen- Paige Young, a sophomore, is the daughter of Chris Young and Amanda Bartek-Ramsey and Marc Ramsey. Ethan Morris, a freshman, is the son of Adam and Sarah Morris.

The students were nominated by high school staff and are being recognized for being innovative, responsible, resilient, and resourceful. Each of the students was praised in nomination comments for "academic excellence, going above and beyond what was asked of them, their helpfulness, and their leadership, and serving as excellent role models for their peers," according to high school principal Gale Dunkhas.

management fees, and, of course, fluctuations in profit from year to year.

Life Insurance: A gift of life insurance is an uncomplicated gift for children or charity. In most cases, the beneficiary does not have to pay income tax and will receive the value of the policy in full.

Tax-Deferred Retirement Account: Inheriting a tax-deferred retirement account comes with heavy tax implications. A beneficiary may choose to withdraw the full sum or receive it in installments. Either way, they will pay state and federal income taxes, and possibly estate taxes, drastically reducing the value of the gift. Charities, on the other hand, are exempt from these taxes.

Here's another consideration. According to Nebraska Community Foundation's 2021 Transfer of Wealth Study, more than $100 billion will transfer from one generation to the next over the next 10 years in Nebraska. There is always a transfer from generation to generation, as parents pass away and leave their estate to their children. But if the heirs no longer live where they grew up, that wealth may leave as well.

NCF's Five to Thrive campaign asks you to consider leaving just five percent of your assets to your Nebraska hometown or another favorite local charity. If we all left five, that's well over $5 billion that could be reinvested in our communities over the next 10 years... $47 billion over the next 50. We certainly are not suggesting that you write your loved ones out of your estate plans, but the collective action of leaving a small percentage could make an enormous impact – it could be a gamechanger for the future of our hometowns.

Again, it is important to speak with a professional advisor about your specific situation. Nebraska Community Foundation is always available to join the discussion and help discern how your most tax-laden assets might be used to leave your legacy. Jeff Yost is President and CEO of Nebraska Community Foundation. Learn more about the Foundation's work at NebraskaHometown.org.

Thompson leaves the competition in her dust

Battling injuries all season long, FC's RaeAnn Thompson looks to be getting healthy as she ran away from the rest of the field to win the ECNC 100m dash on Saturday in Auburn. Golf season beginning to wind down

Even though it seems the season just began, the 2023 spring golf season is nearing completion with only two regular season meets left on the schedule. The Tiger golf team had near-perfect weather on Wednesday, April 26, when they traveled to Woodland Hills Golf Course in Eagle for the Palmyra Invite. Fifteen schools made up the Gold Division with Lincoln Christian taking first with a score of 242, Norris JV was runner-up at a 243 and Yutan finished third with a 250. The Tiger team placed 14th and finished with a team score of 297.

Individually for Falls City, Elyse Poppe was the top finisher with a 91 and a 28th place finish. Christina Gilkerson finished the day with a 101 and a 40th place finish and Robert Gilkerson was right behind in 44th with a 105. The top golfer of the day was N. Carpenter of Palmyra who fired a 36/34 for a 70.

In the Silver Division, Lincoln Christian placed first with a 249, Norris JV was second at 268 and Lincoln Lutheran was third at 270. Falls City finished the day with a 338 and a 12th-place finish. C. McConnell of FC was the teams' top performer with a 104 and a 28th-place finish. E. Morris was next for FC with a 111 and 35th-place finish and T. Anderson was 43rd with a 123. The HTRS team also competed with J. Pierce placing 32nd with a 110 and C. Refsdal shooting a 112 for 36th. The top player in the Silver Division was J. Steider of Lincoln Lutheran with an 82.

Both the Tiger and Titan golfers will hit the links again on Thursday, May 4, in Tecumseh for the Johnson County Central Invite and on Monday, May 8, for the Lincoln Christian Invitational.

Tigers looking for spark heading into final stretch

The Tigers dropped their third consecutive contest on Monday night to Bishop LeBlond, falling to the Eagles 4-2. The game was tight throughout, with the score remaining tied through four innings. The Eagles plated three runs in the top of the fifth and FC couldn't recover.

In the bottom of the first, Jaxyn Strauss led off the inning with a single, followed by a hit by pitch. After both runners stole bases, Strauss came home on a flyout to center by Kyler Frederick to put FC in front 1-0.

Pitcher Gavin Bauer pitched a gem for four-plus innings, allowing just one run on three hits. Bauer issued three walks in the fourth, but a pickoff and a strikeout kept him out of trouble.

After flirting with danger in the fourth, it struck in the top of the fifth. LeBlond opened the frame with back-to-back singles, followed by a walk to load the bases with no outs. After a hit by pitch forced in a run, Coach Kory Huppert went to the pen and brought junior Charlie McNeely in for Bauer. Initially, things didn't look promising as the Eagles promptly drew another walk to take a 3-1 lead. McNeely settled in, coaxing a strikeout, and a pair of ground outs, one of which led to the third run of the inning, to get out of the trouble only trailing 4-1.

Falls City threatened in the sixth, getting a one-out walk and then an RBI single by Blakely Sells to cut the lead to 4-2. Unfortunately, a fielder's choice ended the inning with the Tigers still down by two.

Trailing by two with three outs remaining, FC went down in order in the bottom of the seventh, dropping to 5-10 for the season.

The Tigers mustered two hits while giving up seven walks and committing four errors. Strauss and Sells each went 1-3, with Sells and Frederick driving in one run apiece. Bauer took to the loss for the Tigers, allowing five runs, four walks and striking out nine over four innings.

The Tiger JV also fell to the visitors on Monday, 6-3, in three innings. Wyatt Olberding and Vaden Leyden each had base hits, while Ethan Boatright took the loss on the mound. Boatright pitched 1 2/3 innings, allowing three hits, five runs (two earned), walked four and struck out two.

On Thursday night in FC, the Tigers' skid continued as they fell to Nebraska City 9-0. The final score was not indicative of the action on the field, as FC had one bad inning that cost them a chance at the win. Mental errors at inopportune times allowed the Pioneers to score eight unearned runs in the fourth and fifth innings to pull out the win.

FC pitcher Zimmerman was cruising until the top of the fourth inning. With the bases loaded and one out, FC got a sharp ground ball to set up a double play, but an error led to a run and no outs. A flyout to center brought the next run home and NC led 2-0.

In the fifth, Nebraska City sent ten batters to the plate and scored seven runs, all but one unearned. The Pioneers had four singles and two doubles in the inning. Again, with two runners on base and one out and trailing 3-0, FC made a mental mistake, allowing the inning to be extended.

The Pioneer pitchers silenced the Tiger bats most of the night and combined to allow two hits and three walks over seven innings. Falls City batters went down in order four times in the contest, with Catrell and Craig accounting for the Tigers' only hits. Zimmerman, Strecker and Collier all drew walks. Zimmerman pitched five innings, allowing nine hits, one walk and nine runs, only one earned. McNeely pitched the final two frames, allowing no hits and no runs. The loss dropped FC to 5-11, while the Pioneers improved to 10-10.

The Tigers ran into another formidable opponent on Saturday when they traveled to Malcolm to take on the 20-2 and top-ranked team in Class C. Malcolm wasted no time on Saturday, leading 5-0 after one inning, 14-0 after two and 16-0 after three. The Tigers plated a single run in the top of the fourth but fell in five innings 16-1. Three Clipper batters connected on home runs against the Tigers and two Malcolm pitchers combined to throw five innings, allowing just two hits and one run while striking out five batters.

Frederick led off the third inning with a single to center, but a double play wiped out the runner and the Clipper pitcher faced the minimum through three. Silas Amanullah drew a walk to open the fourth and Strauss followed with a single to left. A one-out groundout by Sells pushed Amanullah across the plate to make it 16-1, which is where the game ended.

Strauss and Frederick had the base hits for FC and Amanullah and Bauer drew walks. McNeely took the loss, giving up 15 hits and fourteen runs, eight earned, over two innings.

The Tiger JV fell to Malcolm 8-0 on Saturday. Eric Heinzelman took the loss, pitching one inning, allowing six hits and five runs. Collier, McNeely and Olberding had base hits for FC.

The Tigers played at Fort Calhoun on Tuesday and begin district play at Platteview on Thursday versus the 11-8 Trojans.

Thompson leaves the competition in her dust was second with a leap of 29-06 and McNeely placed fourth at 28-09. In the discus, Jayme Ewers won the silver (91-09), Emily Vitosh was fifth (73-09) and Elizabeth Vice placed sixth at 66-10. Ewers scored another medal in the shot put, placing third at 28-05, while Vitosh tossed 25-11 for fifth. Finally, the 4x100.25 throwers relay team of Ewers, Jordan Wilcox, Kaitlyn Kirkendall and Vice placed third in 1:08.33.

For the boys, FC had three finishes in the top five in the 100m dash. Daniel Hollens won the event in 12.15, Isaac Frederick was second at 12.27 and Keith Adams placed fifth at 12.82. In the 200m dash, Wyatt Kreifels ran a 25.70 for third place. Bailey Thimmes covered the 400m dash in 1:00.67 for fourth and in the 800m run, Blake Rolfe (2:26.17) and Kyle Daake (2:39.79) were fourth and fifth. Ryker McCullough ran the 3200m in 11:44.27 for fourth place. Adams placed third in the 110m hurdles in 20.17 and fifth in the 300m hurdles at 53.14. The 4x100 relay team of Frederick, Adams, Kreifels and Hollens won the gold in 47.25 and the 4x400 team of Rolfe, Thimmes, Cade Caudle and Aiden Wendtlandt placed fourth in 4:03.36. Daake, McCullough, Rolfe and Hayden Findlay won the gold in the 4x800m relay, finishing the eight laps in 9:65.51. McCullough cleared 5-04 in the high jump for first and Devon Smith (10-00), Dakota Auxier (9-06) and Emmett Daake (7-06) placed second, third and fifth in the pole vault. Kreifels leaped 18-01 for fourth in the long jump and went 37-00.50 for second in the triple jump. Thimmes jumped 34-02.50 for fourth and Frederick jumped 33-07.75 for fifth. In the throwing events, Stiephan Fields placed second in the discus at 108-11 and second in the shot put with a toss of 39-02. Chase Simpson scored in the discus, throwing 100-00 for fourth. The throwers relay team of Fields, Matthew Eaton, Ryker Jones and Simpson, placed third in 57.98.

Leech and McQueen leading the way for the Titans

On Monday, the HTRS track teams faced stiff competition when they traveled to Adams for the 2023 MUDECAS Track Meet at Freeman High School. The Titan girls' team scored 11 points and placed 12th, while the boys' team finished the day with two points and a 14th-place finish.

Lillian Bowen had the only individual medal for the Lady Titans on Monday, placing third in the 400m dash in 63.85. The 4x100m relay team scored five points and placed fourth with a time of 56.85. The boys' only points of the day came courtesy of Hunter Bohling in the pole vault. Bohling cleared the bar at 10-00 and secured two points and a seventh-place finish.

On Saturday, HTRS traveled to Tri County High School for the Pioneer Conference Track Meet. The Lady Titans scored four points on Saturday and finished ninth, while the boys' team landed in sixth with 33.5. Tri County won both the boys' and girls' titles.

All the points on Saturday for the Lady Titans came courtesy of the relays. The 4x400m relay team ran a 4:57.51 for sixth, the 4x800m team finished sixth in 12:22.39 and the 4x100 team completed the lap in 58.73 for fifth.

J.J. McQueen picked up a pair of silver medals for the Titan boys in the sprints, placing second in the 100m dash (11.35) and the 200 (23.47). McQueen finished his scoring by clearing 5-06 in the high jump and tying for fifth. Brandt Leech scored the lone gold medal of the day for HTRS, clearing 12-00 in the pole vault for first place. Leech also scored four points in the high jump, clearing the bar at 5-06 for fourth. The final points of the day came from Hunter Bohling in the pole vault. Bohling went 10-06 for fifth.

Kyle Pond announced as new Athletic Director

Michael Evans, President of Peru State College, has announced that Kyle Pond will be the new Athletic Director. Pond, the current Associate Athletic Director, will take over for Wayne Albury. Albury will step down June 30, 2023, and focus on his duties as the Bobcats head baseball coach.

Pond is a former college athlete and soccer coach. His success as Head Men's Soccer Coach at Southwestern College in Winfield, Kansas from 2015-2020 led to a request for him to become the college's Associate Athletic Director in December of 2020. His focus on recruiting, retention, team development, and improved academic performance helped the college achieve record recruiting classes and greater success in several sports. Pond joined Peru State in January of 2022.

"It has been a goal of mine to be the Athletic Director at Peru State," said Pond. "The timeline happened quicker than I expected, but Wayne helped prepare me for this transition by involving me in the day-to-day activities of the Athletic Department since day one."

Administration had not been part of Pond's original plan.

"My original plan was to be a head coach until I was 70," said Pond. "When the Associate AD position (at Southwestern College) was presented to me by my mentor Dean Clark, I thought I would miss coaching, but I have found this new career path to be extremely rewarding."

Coaching stints prior to Southwestern included assistant positions at Sterling College and Bethany College, both in Kansas. Those positions were with Head Coach Jeff Kidd, another important mentor. Pond has a deep appreciation for the mentoring and support he has received throughout his career. He is also thankful for his great relationship with President Michael Evans and support from the entire Peru State administrative team.

"I have a video of President Evans jumping in the huddle after a basketball win," said Pond, "where else do you see that? The support from the administration at Peru State is incredible and creates building blocks to enhance and modernize our program."

Pond identified that it is a pivotal time for

Peru State College and noted several improvements within the athletic department: the hiring of several great new coaches over the past year, the retaining of excellent veteran coaches that provide leadership and a connection to tradition, work on facilities, Project ROAR, graduation numbers, and the establishment of a winning foundation. "Winning is an outcome," said Pond, "and a result of strong leadership, coaches who care about the student athletes, and attention to the process of becoming better coaches, players, and people. We hope to create something sustainable and genuine that creates growth, makes alumni want to return to campus, and is a place where coaches want to stay, and players want to play."

He views passion and opportunity as core elements of the athletic department.

"The staff here share a lot of passion," said Pond, "and Peru State offers student-athletes a great coaching staff, an institution that cares about them, and excellent facilities at a price point that exists at very few schools. This is the perfect place for students to have a high-quality experience without needing to mortgage their future in the process."

Pond also understands his new role will involve many tough decisions.

"I want to make decisions for the future to provide consistency and enhance development," said Pond. "Being good takes bold moves, risk, commitment, and creating an environment where it is okay to not be perfect but continue growing."

"I am delighted that Kyle is stepping into the Athletic Director role for Peru State College," said Evans. "He brings a strong background, exceptional leadership skills, and an excellent focus on academics, integrity, and success on the fields and the courts. I am confident that athletics will continue to thrive with Kyle at the helm."

Pond holds a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Sterling College. He and his wife, Jordan, have three daughters and live in Peru. He will officially begin his duties July 1, 2023.

Gary E. Brandt

Mr. Gary E. Brandt, former local resident and businessman passed away Monday, April 17, 2023, at his home in Santa Rosa Beach, Florida. His age at his unexpected death was 70.

He was a member of St. Rita Catholic Church. Gary was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He leaves behind many, many friends as Falls City locals will tell you. He worked in the meat industry for over forty years. He was a business owner having owned and operated Cedar Hollow Foods in Falls City and Lincoln producing deli hams. He was an avid golfer, cyclist, and enjoyed walking.

Mr. Brandt is survived by his mother Irene Brandt, of Niceville, Florida; wife Frances Brandt, of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida; children Krista Miller and husband Mike of Lincoln, Nebraska; Cassie Adams and husband Tim of Lincoln, Nebraska; stepchild Jennifer Robbins of Kansas City, Missouri; grandchildren Makenna Adams, Tessa Adams, Sophia Robbins; and two brothers Kenny Brandt and wife Anna of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida, Jim Brandt and wife Karen of St. Louis, Missouri.

Gary was laid to rest on April 26, 2023, at Santa Rosa Beach. Gary loved life and made an impression on almost everyone he met. He loved Falls City and its people. He will be missed.

Robert Ludwig Gustav "Bob" Zimmerman

Robert Ludwig Gustav "Bob" Zimmerman, age 99, was born September 14, 1923, to Gustav Ludwig and Ella Augusta (Zimmerman) Zimmerman on a farm 8 1/2 miles northeast of Falls City, Nebraska, that his grandfather purchased in 1878. He passed away April 25, 2023, living his whole life near and in Falls City. He was a lifelong member of the Zion United Church of Christ, baptized, confirmed and married there. He also served on the Church Board for several years. He met Margaret Naomi Hill there at an ice cream social in 1943 and they were married October 8, 1944. They were married for 72 years before Mom passed away October 16, 2016. Susan Faye was born August 2, 1945, and Thomas Allan was born August 10, 1951.

Dad received a letter from the President of the United States (Franklin Delaware Roosevelt).....he was drafted! Dad left home May 8, 1945, and went by train to Fort Leavenworth, where he was inducted. The war ended while Dad was in Texas training to go to Japan. But he was still in the Army, so he left on a train for overseas shipment. He sailed on the Liberty Ship, which was not very big, but they were stacked five high in bunks. Many stories to tell about that trip! He ended up in Tombola, Italy and worked switching supply trains. He saw the Leaning Tower of Pisa and some other sites, but the highlight was a couple of times when he met friends from Falls City that were stationed somewhere else. He ate Christmas dinner in Tombola with the Japanese-American 42nd Infantry. He was discharged and back on the farm in time to go to the Humboldt Fair in September 1946.

Dad grew up a farmer and farmed where he was born until his first retirement in 1986 when he moved into Falls City. He was the proud father of his son, Tom, that continued farming the Home Place! While he was farming, he also worked for Nelson Merz at Merz Farm Equipment for 10 years. The stories he could tell about that! He remembered many pieces of equipment he sold, who he sold them to, where they lived and for how much, until two days before he passed away. During those farming years, Dad taught Susan how to drive a 4-speed on the floor, of course, a Ford tractor! Tom learned to drive the same way. He served on the school board at District 28, where he went to school when Susan and Tom were students there. When Tom started TZ Feed and Seed, Dad started working there and also helped Tom with farming for a while. Dad loved working in that store, talking to all the customers and selling again! After Tom's sudden death and the store being sold, Dad went to work at Orscheln's, again selling and talking to customers for several years. After that, he went to work part-time, mowing the Greens at the Falls City Country Club. He was almost 90 when he retired from his last job. But he wasn't done yet! He, Mom, her sister Helen and Helen's husband Glenn were regulars on the bus going to a Casino nearby. They all passed away, but Dad kept going! He knew exactly what day to go where and how much money he could get there. His saying was, "I never won much, but I never lost much either." Another thing he always said was, "I just love to drive!" And drive he did, 95,000 miles in the last five years! Last week he told me how he learned to drive. They had a 1917 Ford car, and he would go in the garage, shift gears, steer for hours, and never leave the garage.

His favorite pastime was watching his son and all his grandchildren play sports! Baseball was his favorite from the time Tom started on Little League in 1962/63 until just about 10 days before Dad died when he watched his great-grandson pitch in High School. He followed all their games and asked how they did even if he couldn't go. Now he will have the best seat in the house and he will be watching! Dad was also last in a few things. One of, if not the last, World War II veterans in Falls City, the last Original Member of the Falls City Rural Fire Department. He drove the area asking farmers to join the Rural Fire Department.

Dad was a storyteller, so I had to tell you his!

Bob is survived by his daughter, Susan Sipple; his son-in-law, Bill Sipple; his daughter-in-law, Carol Zimmerman; grandchildren, Timothy Dale Chesnut (Christi), Angela Sue Quinn (Shawn), William Robert LeRoy "Robbie" Sipple (Amanda), Christina Elizabeth Sipple, Darcy Allan Zimmerman (Charity) and Lindsay Nichole Druba (Jeff). Step grandchildren, Loni Bahr (Cathy) and Kerry Fritz (Darin). Great grandchildren, Andrew James Dean (Brooke), Justin Timothy Chesnut, Derek William Cook, Collin Robert Cook, Kasen Thomas Sipple, Mason Jeffrey Wurtele, Kamden Philip Sipple, Jeffrey Thomas Druba, Tallan Jax Zimmerman, Kyler Neal Sipple, Lane Austin Druba, Noah Christopher Sipple, Kasey Nicole Druba and Kemper Louise Sipple. Eight step-great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren and five step-great-grandchildren.

Gone before him were his parents, his wife Margaret, his son Thomas, his sister Rosella Harshbarger and many of his friends. Dad's memorial service will be held on Saturday, May 6, 2023, at 10:30 A.M. at Zion United Church of Christ, with Pastor Bruce Demmel officiating. Honorary pallbearers will be the grandchildren. Military graveside honors by Falls City Ceremonial Honor Guard.

had to automate the entire collection of books, book by book entering for automatic checkout and making the automatic catalog; later, they had to put everything online so it could be accessed from people's homes.

"We would have stacks of books as we went through each category, then we'd put those back on [the shelves] and start another stack. But now, you can always take what you had before and morph it into the new system, which is now online. So that's totally changed," said Schawang. "We went from the old card catalog and stamping the book. So that all changed, like in 1994, which seems like a long time ago; we had to empty the shelves once to automate the catalog. Then to recarpet at the old library. The third time was physically moving from one building to another. It was a lot of change. But the internet changed everything for libraries and everyone, and we now all have information in our hands all the time.

Serving the public is the main thing that has stayed the same at the library-only now, they have more tools. Patrons can come to the library and ask for help with anything. Schawang says there's no need to be intimidated because things constantly change. "That's what we're here for, is to help you."

During the pandemic, there was a loss, a diminish of checkout and the circulation of materials. She said that for a long time, the library lost the daily group of kids, but now it's coming back, but this was the case with all Libraries during the pandemic.

The true change was programming. People used phones and tablets to read books, which are free and downloadable through the Falls City Library and Arts Center catalog's state collection. Schawang said she thinks the pandemic pushed people to go more digital.

"Again, it's by age. Our older readers still come in each week and check out their stacks. But it just changed."

The pandemic brought along significant opportunities to the library. International best-selling authors could do Zoom calls with book groups in Falls City that were open to the public. In the Art Gallery, a movie screen drops to show the author during the talk.

"That was a real opportunity," said Schawang. "I hope and think that this will be something in the future that the author would want to stay in their home and just step into their 45-minute program with your audience."

Hope prides herself and the staff on being known as a "very friendly library." She said kids are welcome; even the most rambunctious two-year-old is welcome.

"Just bring them, and we will get some books in their hand. Parents of little kids need to read to them from a book. To be known as a helpful, friendly library is our goal. It's just like a real open door," said Schawang.

The children are what she says she'll miss the most.

"I always have a legitimate kid fix every day. There's always a kid that just does something precious every day. There are a couple of kids that come in and they just go right to you and hug you," said Schawang. "The support of people made this facility happen, it was kind of magical to be a part of that and I made some lifelong connections here."

But there has always been one main goal for Hope, "Our main mission my whole time has been to get the kids in the library."

Underage Drinking and Opioid Awareness

Submitted

The 4 County Collaborative of southeast Nebraska is conducting an awareness campaign concerning underage drinking and opioid awareness. "Members of our Collaborative would like to reach the public with some important messages this spring," says Collaborative Coordinator Laura Osborne. "When it comes to underage drinking there are several messages that are important. First, we want parents to realize that their kids may be discussing drinking with someone else. It's important for parents to engage their children in a discussion on this topic, but it can be intimidating for some. Resources on how to start a conversation can be found at TalkHeart2Heart.org.

"Second, we want youth to understand the potential consequences of underage drinking. These include blackouts leading to unwanted sexual activity, legal issues such as charges for minor in possession (MIP) of alcohol, unstable relationships or fighting with friends, and difficulty getting to school or work on time as well as difficulty keeping your grades up," says Osborne.

"We also need adults to understand that if they provide alcohol to a minor, they face some potential consequences as well," Osborne continues. "Providing alcohol to a minor can result in jail time, a fine or both. If youth who are provided alcohol end up causing property damage, bodily harm or death, then the adult who provided the beverage(s) can face additional charges as well. So we ask that as spring and summer celebrations occur, that adults will plan to have non-alcoholic beverages - especially when celebrating the success of an underage person at events like graduation."

The 4 County Collaborative also wants owners and employers of businesses that sell alcohol to help prevent underage drinking, along with over-service of alcohol to adults. Free Responsible Beverage Server trainings are scheduled for Monday, May 22nd at the Auburn American Legion Post #23. For businesses who sell alcohol for off-site consumption (off sale) will have a course that begins at 10 am that day. For those who sell for on-site consumption (on sale) the course will begin at 1 pm. Pre-registration is required and can be done via email to FourCountyCollaborative@gmail.com or by calling 402-414-2460. Other types of responsible beverage server training are available upon request as well, such as training for volunteer personnel for festival beer gardens.

"Opioid awareness is another issue we want to raise to the public," continues Osborne. "According to the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), young people may misuse prescription opioids for many reasons, including curiosity, peer pressure, and wanting to fit in. They may also be easier to get than other drugs. After marijuana and alcohol, prescription drugs are the most commonly misused substances among Americans ages 14 and older. Teens and young adults are the biggest misusers of prescription pain medication. Recently, we have also seen opioids being purchased illegally in the U.S. that can be laced with fentanyl, which can be instantly deadly. So it's important to be clear and consistent with your kids about your expectations regarding opioids and other drug use.

"Again, we encourage parents to visit TalkHeart2Heart.org for tips on how to discuss opioids with their children," Osborne says. "We also encourage people to dispose of their unused medications at med safes located throughout southeast Nebraska."

For more information visit TalkHeart2Heart.org. Anyone living or working in Nemaha, Johnson, Pawnee or Richardson counties is welcome to join the 4 County Collaborative by contacting Laura Osborne at 402-414-2460 or at FourCountyCollaborative@gmail.com.

2023 Annual FFA Banquet held

The Falls City FFA held its annual banquet on April 23, 2023, in the Falls City high school gym. The banquet started with a nice meal of smoked pork with sides, some delightful cupcakes and ice cream. With over 150 people in attendance, the Falls City FFA celebrated its accomplishments from the year. The Falls City FFA would like to recognize Gary Frederick and Frederick farms for the donation of the hog, JPs Butcher Block for donating the butchering of the hog, Rita Johansen for making and donating the multiple flavors of amazing cupcakes, and The Falls City FFA Alumni for donating the scholarships and thank them for their support throughout the year. Students were recognized for their competition awards throughout the year and the chapter presented a slideshow of the year's highlights with many pictures. The Falls City FFA also awarded the different levels of degrees within the chapter. The first level is the Greenhand degree, awarded to first-year active members with plans for an SAE and knowledge and understanding of the FFA organization. Members receiving the Greenhand degree were Blakely Sells, Breean Eickhoff,

Brock Niedfeldt, Ethan Morris, Evie Rue, Malori Kuker, Kaydence Rego, Mason Collier, and Sierrah Vermeer. The second level is the Chapter degree awarded to second-year active members who have earned the Greenhand degree and begun investing time and money into their SAE program outside the classroom. Members receiving the Chapter degree were Katelynn Titus and Malesa Wickham. The State FFA degree is awarded to students who have received the Chapter degree and have been active in FFA for at least two years with a certain amount of time and money put into their SAE. To receive this degree, members had to submit at least two years of records and fill out an application reviewed at the state level. Members receiving the State FFA degree recognized at the Nebraska State Convention were Jodie Uhri and Cayleigh Eickhoff. The highest degree level is the American degree, awarded to members who have demonstrated outstanding records and skills in their SAE area for the past three years. Falls City FFA had two students who achieved this high honor, Gwen Olberding and Laney Feek, who received this degree at the National FFA Convention this past fall. Next up in the program were Proficiency Awards. These are awarded to members who have demonstrated and excelled in their SAE area. Members receiving a proficiency award at the Chapter level were Cayleigh Eickhoff, Jodie Uhri, Ethan Morris, Katelynn Titus, and Mason Collier. Members receiving a proficiency award at the District level were Wyatt Olberding, Kemper Foster, Jordan Wilcox, Jodie Uhri, and Cayleigh Eickhoff. After the awards, Tylene Snethen of the Falls City FFA Alumni recognized Jodie Uhri and Cayleigh Eickhoff as the recipients of the Falls City FFA Alumni Scholarship! To conclude the banquet, The Falls City FFA installed the new officers for the upcoming school year. Seniors Jodie Uhri, Cayleigh Eickhoff, and Stiephan Fields then retired their jackets. It was another banquet in the books, a finish to the year of activities and the beginning of a new year of opportunities! Congratulations to the Falls City FFA Chapter members!
