A new take on Happy Hour

Linda Santo, middle, gives a brief presentation on the "Take Shape For Life" wellness program one evening last month at the office building of Julie Bauman, 2020 Harlan St. Thursday, Sept. 12, was the first official "Healthy Happy Hour," and participants joined for a one-mile walk at the conclusion of Santo's presentation.

Demographics be damned - the young, the old, the rich, the poor, the fat, lazy, sane or crazy, everybody likes Christmas best. So say the polls, scientific or otherwise, not to mention the concrete evidence: My eyes told me Christmas trees were on display in a Falls City store last month. Makes sense, as there were only a measly 90 shopping days left until Christmas. Now there are just 77 shopping days, or 76 game-planning days, depending on your gender. (Nope, I didn't leave with a tree).

Seventy-some days and our troubles will be miles away. Can't wait? Happy Hour starts at 4.

Yes, the votes are in and we say Christmas is our favorite holiday by a landslide, and a large contingency start looking for Santa Claus as early as September. Is that supposed to impress the group seeking Happy every day at 4, 365 days a year? Well, no.

Of course Happy Hour isn't a holiday, but it has been celebrated in earnest throughout this country since its inception about 100 years ago and the strange days of prohibition. "Happy Hour," as I understand it, started when people would meet at a home or speakeasy and consume then-illegal drinks before going out to dinner. Today, it's not quite so glamorous and much less risky - hit Happy Hour and you save a quarter on a beer and maybe get a 13th chicken wing or whatever. But, hey, Oscar Wilde said "work is the curse of the drinking class," and a quarter's a quarter, so keep 'em coming.

Oscar Wilde also said "moderation is a fatal thing - nothing succeeds like excess." That was before he died at 46, flat broke. The truth is, of course, that there isn't always sunshine in a pub, Happy didn't walk through that door yesterday and probably isn't coming in today and if you never miss Happy Hour, "77 shopping days left" may not apply to you. Santa Claus is predictable - but the Grim Reaper is not.

So, in that vein, to celebrate the very first "National Discover Your Optimal Health Day" and September as "National Childhood Obesity Awareness Month," Linda Santo, Marketing Coordinator at Community Medical Center and a certified "health coach," hosted a "Healthy Happy Hour" at Julie Bauman's CPA firm at 2020 Harlan St. After giving a brief presentation on the "Take Shape For Life" wellness program, healthy snacks and drinks were served and a group of 15 or 20 people took a brisk one-mile walk. It was one of 906 such events held throughout the country.

"Two-thirds of the US population is overweight or obese," Santo said. "Americans are at a higher risk of disease when overweight and obese. It is an epidemic. We see this trend now with our children. The first step is getting to your healthy weight, then followed by creating overall health, learning and living the Habits of Health. Replacing bad habits for good habits," she said.

The Habits of Health are Healthy Eating,

Busy month at FC Library, AC

September was another busy month at the Falls City Library and Arts Center, with patron visits totaling 3,210.

Checkouts of 10,102 were recorded. A total of 107 e-books were checked out and computer uses added up to 2,305. Thirty-seven new patrons joined the Center.

The library is open from 10 a.m.-8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturdays.

Accept bid on Courthouse restoration

During their Oct. 1 meeting, the Richardson County Commissioners voted to award the low bid for a general Courthouse restoration project.

Two sealed bids were received and opened during the morning session. Restoration & Waterproofing Construction of Topeka, KS, submitted a bid of $127,562, while Masonry Construction, Inc., of Bellevue bid $353,313. The bid from the Topeka firm was awarded.

A specification proposal will be drafted by architect Dennis Lyon for the restoration of the light poles and bases on the Courthouse east and west entrances for a later bid date.

Members of the Veterans Service Committee met with board members Dave Sickel, Jim Davidson and Jim Standerford to question the idea of consolidation of the Veterans Service Offices in Richardson, Otoe, Johnson, Nemaha and Pawnee counties. Voicing concerns were Dick Arington, Brian Palmer, Ken Counce and James Beckner.

Board members moved to purchase a vehicle for the Emergency Management Agency from Hullman's Ford. The purchase price of the 2004 Ford Excursion (approximately 120,000 miles) was $10,000.

In other developments, the board:

—Met with Sheriff Randy Houser and voted to approve the hiring of Edna Willey, Reserve, KS, as a temporary, part-time matron. Discussion was held on the report received from the State Fire Marshal's Office after the recent annual inspection of the Courthouse and jail. A few minor deficiencies have been addressed.

—Received an update from Highway Supt. Scott Huppert, including a report on the Preston Road hard-surfacing project. The Road Department was scheduled to hold a safety meeting on Oct. 4.

Elegance and Comfort... with a Modern Spin

According to what I've read, just about every member of the US House of Representatives and Senate, regardless of party, has voted to keep the government open and avoid a shutdown. Strange, given that the shutdown took place a week ago and, with some modifications, continues. Approximately 800,000 government workers have (or were) furloughed, contractors that deal with the government are laying folks off, those applying for Social Security and Medicare are on hold, National Parks are shuttered. Heck, even veterans trying to view the World War II Memorial have had to force their way in. They have some experience!

Supposedly, the main issue was funding, then implementation, of the Affordable Care Act. But a myriad of other sticking points have arisen along the way. Thank goodness a path was found for our military academies to play football last weekend. Yes, I have an opinion about the main culprits, but that is not the point of this column.

The shutdown and coming fight over the debt ceiling should not come as a surprise. Washington D.C. has been dysfunctional for years. Congress' approval rating is at about 10 percent. I wonder who makes up the 10% that approves of their work. Democrats and Republicans are mired in contentious bickering and obstruction. And virtually nothing gets done. These representatives are an embarrassment, but most of them will get voted back into office at election time. Districts have been redrawn to favor one party or another and, seemingly, the electorate's memory is short.

I thought Terry Flynn made a good point in a letter that ran in last week's Journal. His point: the country lacks leadership. Terry pointed to the military. Maybe it just doesn't work that way in Washington. His argument, however, was well taken. Washington is made up of largely spineless politicians who bend one way or another, depending on the winds of popular opinion or the consensus of the members (even those in a minority) of their respective party. When, if ever, will someone step up, on either side? Certainly not Harry Reid, John Boehner, Eric Cantor or, for that matter, Barack Obama . . . or Lee Terry, the Nebraska Representative who suffered from foot-in-the-mouth syndrome last week and then tried to take it all back on Monday.

I've never been a Lee Terry fan. I'm even less now, after reading his comments in the World-Herald last week and his mia culpa in Monday's paper. You talk about a politician! But his words were empty. And while he touted bipartisanship, he fell very far short.

When asked about whether he would be one of those Congressmen who would donate or withhold his paycheck during the shutdown (unless donated to charity, they will all get them sooner or later), Terry told the World-Herald: "I've got a nice house and a kid in college, and I'll tell you we cannot handle it. Giving our paycheck away when you still worked to earn it? That's just not going to fly."

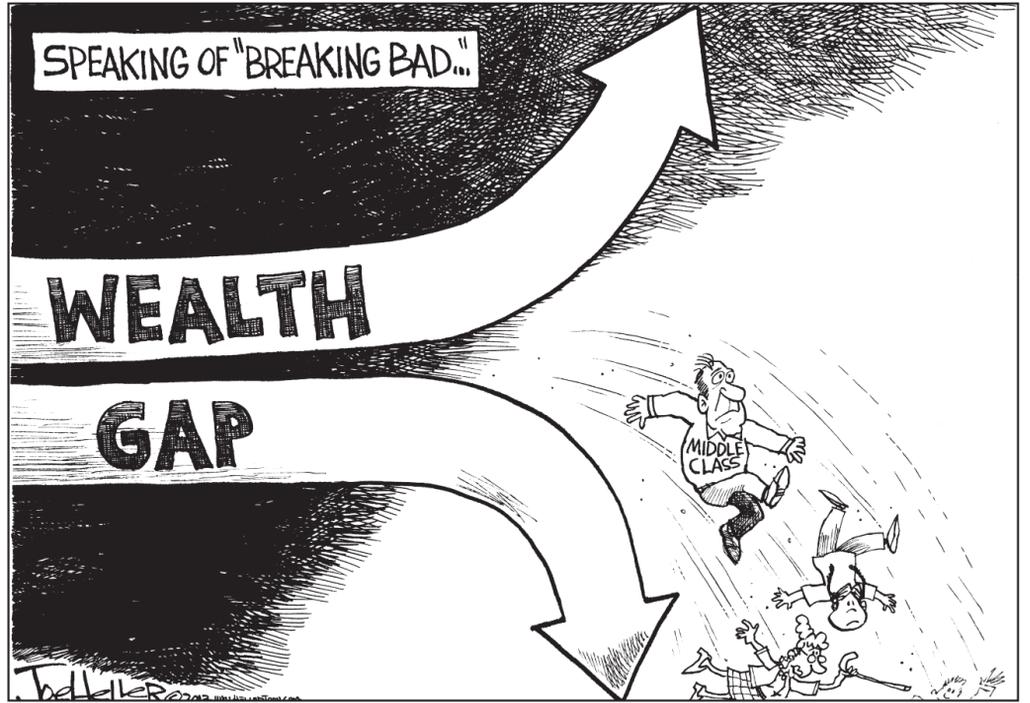

Bad quote, Rep. Terry. It made its way across the Internet and was picked up by national media.

Especially bad when some government employees, such as the Capitol Police who responded to a crazy person at the White House and Capitol, did so without being paid. But maybe they don't have a "nice house" and a "kid in college" and can handle it.

When the stuff hit the fan, Rep. Terry realized the error of his statement and quickly retreated, although not very satisfactorily. He apologized in an Op Ed in Monday's World-Herald, saying that he regretted putting "my needs and concerns above others."

There's a word for that and it begins with bull . . . In the first place, Congressmen like Lee Terry get paid at the end of the month. So chances are he won't give up a dime. And in the Op Ed piece, he related his frustration at the "political gamesmanship" in which he has been a willing participant. He then went on to tout his support of "bipartisan" legislation to pay the military. Well now, that was a tough one. He said he remains "committed to working in a bipartisan fashion to rebooting America and getting the rest of our government back to work to serve our fellow countrymen."

We'll be watching, Rep. Terry, to see just how you fulfill that commitment.

Thousands pack Nebraska town for auction

What happens when four months of hype on the world stage meets a northeast Nebraska community of 1,700 people?

Well, in the case of Pierce and the much ballyhooed Lambrecht Chevrolet automobile auction, folks from the area step up to the plate and the History Channel turns it into a three-hour documentary, "History Made Now: Wheels of Fortune."

Unless you have been under a rock or on another planet for the past few months, you know the story of Ray and Mildred Lambrecht, Chevrolet dealers from 1946 to 1996, who locked the doors to the dealership 17 years ago and left about 20 new and very low mileage cars inside. More than 400 used cars were left in a field near the Pierce Golf Course. Weeds and trees grew up on the Lambrecht-owned land and thieves started helping themselves to parts. Finally, the couple – now in their 90s – decided it was time to sell.

Enter well-known Minnesota auctioneer Yvette VanDerBrink. Her company agreed to do the sale which included many original parts and fixtures and signage – you name it – from the dealership, as well as the cars which ranged from a 1928 Durant 2-door sedan owned by Lambrecht's uncle to a Silver Anniversary 1978 Corvette Indianapolis 500 Pace Car with 4 miles on the odometer.

As VanDerBrink's crew pulled the "new" old cars – never titled or licensed – from the building, the hype began. Major national newspapers, on-line and print car publications such as "Old Cars Weekly" and "Barn Finds" and "Hemming's Motor News," all did stories and showed pictures of the collection. The poster child became a 1958 Chevrolet Cameo pickup with a dented roof (something from the ceiling fell on it over time) and 1.3 miles on the odometer. That vehicle also was the first to sell at Saturday's (Sept. 28) auction and it went to a man from New Hampshire who paid $140,000. He said he was going to display it "as is." The Corvette sold for $80,000 to an on-line bidder from Nebraska. A red and white 1963 Impala 2-door hardtop with 11 miles went for $97,500 to a bidder from Ohio. The Durant sold for $8,000.

There were more than 3,600 bidders on-line and many, many more in person as nearly 15,000 people milled about on the rain-dampened grassy field where the cars had been staged. Folks from Connecticut to California, Georgia to Washington state and many places in-between watched the sale which started with a set of four Chevy hubcaps that went for $400. A bidder from Germany parked his rental car at the High School parking lot where members of the student council and several athletic teams were charging $20 per car. He joined others who walked the 1.5 miles to the auction site, which was marked by the bright yellow flags of the funnel cake concession and other vendors.

A Norwegian firefighter who stayed at one of the Norfolk fire stations because of a shortage of motel rooms (nearly everything within a two-hour driving radius of Pierce was sold out months ago) was among the observers. A woman from Texas parked herself in her portable camping chair and worked on her needlepoint as her husband looked at cars and visited with other attendees.

One woman spoke of the great meal she had at the Methodist Church in Pierce Friday night. In a town with limited dining opportunities in the face of a massive crowd, the locals stepped up. There was a strong odor of barbecue smoke drifting from downtown out into the neighborhood where a teen girl manned a corner water and pop station, 75 cents each, thank you. A family near the High School opened their garage to sell breakfast goodies and even provided a picnic table and canopy for diners to use.

The owners of many "For Sale" cars in the area from Pierce to Norfolk had them on display. Some that didn't run were on the backs of flatbed trailers. Some were classics, some strictly hot rods, some maybe just parts cars. But the visitors were stopping and looking – maybe even buying. That's opportunity. One local resident displayed excellent marketing skills in signing his event the "Man Cave Yard Sale."

On a non-Husker-Football Saturday, it was THE thing to do. And the world caught a glimpse of Nebraska ingenuity and pride.

Taxes are Too High in Nebraska

By Governor Dave Heineman
 October 4, 2013

Dear Fellow Nebraskans:

Taxes are too high in Nebraska. I hear it every day; property taxes, income taxes and occupation taxes are too high.

Nebraska fares very well in general business rankings, but not on the tax rankings. For example, according to the Tax Foundation, Nebraska has one of the 16 highest top state income tax rates and Nebraska is one of the 13 highest property tax states. That needs to change.

Additionally, more than 35 states exempt a portion of or all social security income from taxation, but Nebraska does not. Nebraska is one of only eight states with an inheritance tax. Even California doesn't have an inheritance tax. Kiplinger recently named Nebraska as one of "The 10 Least Tax-Friendly States for Retirees." Nebraska must address its high tax situation.

It's been nearly five decades since Nebraska had a serious debate about our overall tax system and we were operating in a completely different economic environment then. Our current tax code was designed in the 1960's for the 1960's. Back then, Americans didn't even have personal computers in their homes. Now, we live in an electronic age.

Today, we are operating in a technology-driven, global free market economy, and we need a modern tax system. We need a tax code that represents the future, not the past. We need a modern tax system to create more jobs and higher paying careers for our sons and daughters, and our grandkids. We need a tax code that protects taxpayers.

That's why the Tax Modernization Committee recently held public-input hearings in Scottsbluff, North Platte and Norfolk. This committee was created this past legislative session to study Nebraska's tax system and possibly make recommendations for change.

The public hearings are an opportunity for an open dialogue to occur between the people of Nebraska and the committee members. Additional public hearings will occur this month with a report of the committee's work to be released in mid-December.

I want to commend the Tax Modernization Committee and I want to thank our citizens who have shared their opinions about taxes at these meetings. Citizen input is essential to the process of tax reform and modernization.

I am hopeful that we can develop a tax relief package that includes both property tax relief and income tax relief. It is a delicate balance. It won't be easy, but with citizen input and working together with Legislature, I believe we can do it.

Choices change, but sub-octane fuel works the same

Choices have changed at the gas pump, but drivers shouldn't see a change in how fuel performs in their cars, a University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension educator says.

Motorists for many years have had a choice of gasoline fuel with octane ratings of 87 regular, 89 with 10 percent ethanol or 91 premium. However, oil companies have started to run a sub-octane fuel up the pipeline, which is 83 or 84 octane, said John Hay, associate extension educator in biological systems engineering at UNL.

Mixing ethanol with the sub-octane fuel gives it the octane boost it needs to reach 87 octane level. Ethanol has an octane rating of 100. Fuel stations have begun to change their pumps and labels to reflect the new blends.

"This sub-octane fuel needs to be blended with other fuel types to make it the 87 octane level or above we need at the pump," Hay said. "So basically, 87 with ethanol replaced the 89 with ethanol, and our low cost option at the pump is now 87 with ethanol."

Hay said for those that used to fill up with 89 with ethanol, they can now fill up with 87 with ethanol and it will work the same in their engines.

Before the changes, Hay said there was about a 10-cent price difference in regular gas versus the 10 percent ethanol blend. However, since the changes, that has been ranging 15 to 25 cents across the state.

"The reason is because the 87 regular used to be just the fuel coming out of the pipeline; now it has to be blended with 91 octane premium fuel to make the 87 octane regular," Hay said.

The majority of the U.S. has already seen this change, and Hay said Midwest fuel stations will be deciding what blends to carry and what prices to charge over the next few months.

An octane rating ranks fuel's ability to compress without detonating.

"The average car needs a minimum octane rating of 87," Hay said, but be sure to consult your owner's manual for minimum octane required for your car. "To take advantage of higher octanes, you need a car with higher compressions, such as a high-performance sports car."

Octane is not a rating of energy density and both the 87 with ethanol and the old 89 with ethanol have the similar Btu content and will both give drivers the same gas mileage.

Hay said another fuel fact is about winter and summer fuel.

As winter approaches, oil companies will begin their annual change to "winter" fuel. This winter fuel will have the same octane but is made of shorter chains of hydrocarbons and is thus more volatile and less energy dense.

The higher volatility helps with cold start in winter conditions, yet has less energy than summer blend gasoline. This reduction in Btu content will be accompanied by lower gas mileage but also a lower price at the pump, Hay said.

He said the oil market has a lot of price volatility and thus price changes due to switchovers like summer to winter and winter to summer are hard to notice. Similarly driving conditions and styles make fuel mileage fluctuate, making small changes in the fuels energy hard to distinguish.

Making It Right

In the Journal's story last week about the Iowa Tribe 2013 election, two names were not correct. Alan Keller is a candidate for Vice Chairman and Diane Studie is a candidate for Secretary. Elections will be held Saturday, Oct. 19, at the George Ogden Sr. Building, with polls opening at 10 a.m. and closing at 1:30 p.m.

Order of Eastern Star

Eastern Star members of Humboldt Chapter #234 held their Oct. 3 stated meeting at 7:30 p.m. Worthy Matron Joan Wheeler presided in the East. The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the opening ode, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." Chaplain Keith Wheeler offered prayer.

Minutes of the September meeting were approved. The secretary read correspondence including a letter from Ron Giesselmann, executive director of the Masonic-Eastern Star Home for Children in Fremont. He wrote of the many awards earned by the children on their varied 4-H projects this year.

The Humboldt chapter voted to send money to the home for their Purple Ribbon Club for future animal projects. After receiving a letter from Worthy Grand Matron Beverly Donham and Worthy Grand Patron Jim Dusch concerning Thanksgiving Ingathering gifts to the Children's Home and the Masonic-Eastern Star Home in Plattsmouth the chapter voted to send each a monetary gift.

Each member received a copy of the current Nebraska OES News outlining activities for Grand Chapter members and all Nebraska members. Phyllis Williamson remains on the sick list.

The Nov. 7 stated meeting will include election of officers for the next year. Chapter closed in form with prayer by the chaplain and the singing of the closing ode, "God Be With You," accompanied by organist Debi Dunn. Refreshments were served by Marcella Niedfeldt and Phyllis Kreutzer.

St. Paul's LWML

The St. Paul's Lutheran Church LWML met on Wednesday, Sept. 4, for a trip to Beatrice to the North 8th House, with visits and groceries and a visit to Mosaic with tons of cookies!

The group toured the Mosaic complex and its many buildings, enjoying their visit and learning a lot about Mosaic, a wonderful business for Beatrice and the surrounding communities.

We enjoyed our lunch at Aunt Mary's Restaurant with Muriel's guest, Dorothy. A thank-you from Kari Kreifels was read about her National Youth Gathering trip to San Antonio, and pictures Kari gave us were handed around.

An abbreviated meeting was held before and after the meal. Sandy Eickhoff handed out purple and gold wrapped chocolate kisses and said she would hand them out for LWML Sunday. Sandy also discussed the LWML Banner and the changes she will make. We all agreed that since she is making it, she can change it!

Dorothy Vollmer made a motion to have purple and gold flowers for the Altar on LWML Sunday. This was seconded and carried.

Jean Niedfeldt moved to give Mosaic $50 for our mission. This also carried. Sandy made a motion to serve rolls and coffee that Sunday. The motion carried.

October is Housing America Month

The Falls City Housing Authority has joined with affordable industry partners across the country in supporting the Housing America campaign, which aims to educate decision makers and the general public about the importance of affordable housing and community development programs, as well as the challenges facing these programs.

Public housing, a $1 billion asset in this country, is home to over two million people, more than 40 percent of whom are children. Public housing is a vital national resource, and yet the administration's funding requests for public housing would not fully fund the program.

October is Housing America Month.

Housing America is spearheaded by the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials, a membership organization of 23,000 housing and community development agencies and professionals, along with 12 partner organizations standing in support of housing and community development interests.

For more than 70 years it has been the policy of this nation, under the US Housing Act, to promote the general welfare of the nation by employing its funds and credit to assist the states and their political subdivisions to remedy the unsafe and unsanitary housing conditions and the acute shortage of decent, safe and sanitary dwellings for families of lower income.

Housing America Month is part of a year-long, national campaign to inform the public and decision makers of the critical need to address the nation's housing and community development concerns.

The Falls City Housing Authority, located at 800 E. 21st Street, can be reached at 402-245-4204.

Some 900 pounds of food collected during fair

By Susan Phillips, SENCA

With valiant effort from Pastor Michael of the Humboldt United Methodist Church, Pastor Howard of the Humboldt Christian Church, area churches and a team of volunteers, approximately 900 pounds of canned goods, personal hygiene items and other supplies were collected to benefit SENCA Food Pantries in Falls City and Humboldt during the Richardson County Fair!

Instead of handing out candy to the many who line the streets to watch the three daily parades, this year Pastor Michael had the idea of asking fair goers to donate non-perishable items or monetary gifts to help feed hungry families who seek emergency food assistance from SENCA. Through coordination, recruiting, and promoting, the idea became a reality as many individuals handed over bags of canned vegetables or fruit, soup, tuna, paper towels, laundry soap, etc. to volunteers walking through the parade.

While the fair comes to town just once a year, Pastor Michael stated he will continue to work with local and area pastors, churches and the community throughout the year by developing and promoting various opportunities of giving to assist SENCA in helping individuals and families in crisis.

With budget cuts caused by the sequestration, there are fewer grant dollars available to help fund emergency programs offering hope to those who feel as if all is lost. Events such as the County Fair Food Drive are examples of how neighbors can come together and help fill a void created from budget cuts, benefiting those in need and strengthening our communities.

For more information regarding SENCA programs and services please visit senca.org or "like" us at www.Facebook/Sencal

Beware of phone scams

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, which may prompt solicitations from various groups for monetary support.

A Falls City woman recently received a fund-seeking call and became a bit suspicious. The Breast Cancer Society caller sought a donation of up to $40. The local woman explained that she is involved with the Richardson County Cancer Fund and would be willing to make a donation. Innocently, she asked where this organization was located; where the call had originated.

After the question was asked, the caller hung up.

The Journal conducted an online search for this group and learned that it is, indeed, a charity that used phone banks to solicit. But the use of funds that are donated might be questionable. One online entry, from another suspicious call recipient, indicated that The Breast Cancer Society is affiliated with several other groups and that their record of getting funds to people who need them is not good.

The Falls City woman wanted to alert anyone who gets a similar call to be aware and to be cautious and questioning when such calls are received. Always seek additional information and be very wary of providing credit card information to any organization with which you are not familiar.

Halloween at Indian Cave

“TRICK-OR-TREAT AT THE TOWN” is a new event planned at Indian Cave State Park. Kids can enjoy trick-or-treating at the old town of St. Deroin from 6:30-9 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11. This will be a fun family event that is not intended to scare the little ghosts and goblins.

The “Haunted Hollow” hayrack rides will begin Oct. 12 and continue every Friday and Saturday evening through the end of October.

Other Halloween-themed events are the pumpkin roll, paint your own ceramic pumpkin, scavenger hunt and a decorating contest in the RV campground.

While at the park you can take in the Living History demonstrations and horseback riding or just enjoy a drive thru the park looking at the beautiful fall foliage.

You may call the park at 402-883-2575 for pricing and additional information.

Aviation art contest

Since 1986, the Nebraska Dept. of Aeronautics has sponsored an annual Aviation Art Contest for the benefit of our youth. The program goal is to motivate and encourage young people to become more familiar with and participate in aeronautics, engineering, math and science.

There are three age categories of contestants: 6-9, 10-13 and 14-17 for boys and girls.

The 2014 theme is “FLYING SAVES LIVES.” Today, helicopters fly rural accident victims to far away hospitals; organs are packed in ice and flown, in the nick of time, to save dying patients; pilots use planes and helicopters to fight large fires; and relief agencies transport food and water to starving and thirsty people around the globe. Flight has given us the ability to help those who could never be helped before. This is an excellent opportunity for our youth to grab their favorite artist’s tools and create a poster celebrating their thoughts about how “FLYING SAVES LIVES.”

Entries for the contest need to be submitted to the Department of Aeronautics and post-marked by Jan. 17, 2014. An awards ceremony will be held in Lincoln during April 2014, recognizing state, national and international winning students for their accomplishments. The winning art will be displayed for everyone to enjoy as well as numerous aircraft on static display and refreshments.

For more information and an entry brochure contact David Morris at 402-471-2371 or e-mail: David.Morris@nebraska.gov

Standing on the Promises
Christians live under wonderful promises:
- we die, but this life is not all there is;
- there is a place for us eternally, prepared by our Lord Jesus;
- we will be with Jesus forever in God's presence.
Hear more in church this week.
If we have died with Him, we will also live with Him.

50 Years Ago (Oct. 7-12, 1963)

The Burlington Railroad ran a special from Falls City to Table Rock and return and 800 youngsters and their parents responded. The passenger cars were pulled by what was probably the last coal-burning steam locomotive west of the Mississippi. The passengers came from all over Richardson County and for most of the youngsters it was their one and only train ride.

Shirley Bauman was queen and Paul Frederick king at Sacred Heart's homecoming. The Irish bounced Craig 26-7, Frank Sunnenberg scoring two TDs.

Cliff Robertson was starring in "PT 109" at the Rivoli and the Oil City was showing Marlon Brando in "Ugly American."

Since Dr. William Sherpherd's home had been advertised for sale in the Journal there had been 85 "lookers." Miss Wilma Buckminster bought it for $10,000.

The stork report: daughter Oct. 10 to Mr./Mrs. Vernon Bletscher, Route 1; daughter Oct. 12 to Mr./Mrs. Kenneth Hunzeker, Rulo; son Oct. 12 to Mr./Mrs. Cecil Buckminster, Preston; son Oct. 5 to Mr./Mrs. Arthur Fritz, FC; daughter Oct. 6 to Mr./Mrs. Carl Gruber, Morrill; son Oct. 7 to Mr./Mrs. William Knobbe, Shubert.

Construction of new blacktop surfacing began on Highway #105, south of Humboldt to Highway #8.

It cost $1.50 to eat the turkey dinner at the Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church Bazaar.

An item from United Press:

Budapest, Hungry—Hungarians arrested for drunkenness were put in bathtubs filled with fresh, very cold water.

25 Years Ago

Approximately 50 Afghanistan students and their instructors from the University of Omaha spent the weekend in the county on the "Nebraska Neighbors" project. The coordinator was Doug Fritz, ex-Verdon. For their benefit and for some Americana, Mark Fleskoski auctioned off a bale of hay for $40.

Connie Walsh was queen and Robbie Craig king at the FCHS homecoming. The Tigers edged Auburn 12-7 with Paul Brott and Dennis Maze scoring TDs.

Kristi Olberding, FC, was the queen at the Peru State homecoming.

The Nebraska Agricultural Statistics Service said the state's corn harvest was 45% complete and the soybean harvest 55%.

A son was born Oct. 12 to Dr./Mrs. Tom Bartek, FC.

Brian Hilgenfeld, Dawson, was among the candidates for king at the UNL homecoming.

Louie Fritz, Verdon, ran in the Heart of America Marathon at Columbia, MO, for the 24th straight year. Louie finished 1st in the 40-49 age group.

Fall colors are more subtle, but still to be treasured

In the middle of summer, we can begin to take color for granted. Blossoms in gardens and containers are made even brighter by harsh sunlight. There can be so much color in the landscape that even the brightest flower will hardly draw our glance.

In fall, the sunlight is less intense, flowers have faded from summer's heat and summer's colorful annuals have begun to decline. Fall is a time for more subtle beauty, a time to slow down our pace and pay more attention to the slow but steady seasonal changes.

The fall foliage of trees and shrubs will add their own bright colors, but there are many perennials that bloom into autumn; some will bloom so late in the season that we're more likely to notice them from inside than outdoors.

For shrubs, there's blue mist spirea with soft blue flowers on silvery foliage, rose-of-Sharon with its bright hollyhock blossoms, an abundance of roses still in bloom and the subtle, yellow-to-copper blossoms of witchhazel.

One of the few fall-blooming bulbs is Colchicum. It's too late to plant for this year, but it's a great addition to any garden, offering low-lying color when we least expect it. Plumbago is one of the few groundcovers that bloom in fall. The bright blue blossoms are dramatic against green foliage, which will turn to purple and red later in the season. Perennial geraniums also are low-lying and many of them will bloom into fall, including the popular hybrid Rozanne.

Asters are some of the best-loved fall flowers, and there's a from July into October. Other lesser-known fall-blooming perennials are monkshood, turtlehead and toad lily. The blossoms of toad lily are complex in appearance and look somewhat like a small orchid. They are arranged all along the arching stems and tend to come into bloom just as gardeners have

Arboretum tours celebrate fall

With fall colors just starting to appear, the Nebraska Statewide Arboretum is offering free arboretum tours. range of colors and heights for any garden. New England asters, among the tallest, are best combined with other grasses or perennials to hold them upright. They work well with Boltonia, another member of the aster family with airy white flowers. Other back-of-the-border perennials for fall are goldenrod ('Fireworks' is one of the most delicate), Agastache, pitcher sage, Gaura, coneflower, anemone and Rudbeckia.

Mums or chrysanthemums are fall standards. Clara Curtis is a particular beauty in this group; it's somewhat looser in habit and has soft pink blossoms that are more natural in appearance than most mums. Sedums really shine in the fall and they also come in a range of sizes and colors, with foliage and blossoms that persist through winter.

Phlox may not be thought of as a fall-bloomer but Phlox paniculata 'Laura' can bloom given up on the garden.

In Lincoln there are many good places to see a variety of perennials, including the Strolling Gardens (east of Sunken Gardens) and University of Nebraska gardens at city and east campus. To see these and other fall-blooming perennials, go to: www.pinterest.com/nearboretum/fall-blooming-perennials.

Lady Irish, 16-3, brace for strong stretch run

The FC Sacred Heart volleyball team split its two matches last week, easily defeating conference foe Lewiston 25-8, 25-16 and 25-10 last Tuesday on the road after suffering its first home loss and third overall last Monday against visiting Savannah, MO.

The Lady Irish entered the week riding a seven-match winning streak, dating back to Mudecas. FCSH is now 16-3 and rated No. 5 in Class D2.

Savannah jumped out in front by winning the first two sets 25-18 and 25-19, but the Lady Irish battled back to take a close third set, 26-24, and then cruised in the fourth, 25-13, before falling in a highly contested fifth set, 16-14.

The Savages, which returned four starters from last year's district championship team, are currently 18-2-2. Fourteen-year veteran coach Deb Couldry, winner of six district titles and five conference crowns, told the St. Joseph News-Press last weekend "this is the best group we've had since I've been here."

High praise - and it says something about FCSH, too. Because the Lady Irish gave Savannah all they wanted.

Sophomore Maggie Goltz led the Irish at the net in both games with 15 kills against Savannah and 12 more against Lewiston. Goltz hit .385 with five blocks Tuesday night. Senior Rachel Parrish and junior Abby Magdanz each added six kills against Lewiston, while senior Ashli Jordan recorded 10 digs and three kills. Elizabeth Magdanz had 21 assists and three kills Tuesday after serving 16-for-16 with two aces and passing for 33 assists in Monday's home loss.

Abby Magdanz and freshman Haylee Heits finished with 13 and 10 kills, respectively, against Savannah, while Jordan finished 24-for-25 serving with two aces.

The Lady Irish, now 16-3, are home Thursday, facing 6-11 Southern. As it stands right now, the Raiders are the last team with a losing record Sacred Heart will face during the 2013 regular season.

Next Tuesday, a triangular at Johnson pits the Irish against the 11-6 Lady Eagles and 10-6

(TOP) FC Sacred Heart sophomore Maggie Goltz records one of 15 kills, as senior Emma Schock (25) shores up the defense, last week in a hard-fought five-game home loss to Savannah, MO. FCSH was down 0-2, but squeaked out a 26-24 victory in the third game and then tied it up with a 25-13 blowout in the fourth. The Savages, though, edged the Lady Irish 16-14 in the decisive fifth. The loss was only FCSH's third this year and snapped a seven-match winning streak. Humboldt-TR-S. Then Thursday is the final home date of 2013, as FCSH hosts 8-8 Pawnee City at Prichard Auditorium. The Irish travel to 12-7 Rock Port, Mo., Oct. 21 and the next night go to Sterling to face the 13-3 Jets and 9-7 Nebraska City Lourdes. The Pioneer Conference Tournament is Oct. 28 through Nov. 1.

Lady Irish JV VB

FC Sacred Heart's junior varsity volleyball team finished second Saturday at a tournament in Pawnee City. SH defeated Humboldt-TR-S 25-17 and 25-8, then beat Johnson-Brock 26-24 and 25-8 to reach the championship match where they fell to hosts, Pawnee City, 25-23 and 25-20. The junior varsity also split their games last week against Lewiston and Savannah, MO, defeating Lewiston 25-11 and 25-14 on the road last Tuesday, but fell at home the night before to Savannah 25-10 and 25-13. Their record now sits at 7-4.

Lady Titans get to 10 wins

Humboldt-TR-S dropped two of three Saturday at the Johnson County Central Invite and currently sits at 10-6 on the season.

HTRS defeated Falls City in their opening round match 25-13 and 25-14, but fell to Thayer Central, 25-13, 20-25, 25-11, and Nebraska City Lourdes, 25-18, 22-25, 25-10.

Senior Courtney Allen had a big day for HTRS, finishing with a team-high 32 digs and added 18 service points and 19 kills. Senior Carmen Alexander shared the team-high with Allen with 18 points, including four aces. Another senior, Kasey Kappel, served 16 points with four aces and recorded 46 digs and 25 digs. Junior Ashton Nanninga finished the day with a team-high 25 kills.

Last Thursday, HTRS defeated Fairbury at home in four sets, 25-15, 21-25, 25-22 and 25-18. Alexander picked up 20 digs, while Allen and Kappel each recorded 17. Nanninga led the way with nine kills, 16 points and four aces.

HTRS travels to Pawnee City Thursday for a triangular beginning at 5:30 p.m.

SH roll Meridian, earn 250th win for Coach Goltz

Falls City Sacred Heart head coach Doug Goltz and his Irish football team cruised to another lopsided victory Friday, as they drubbed Meridian 49-6. The win improved the top-ranked Irish's record to 5-0, but for Goltz, who has coached solely at Sacred Heart since 1987, the win marked victory number 250 and pulled Goltz to within 10 of the all-time Nebraska eight-man mark of 260 set by Ken Cook of Adams/Freeman.

Long-time Omaha Creighton Prep coach Tom Jaworski, who compiled a 343-92 record in 39 seasons, holds the all-time Nebraska coaching victories record. Now in his 28th season with the Irish, Goltz holds a 250-43 record and has won six state championships. With three regular season games and a possible five playoff games remaining in 2013, Goltz will have to wait until 2014 to pass Cook, but that seems to be just fine with him considering he wasn't aware he'd even reached 250 until one of his players brought the accomplishment to his attention.

"I didn't realize it was number 250 until one of my players text me over the weekend," said Goltz, adding, "I hadn't really thought about it."

Goltz went on to say that his focus remains on the task at hand, which is keeping his team prepared for the opponent in front of them.

"My thoughts are on our game this week and getting our team prepared for that. There isn't much time to reflect, but I'm sure I will someday."

Goltz summed up the accomplishment briefly, saying, "I've been blessed to coach many very good teams with many very good players that are willing to work hard and work together."

Senior quarterback Chaz Dunn was proficient to say the least. Dunn connected on 17-of-21 passes for 206 yards and four touchdowns. Six different Irish receivers caught at least two passes and Dunn's shared the wealth on his TD strikes, hitting four different players for scores. Senior Colin Niemeier led the way with six receptions for 72 yards and a TD. Seniors Brandon Schawang and Sean Strasheim each had a TD grab, as did junior Logan Scheitel.

Schawang, Dunn and junior Sawyer Kean each rushed for a TD. Kean led the Irish with 50 yards rushing on five carries.

The Irish finished with 321 yards of offense and held Meridian to 179 yards, 160 of those via the ground game.

Meridian stuck with the running game, despite very little success, which led to a huge game for Schawang, who finished with a season-high eight solo tackles, six tackles loss and 23 total stops from his middle linebacker spot. Senior Jarod Fiegenger tallied 14 tackles, one sack and three tackles for loss.

The schedule stiffens up a bit for Goltz and the Irish this week as 3-2 Sterling visits Jug Brown Stadium. The Jets, in a bit of an upset, fell on the road to 3-2 Lewiston Friday night and subsequently dropped out of the latest rankings. Nonetheless, Sterling has some quality players, notably seniors Chris Wenzl (RB), Kody Benson (TE) and Trey Trauernicht (RB).

Friday's kickoff between the Irish and Jets is set for 7 p.m.

Turnovers handcuffed Falls City High Friday night at Jug Brown Stadium and dismissed any hopes of defeating eighth-ranked and still undefeated Syracuse. The Tigers, now 3-2 on the season, fumbled five times, losing four of them, and fell to the Rockets 33-16.

Syracuse turned the Tiger miscues into 12 points, a difference seen on the scoreboard and felt by those wearing orange and black until late in the ballgame when Syracuse added an insurance touchdown with less than two minutes to play in the game. FC, which trailed 12-8 for most of the third quarter, took over with 5:31 left in the third and their best field position of the game at their own 49-yard line, but gave it back immediately on their first play of scrimmage. Syracuse's Zach Heitkamp made them pay seven plays later when he broke loose for a 25-yard TD run, his second of the game, to put the Rockets ahead 19-8 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

Syracuse added another score with 10:43 left in the game to go ahead 26-8. The score made it 19-straight points for the Rockets, 12 of which came from Tiger fumbles.

The miscues weren't lost on Tiger head coach Darin Fritz, whose team lost only one fumble prior to Friday night.

"It would have been hard to beat any team Friday night, let alone a quality team like Syracuse," Fritz said. "We have been very good the first half of the year with our turnover ratio, we just can't have lapses like we had Friday night."

FC's quickstrike, bigplayoffense was hemmed in by the physical Rockets, who held the Tigers to 92 yards rushing, by far their lowest total of the season. The Tigers ran a season-low 36 offensive plays and their two touchdowns on the night came via an 88-yard kickoff return by senior Ryan Mount early in the second quarter and early in the fourth quarter when senior Mitchell Harling found a crease in the middle of the Syracuse defense and outran everyone 68 yards to the end zone. Harling finished with 98 yards on 18 carries.

"We knew all season long that they might possibly be the most physical team that we will play all season long," Fritz said. "I thought we caught them off guard last year with our running game, in particular how we got our backs outside their defensive ends. They had the personnel and scheme to take that away from us this year.

"I thought defensively we played very physical against a very good team. Derek McCann was unstoppable at times and played really hard with good technique. If he can continue this he will be a force.

"We had to play our best game of the year to have a chance to win and we didn't. Our team character will not be defined by one loss or a couple of bad plays. We will be defined by how we react once we stumble."

McCann, a senior, finished with a team-high 13 tackles, including seven solo stops and two tackles for loss.

Senior Chase Thompson and junior Jack Hartman each finished with 3 1/2 tackles for loss, resulting in more than 35 yards of loss for the Rockets. Thompson added a sack, as did junior Tucker Merz and junior Weston Witt scooped up the lone Rocket fumble.

Senior Reese Hogue returned to the field for the Tigers after missing three games with a knee injury and appeared to be healthy, despite the noticeable brace on his left knee.

Friday's loss was the first for FC in their district where they sit at 1-1. Three games remain, two against district foes Auburn and Lincoln Christian, so a district title is still possible, but the Tigers need to win out and have Syracuse drop two of their final three games, all of which are against district opponents. The Rockets host Auburn (2-3) Friday night, then host fifth-ranked Lincoln Christian (5-0) Oct. 18 and wrap up the regular season at Lincoln Lutheran Oct. 25.

FC travels to 1-4 Fairbury Friday, comes home for homecoming Oct. 18 versus Auburn and then finishes with a Thursday game on Oct. 24 at Lincoln Christian.

Lady Tigers win Nos. 3, 4 last week

FC Tiger CC Invite Thursday afternoon

The rebuilding stage for the Falls City High volleyball team appears to be headed in the right direction for first-year head coach Julie Frederick, whose team picked up wins three and four last week, doubling their win total from a season ago.

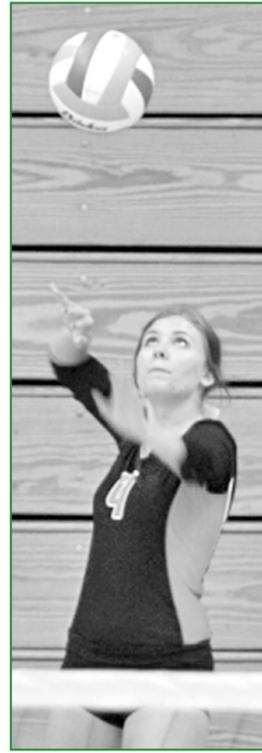

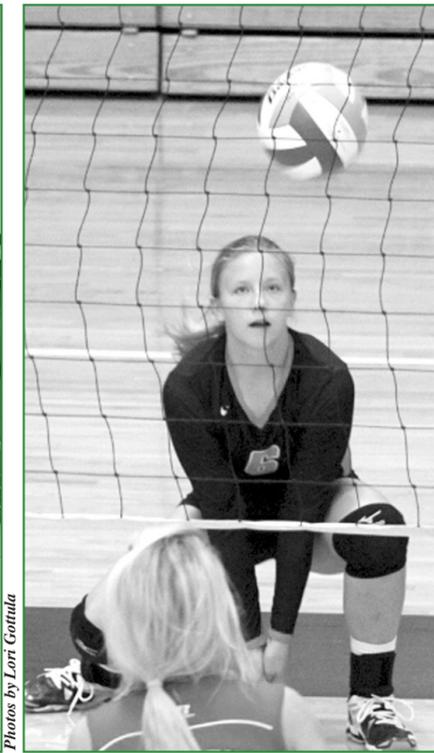

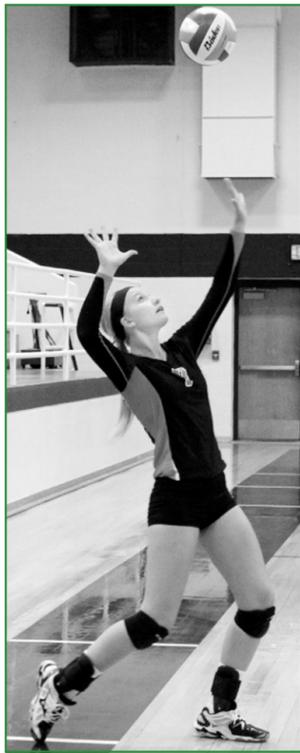

For some perspective, in 2011 when FC finished 5-27 they didn't pick up their second victory until Oct. 8 and then went on to win four of their final nine games, so with 11 guaranteed games left they are ahead of that pace. If this Tiger team can finish like they did two years ago, double-digit wins isn't out of the realm of possibility and what a feat that would be for Frederick.

At Saturday's Johnson County Central Invite, the Lady Tigers defeated JCC in three sets, 19-25, 25-21 and 25-21 to garner fifth place. FC, now 4-15, was led in the match by junior Maygan Ramsey, who served 10 points with three aces and also put away nine kills. Fellow junior Baylee Vrtiska dished out 21 assists and also served seven points. Juniors Taylor O'Brien (16 digs) and Jerrica Beckner (4 digs) led the Tigers defensively.

FC dropped their first two matches of the tournament, the first to Humboldt-TR-S 25-13 and 25-14, and the second to Thayer Central, 25-16 and 25-17.

Ramsey finished the day with 17 kills, 18 service points and six blocks. FC's lone senior, Madison Olberding, finished with 14 kills and 20 digs.

Win number three came last week on the road in Horton where FC split matches with Horton and Hiawatha, KS. FC lost the first match of the night to Horton, despite winning the first set 25-21, falling in the final two sets 25-13 and 25-15. Sophomore Libby Bauman led the attack finishing with 13 kills and three kills. Ramsey, Olberding and junior Lindsey Duerfeldt each finished with eight kills. Vrtiska was tops with 17 digs and eight points.

FC bounced back with a three set victory over Hiawatha, defeating the Red Hawks 18-25, 25-16 and 25-21. O'Brien and Campbell each scored seven points and combined for 16 digs. Olberding finished with team-highs in kills (11) and digs (19).

The Falls City Invitational is this Saturday at the high school beginning at 9 a.m.

Irish Junior High FB

FC Sacred Heart's Junior High football team is off to a 3-0 start after picking up wins against Humboldt-TR-S (56-14) Sidney, IA, (62-34) and most recently, against Nebraska City Lourdes, 58-20, last Thursday.

Drew Bippes scored on runs of 14, 21 and 25 to lead the Irish against Lourdes. Bailey Darnell added a pair of TD's - a 52-yard punt return and a 55-yard reception from quarterback Ryker Hoy. Also finding the end zone for SH were William Morehead (58-yard kick return), Theo Rohrer (2-yard interception return) and Christian Harring (16-yard run).

Sean Arnold scored rushing touchdowns from 28, 8 and 3 yards in the win over HTRS, while Hoy passed for two TD's, a 33-yard score to Morehead and a 54-yard pass to Harring. Darnell returned two kickoffs for touchdowns against the Titans and added a 50-yard TD run.

Darnell added his third kickoff return TD of the season in the win over Sidney, returning a 4th quarter kickoff 70 yards for the score. Darnell also scored on a 14-yard run in the third quarter. Hoy rushed for two and added a 28-yard TD pass to Tristan Keithley, while Keithley later added a defensive TD when he picked off Sidney's Sergio Rodriguez in the 4th quarter and returned it 22 yards. Also getting involved were Morehead, who scored on runs of 8 and 65 yards, and Harring, who punched one in from two yards out in the first quarter.

Irish JV football

FC Sacred Heart's junior varsity football team improved to 5-0 last week with a 50-8 victory over visiting Sidney, IA. Henry Arnold and Noah Keller each scored twice for the Irish, while Austin Malone, Ben Mullins and Austin Ahern added touchdowns of their own. Arnold scored from eight yards out in the first quarter and then added a 25-yard score in the third. Keller had the Irish's two big scoring plays, as he scored from 62 yards out to make it 30-8 early in the third quarter. Keller scored SH's final TD of the game on a 73-yard punt return.

The Irish JV hosted Rock Port, MO, last night and play two more remaining games, Oct. 14 at Nishnabotna, IA, and Oct. 21 at home against Fremont Mills, IA.

Depression screening

Thursday, Oct. 10, is National Depression Screening Day - a day designed to call attention to the illness of depression on a local and national level.

Depression does not discriminate against your age, gender or socioeconomic status, which together is why it makes it such a risk to so many people. This screening day is driven to educate the public about the symptoms and effective treatment for depression, to offer individuals the opportunity to be screened for it and to connect those in need to local resources. Depression screenings are not a professional evaluation, but are a quick and easy way to spot some of the early signs of trouble.

Blue Valley Behavioral Health is providing the community a free, confidential depression screen (along with other behavioral health screens) that can be easily accessed from your own computer or smart phone. Simply go to their website, bvbh.net and click Screening Options, and then Online Screening and that will take you to their screening website. Answer the questions and the results of your screen will be immediately available along with access to other resources. You can print your results as well.

In addition, if you would like to go over the results of your screen, call your local BVBH office, 402-245-4458, and a counselor will be able to review it with you.

Falls City High's girls' cross country team had their best finish to date last Monday at the Rock Port (MO) Invite, finishing with a runner-up trophy in the 12-team field. The Lady Tiger runners finished with 76 points and had four girls in the top-20. Winnetonka (MO) was well out in front of everyone in first place with 24 points. Mid-Buchanan (MO) was third with 89 points.

The Tiger boys finished third overall with 88 points, 25 points behind runner-up Neb. City. Winnetonka also took home the boys title with 43 points.

Individually, FC was again led by a pair of freshmen, Kyle Leafy, who finished 11th with a time of 20:01, and Cheyenne Doval, who took home 12th place with a time of 24:42. Junior Brandon Gibson (12th, 20:01) and sophomore Lainey Larsen (13th, 24:45) also took home medals in their respective boys' and girls' divisions. Sophomore Lauren Bierman finished 18th with a time of 25:43, Morgan Roberts was 20th with a time of 25:42 and junior Krystal Samqua was 24th with a time of 26:06.

Other varsity finishes on the boys' side were: sophomore Anthony Baker, 26th, 21:56; senior Justin Doerr (27th, 21:56); sophomore Blake Black, 31st, 22:27; freshmen Brett Black, 39th, 23:21.

Junior Elizabeth Oliver (48th, 35:58) and freshmen Christian Bennett (50th, 25:57) and Matthew Rathje (52nd, 26:12) competed for the Tiger junior varsity.

Friday the Tiger runners competed at Syracuse and according to head coach Cody Hawley, "seemed very tired from having two meets in one week." FC struggled and finished 12th and 10th in the respective boys and girls divisions. Fourteen boys teams competed with Elkhorn Mt. Michael taking home first place. Plattsmouth finished first on the girls side where 13 schools competed.

Larsen had the best finish, 31st, with her time of 23:53. Leafy led the boys with a time of 19:35, good for 34th.

The Tigers host their annual invite at 4:30 p.m. Thursday at the FC Golf Club.

FC seniors look to lead team on deep postseason run

By Jim Langan

It gets serious now for the Falls City High softball team, as the Class C, District 1 tournament looms this Thursday and Friday in Syracuse.

The Lady Tigers used some late-inning heroics on the road last night to defeat Plattsmouth, 4-2, after splitting a pair of games last week with St. Joseph LeBlond (MO) and Savannah, MO. They enter the district tournament as the number two seed and a 17-10 record.

Senior Brooke Scheitel drove in the go-ahead run in the top of the eighth on a fly ball to left that was mishandled by the Plattsmouth outfielder. Senior Kirstyn Buchholz came around to score to make it 3-2. Scheitel would score the fourth FC run later in the inning on an RBI by senior Brittany Ritter.

Buchholz earned her 14th victory of the season, tossing all eight innings for FC. She allowed no earned runs and just five hits, while striking out four. The four strikeouts push her single-season record to 127 and counting.

FC fell to a very good LeBlond team, 11-1, last Tuesday at home, but were 13-4 winners last Monday on the road against Savannah.

In the win over Savannah, senior Kirstyn Buchholz smacked two home runs, drove in seven runs and scored four times, as she finished the game 3-for-5 at the plate. Freshman Tayten O'Brien went 2-3 with three RBIs and junior Sydney Armbruster, who leads the team with a .451 batting average, finished 2-5 with two doubles and three runs scored.

FC, which features eight seniors who have contributed mightily to the program's success the last 2-3 years, will face 3-16 Johnson Count Central in the first round at 11:45 a.m. Thursday. The leadership from that gang of eight will look to lead FC to their second-ever state tournament. The Lady Tigers are 2-0 this season against JCC.

Wymore Southern, ranked No. 9 by both the Omaha World Herald and Lincoln Journal Star in last Thursday's ratings, enters the tournament with a 19-4 record and are the top seed in the tournament. Southern defeated FC 6-2 and 3-1 in their only two meetings this season and ended the Lady Tigers season last year at districts.

Third seed Syracuse (11-10) will face the six seed Conestoga (8-17) at 10 a.m. in Thursday's first round with the winner playing either FC or JCC. In the top half of the bracket are fourth-seeded Wilber-Clatonia (9-14) and fifth-seeded Freeman (7-16). The winner there will face

Southern.

FC head coach Jason Bredemeier is well aware of Southern's recent success against the orange and black, but said his team is focused on their first round game with JCC. Bredemeier added that he is confident in his team's chances and thinks the district championship and state tournament berth is as wide open as it has ever been.

"I think every team in our district is capable of beating any of the other teams in our district," Bredemeier said. "It is that wide open this year. Southern is a very deserving number one seed. Their softball team had always been consistently good over the years, but I knew that their program had finally turned the corner last season when they beat us to end our season in districts."

Bredemeier pointed to the fact that FC has not reached a district tournament championship since 2006, the year they qualified for state, thus the heavy focus on JCC.

"We need to focus on one game at a time in order to give ourselves a chance at being successful this postseason. We are not looking ahead to Syracuse or Southern. We are focused on beating JCC in the first round.

"Our team's confidence is high. We have beaten five out of the six teams in our district and we played close games with Wymore Southern the two times we played. Every time our team steps out on the field, we expect to win."

The district championship is scheduled for 3:30 Friday with an extra game, if necessary, set for 5:15.

Lady Tigers JV

Falls City's junior varsity softball team ended their season on a sour note with 6-4 loss to Savannah, MO, last Tuesday in Savannah. FC posted four runs in the top of the third to take a 4-1 lead, but surrendered five runs in the final two innings.

Avery Scott, Bailey Gilkerson and Josie Lunsford each finished 1-for-3 at the plate with each of their hits being doubles. Lunsford drove in two runs, while Feighner and Gilkerson had one apiece.

FC's JV finished the season 5-2.

Peru, UNMC expand RHOP to include nursing

Peru State College and the University of Nebraska Medical Center today announced that their partnership in the Rural Health Opportunities Program has expanded to include four seats in nursing. Peru State has offered three seats in UNMC's pharmacy program since 2012.

RHOP, which began in 1989, is designed to address the special needs of rural Nebraska by encouraging rural residents to pursue health care careers.

The agreement between the colleges will allow up to two eligible students to be accepted into the Lincoln division of the UNMC College of Nursing and up to two in the Omaha Division for a total of four students annually.

President Dan Hanson said,

Library hours-Elizabeth Ketter will be retiring effective September 30 and Shadow Loveless will be full time for now. We will be open Tuesday and Thursday evening for two hours and keep Saturday morning at 2 1/2 hours. We will see how this works out.

Miscellaneous-Thanks to H. Sullwold and H. Stanley for cutting the brush by and on the Whittington property.

Questions from audience-Jan McMullen discussed the various unmowed lots belonging to Dennis Lynn Lockard and asked if the town couldn't mow them. Rita Fischer noted that they are an eyesore for those coming into the Village. Nellie Lee Lockard questioned the location of her water shut-off. It could not be located by the NE Rural Water Association, along with several in the business section. Milke will work on locating Nellie Lee's shut-off for her. Jackie Uhri asked about working on the street north of her property. Joy explained that they are working on the action to be taken. The need of ditch cutting and her cement runs out into the street.

Water shut-offs were signed. Motion by Sullwold and second by H. Stanley to adjourn at 8:30 P.M. All voted yea.

"The Rural Health Opportunities Program is an important commitment to rural health care by UNMC. Peru State is proud to be a part of this prestigious program, which not only benefits our students but all of southeast Nebraska. The quality and strength of our science program and our faculty, as well as the support of area health care providers, have been instrumental in securing these nursing RHOP seats. We look forward to building an even stronger relationship with UNMC and bringing more RHOP seats in more health care fields to southeast Nebraska."

Juliann Sebastian, Ph.D., dean of the UNMC College of Nursing, said expanding access to nursing education at Peru State College is an important approach to eliminating the shortage of registered nurses in rural parts of Nebraska. "We thank Peru State College for their dedication to making these educational opportunities available to students and look forward to working with their faculty, staff and students on this important new initiative," she said.

Students must meet the following criteria to be accepted for admittance into the nursing RHOP:

- Minimum 3.2 high school grade point average and score of 24 or higher on the ACT or 1270 or higher on the SAT.

- Graduate of a Nebraska

High School.
- Committed to practicing in rural Nebraska.

If selected, students will receive a full tuition waiver while enrolled at Peru State and acceptance into the UNMC College of Nursing. Students also must maintain a minimum 3.5 grade point average.

Applications for the 2014 school year are available at www.peru.edu/rhop. The deadline for applications is Dec. 1. Students will be notified the following spring if they are accepted into the program.

HUSKERS, 39 — ILLINI, 19

Baby steps to November for this young group of Huskers

By Jim Langan

In the classic comedy film, "What About Bob," Bill Murray's character, Bob Wiley, is a neurotic loner who struggles, to say the least, with just about any normal daily activity.

One of the most memorable takeaways from the movie is Wiley's use of the phrase, "baby steps." Wiley learned the method from Dr. Leo Marvin, played by Richard Dreyfus, and uses it to help himself overcome his fear of just about everything. He uses it while getting on an elevator, boarding a bus and for just about anything else that confronts him during his daily routine.

The "Baby Steps" method seems like a decent approach for the 2013 Nebraska Cornhuskers, especially as they creep closer to the November schedule.

Like Wiley, Pelini is a bit neurotic and many times, drives Nebraska fans mad.

However, through the use of baby steps Pelini and company made some huge strides Saturday, jumping on top of Illinois early and unlike the disaster that was UCLA, they baby stepped their way to victory.

Ameer Abdullah and Tommy Armstrong showed shades of the old backfields with Tommie and Damon and LP, and Ahman, as the duo ran the option to near-perfection.

Sure, there weren't any triple option calls, but the few times the two tangoed on an option left or option right, they dazzled. Abdullah's career-high day of 225 yards seemed, at first glance, like an easy day at the park. But go back and watch the tape again. He broke tackles, twisted and turned out of defenders arms and ran with a sense of purpose like few backs have in the last, oh, 10-or-so years and on a day when the offense needed him the most.

Armstrong was efficient and didn't turn the ball over. Baby steps to 1-0 in the Big 10. That's all we could have hoped for and the kid performed.

Yeah, it was against a defense ranked with a number more fitting for a high temperature in Arizona, but Illinois had many Husker fans fearing more than the wind and cold Saturday. This writer included.

And the Blackshirts. What else can be said about the defense's performance in September that hasn't already been said about the Jacksonville Jaguars?

Pelini and his defense have heard it all and the first four games of the season did little to quell the barrage of Monday morning quarterback.

But on Saturday, that group, highlighted by new names like Rose, Santos, Valentine, Moss, Curry and Gregory, played fast and made plays. Pelini's blitzes worked and the front four pressured Illinois quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase seemingly all day. Baby steps for the Blackshirts.

Sure, Illinois racked up 372 yards of offense, but when a play needed to be made, someone in in the Scarlet and Cream stepped up. Were mistakes made? Absolutely. But this young team took more than a few baby steps in the right direction Saturday.

Amazing Gifts for Curious Children and Dogs.

LEARN. PLAY. CELEBRATE.

Le Wonderment is a specialty gift shop located in Omaha's Old Market. Intellectually-stimulating games, toys, and books fill spaces of curiosity in art, music, drama, science, and math. Plus, for our dog-lovers we have a special area called PupiCurious™

Children (and dogs!) love our fun, playful environment. Parents enjoy the opportunity to interact with their children while exploring, discovering, and learning, and are able to make informed purchases for birthdays and special events in their children's lives.

Le Wonderment's owner, Peggy Pawloski, holds degrees in Child Development and Gifted/Talented Education K-12.
