'Make the most of the train ride you are on right now'

Many residents unhappy with DOR plan to take a lane from Harlan Street

The Nebraska Department of Roads hosted a large crowd of citizens at a public information open house regarding a proposed change of U.S. Highway 73 at the Falls City Senior Center last Tuesday, July 14.

Most folks who came out were not in favor of the new three-lane design. DOR District 1 Engineer Tom Goodbarn said the three-lane design is being done all over the state and works very well. He noted the concern of truck traffic and proximity of businesses, but explained that with a three-lane highway, a center turn lane flows easier, allowing traffic to separate and not leave others stopped behind others making a left turn.

The four-lane section from 7th to 19th Street would be reduced to three lanes, which would include a northbound, southbound, and a center two-way left-turn lane.

On Harlan Street, from 19th Street north, all current medians are planned to stay.

The proposed project is estimated to cost $2.9 million and would be paid for by federal and state funding sources. To overlay the highway would cost roughly $1.9 million.

Identified as In Falls City and North, the proposed project would resurface about 2.94 miles of US-73, starting at 7th Street, just north of the southern corporate limits of Falls City, and extending to approximately one mile north of the northern corporate limits of Falls City.

The purpose of this proposed project is to preserve the US-73 transportation asset, improve the reliability of the transportation system and perpetuate the mobility of the traveling public. The project need is based on the current condition of the roadway.

The planned construction would consist of milling and resurfacing the existing roadway and shoulders. Additional improvements would include stabilizing the surfaced shoulders, earth shoulder construction, transitioning foreslopes, concrete repairs, ADA curb ramp construction, grading, and removing guardrail.

The four-lane section from 7th to 19th Street would be reduced to three lanes, which would include a northbound, southbound, and a center two-way left-turn lane. The three lanes would be reconstructed with full depth concrete pavement.

This project would require the acquisition of additional property rights including new right-of-way (ROW), and temporary easements (TE) due to the proposed reconstruction of sidewalks and curb ramps to meet ADA requirements. Access to adjacent properties would be maintained during construction, but may be limited at times due to phasing requirements. Impacts to wetlands are not anticipated.

Construction could begin as early as spring of 2017 with completion by fall of the same year. The proposed project would be constructed under traffic, with lane closures controlled with approved temporary traffic control.

The public is being encouraged to make suggestions or express concerns regarding this proposed project. Comments will be collected through July 29. Written comments should be submitted to: Sarah Kugler, Public Involvement Coordinator, NE Dept. of Roads, P.O. Box 94759, Lincoln, NE 68509; sarah.kugler@nebraska.gov; phone (402)479-4871; fax (402) 479-3989.

Information regarding the proposed project is available at www.roads.nebraska.gov/projects/ by clicking on the "In Falls City and North" link. For those without Internet access, info may be obtained through the contact above or at NDOR Headquarters, 1500 Hwy 2, Lincoln, NE, or contact Thomas Goodbarn, NDOR District One Engineer, (402) 471-0850, thomas.goodbarn@nebraska.gov

Jeffrey Allen Schmahl, 58, former well-known television reporter, founder of Nebraska football's famed "Tunnelwalk," and author of the popular inspirational blog The Last Train, passed away in the early morning hours of Tuesday, July 14, at his home in West New York, NJ, following a 15-month battle with pancreatic cancer.

Among the survivors is Jeff's sister, Judi (Bill) Carter, of Falls City, recently retired 35-year educator with FC Public Schools.

A Celebration of Jeff's Life will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 8 inside Memorial Stadium, West Stadium - Club Level 3.

"Here we'll be celebrating Jeff's life, accomplishments and sending love up his way. Anyone who knew him, loved him, was inspired or impacted by him is more than welcome to join us on this day of remembrance," his family posted on The Last Train website late Monday.

"For those unable to join us on this special day, we will be posting a fund to donate in his memory for any person who feels like giving. Please do this instead of sending flowers."

He was born on Aug. 22, 1956 in Albert Lea, MN, the son of Allen

'Blacksmith'
July 1, 1946

The smith is still a mighty man, but the village smithy no longer stands beneath the spreading chestnut tree.

These days the smith is likely to be motorized. His forge is on a trailer, and when horses need shoeing, the blacksmith does the work on the farm, the shoes making a fine jingle as the trailer comes up the lane. It's one instance of the auto serving the horse.

The blacksmith in John Falter's painting is Wilmer Benner, who operates in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, where Falter lives. Benner comes from a long line of smiths; his father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather were blacksmiths before him. Falter sketched Benner at work on the neighboring farm owned by Paul Mosser.

The Falls City Travelers 14-and-Under Softball Team saved its best for last in 2015, capturing the ASA Class D State Tournament Championship this Sunday in Hastings. FC entered the event with a pedestrian 14-12 record and didn't finish higher than third in any regular season tourney, but Coach Rich Witt's girls got on a roll at the right time, posting a perfect 5-0 record over the course of two days. After a pair of blowout victories over Friend (13-0) and Pierce (14-2) Saturday morning, the Travelers earned a come-from-behind 16-9 win over O'Neill that night, overcoming an early 4-1 deficit and breaking a 6-6 tie with a 10-run fifth inning explosion. Sunday, FC advanced to the title game with a dramatic comeback over Albion. Trailing 4-3 after five complete innings, FC used a one-out, four-run sixth to get the upper hand in a 10-6 win. Albion defeated O'Neill to set up a rematch with FC, but they hardly had enough left in the tank to touch FC pitcher Maggie McNeely, who tossed a two-hitter over seven innings in a 5-0 championship game victory.

The state championship was the fifth in three years and ninth overall for the Travelers program, which next summer will celebrate its 20th season.

"This was kind of a rebuilding season for us," Travelers founder and coach Carl Messner said, "with a lot of new players and a lot of young players at all age groups. We didn't field a 18-under team this year, not having any older players. But even with just four age groups we still won 82 games, finishing the season 82-49-1, and also went over the 1,200-win mark."

"I'm looking forward to next year; we will be more experienced at all ages and will have 18-and-Under again. I'm setting a goal to next year's players to win at least 90 games, so we can top the 1,300-win mark."

Walk, Don't Run

By: Nikki McKim

It's always been a dream of mine to take a few days, pick a direction and just drive. So this last weekend that's just what we did. I suggested this idea to Brian who tends to go along with my crazy ideas—even when he's a bit hesitant. He was a trooper and said he was in for this adventure. Last Wednesday we sat and went over the pros and cons of each direction. We could head straight south but we've both been to Texas numerous times. We could head west to Colorado but again we've been there. We didn't want to head north because we are saving Mount Rushmore for a family vacation with Alex when we have more time. So we chose to head east. We would head toward Illinois/Indiana. We had found a few places along Lake Michigan that was within 10 hours and had beach access and camping. We were thrilled with our choice and so excited to go.

Thursday morning I woke up and turned on the Weather Channel. Jim Cantore said if we were to head east that we would be heading into terrible weather. We spent the rest of the day scrambling to pick a new direction. So at about 5:30 p.m. we decided to head southeast. We would go toward Eureka Springs then Hot Springs, Arkansas. It was a quick trip and we had heard it was beautiful.

As we hit I-29 we were beyond excited. We had no schedule to follow and nowhere to be. We could drive until we were tired and stop whenever we wanted. As we hit Kansas City we had our first hiccup. A gentleman decided to swerve into our lane and we ended up with our brakes locked and car on the side of the road. After catching our breath cleaning up the cooler that spilled everywhere and slowing our hearts we decided to keep trucking.

A few hours later during a stop for coffee we caught the news that a tornado had hit the area we had initially targeted in Illinois. Relieved with our decision we happily tracked on south. We drove through Joplin and passed into Arkansas. We could see the hills by moonlight and imagined how beautiful it was going to be in the morning. Around midnight we decided to stop in Bentonville, AR. This town of roughly 40 thousand people seemed large enough to have plenty of hotel options. Since we had not planned for this trip we started stopping at hotels within our price range (under $100). Brian and I tend not to be very picky when it comes to hotels. We have stayed in some real horrible places. The worst was in Oklahoma when the front desk clerk asked me how many hours we planned on staying. I was dumbfounded by her question and she was as dumbfounded by my answer of "all night." $30 later we were squeezing complimentary shampoo out of a bag to clean up and laughing at our luck this was the only place within an hour that had a vacancy. We survived the night and consider ourselves to be very adaptable to bad motels.

Hotel after motel after hotel was full. Apparently Bentonville, home of Walmart is very popular. On the eighth try we found a vacancy at a chain hotel. It didn't look great but it would do. We were exhausted and ready to just sleep. We chatted with the lady up front who was pleasant enough and were given our key. We walked up stairs and opened our door. The bed was unmade, trash was thrown all over, the lights were on and the bathroom door was shut. We just stood staring at each other shocked, were we given someone else's room? Yes, we were. So we went back down and explained to the desk clerk that she had made a mistake. She apologized and gave us another room. After she checked it, she assured us we were good to go. Exhausted and agitated we once again walked up the steps up to our room and let ourselves in. It appeared to be clean at first glance. We decided to keep our shoes on and not unpack anything. We explored and I sent my sister some photos of our humble abode. But as I explored the room deeper to share with my sister I noticed a few things were amiss. The comforter had cigarette burns on it, an outlet had come out from the wall and the air conditioning unit had dirt and food in it. Yes it was gross but we could just get the sleep we desperately needed and get out as soon as the sun came up. I pulled back the covers and crawled into bed fully clothed. Brian joined and after about 30 seconds he started to flip out. There were bugs all over in the bed. We jumped up, grabbed our things and ran downstairs. We demanded a refund and tried to keep our calm as the lady who had been so nice before told us that we were in fact the second people to leave that night due to bugs. I shot her daggers as she continued to tell us that shockingly her printer "wasn't working" to show that we would get our money back. Funny how the printer quit working in the last ten minutes. She assured us we would get our refund but clearly she was not exactly a trustworthy lady. Defeated we got out to the parking lot and jumped around trying to get the billions of bugs off of us.

We hightailed it to the interstate and decided though we were beyond tired we would drive south until we found a nice hotel. An hour later we checked into a beautiful hotel at a discounted rate due to the fact it was 2:00 a.m. and I think the clerk saw we were about to drop from exhaustion. After a shower and inspecting the room for fleas we happily said goodbye to Thursday and hoped when we woke up our luck would change. Good things had to be in store for us, they just had to be!

State planning 150th birthday and times have changed

Capitol View
By J.L. Schmidt
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association
Sesquicentennial, a one-hundred-and-fiftieth anniversary.

The planning has begun. The Governor and his wife have unveiled the logo for the event and announced that it will be happening in 2017. Thus, it has begun. Historians will look at the past 150 years and begin their analysis. Futurists will prognosticate.

It's likely too soon to tell what the celebration will entail, but one could look at the last time Nebraskans honored a historic milestone -- the quasiquicentennial or 125th Anniversary. There were 1,243 sanctioned statewide events during the yearlong recognition in 1992. That's more than two celebrations per each of Nebraska's 535 cities and villages.

It was an unusual time in Nebraska. The University of Nebraska-Lincoln Cornhusker football team had lost a bowl game -- been shut out even -- in a 22-0 loss to Miami in the January 4, 1992, Orange Bowl. Tom Osborne's team finished as Big 8 Champions and had a 9-2-1 record.

There was a Democrat in the governor's office -- Ben Nelson -- who would go on to serve two terms. Nelson -- who actually was more of a political centrist -- had defeated Republican Kay Orr, the state's first woman governor who had sought a second term. Mrs. Orr had defeated another woman, former Lincoln Mayor and Democrat Helen Boosalis, for the job four years earlier.

Nebraska had 1.596 million population. Lincoln, the Capital City, had just short of 196,000 residents. The official Birthday Bash -- August 22, 1992 -- was held on the lawn of the State Capitol. Seeing anything -- short of "keep off the grass" signs -- on that lawn was highly unusual. But there it was on a bright August day. Everything from Lincoln resident Gary Kuck's Great American Race winning 1936 Ford to a number of large birthday cakes. Historical displays and vendors dotted the grounds.

The evening events were planned for Seacrest Field, Lincoln Public Schools' 30-year-old athletic field that had room for 10,000 spectators. In those days, the only turf that was more sacred than the beautifully manicured Capitol lawns, was at Memorial Stadium. The field and the stands, which seated about 70,000 people, were for Nebraska football and Nebraska football alone, thank you very much.

So it was that a capacity crowd paid $2 per ticket for the event at the southeast Lincoln stadium to enjoy a "first-time-ever-in-Lincoln-history" outdoor laser light show and listen to country singer Billy Ray Cyrus and comedian Bill Cosby.

Cyrus, whose hit single "Achy Breaky Heart" had just become a cross-over sensation climbing the charts, brought the house down with a tribute to Nebraska grocery store chain Hinky Dinky by changing the words to "don't you take my Hinky Dinky cart." The 54-year-old Cosby did the same thing with his routine on a visit to the dentist, among other popular stand-up favorites.

These were simpler times. Cyrus' daughter Miley was born three months later and took years to become a popular entertainer as sweet Hannah Montana and then a not-so-popular edgy performer. Cosby had, likewise, not fallen from grace amid allegations of sexual misconduct.

Nebraska now has 1.826 million people. Lincoln has grown to 258,000. Ben Nelson has been a U.S. Senator and retired. Tom Osborne has been a U.S. Congressman and failed Republican gubernatorial candidate and retired. Memorial Stadium has hosted Farm Aid concerts and Larry the Cable Guy and high school football championships. The Husker football team has lost its share of bowl games and had several coaching changes in the past 25 years.

Seacrest Field has just undergone a $4.5 million renovation. But Lincoln also has the Pinnacle Bank Arena and a newly expanded entertainment venue -- the Haymarket -- that would likely get the nod for the 150th Birthday bash.

Here's hoping that the logo, an Art Deco inspired ear of corn using inspiration from the state Capitol and paying homage to Nebraska's agricultural backbone, will be only the beginning of a great event for all Nebraskans to share.

Peace of the action

Saturday, Aug. 1
Lem's Northvue

Peace, Love, Etc. will perform at Lem's Northvue Cafe Saturday night, Aug. 1. The Omaha-based band hits the stage at 7 with an energetic mix of classic pop/rock music by the likes of The Rolling Stones, Janis Joplin, Van Morrison, Fleetwood Mac and others. The diverse set-list brings recognition to the audience and draws them into the music and on to the dance floor.

The band has been on the Omaha music scene for the last 25 years and consists of Mary Frances, vocals and percussion; John Rogers, vocals, guitars and harps; Bucky McCann, vocals, flute, sax, keyboard and guitar; Dan Sullivan, vocals and guitar; Barry Clark, vocals and drums; Brian Sampson, and Clarke Edson, basses.

A Peace, Love, Etc. performance is memorable and remarkable. From Dan's elegant, emotional guitar solos to Bucky's astounding chops on sax, flute, keyboards and vocals, the music is always full, passionate and precise; never stale or sterile. Barry's unstoppable energy, personality, power and finesse on the drums both anchors and propels Peace, Love, Etc., and with Brian's deep, groovin' bass, this rhythm section kills; both rock-solid and elastic. JR's voice, harps and guitars round out the songs; it's all here, with decades of experience, tons of passion and a carefree abandon that's quite obvious and burns hot and bright onstage. But when Mary Frances takes the stage, she brings the light, the love and the magic. A beauty inside and out, Mary Frances owns any song she sings; her voice, soul and sincerity are at once irrepressible and irresistible. The on-stage chemistry within this band is exhilarating and uplifting; much better witnessed than described.

Tickets will be available for purchase at Lem's Northvue, seating will be limited.

and Iris (Vicki) Schmah. The family moved from Minnesota to Grand Island when Jeff was in grade school and Al Schmah began a long and distinguished career at the Grand Island Independent. Jeff graduated from Grand Island Senior High in 1974 and from the University of Nebraska in 1978 with a degree in broadcast journalism, following in his father's shoes. While at UNL, Jeff was a four-year letterman on the Husker tennis team. He was married to Maria Ramirez on Dec. 19, 1981, in Lincoln. Schmah worked as a television sportscaster for 14 years at KOLN/KGIN in Lincoln. He started working for the UNL Athletic Dept. in 1993, taking a leadership role in the creation of HuskerVision and became known as the founder of the Huskers' famed "Tunnel Walk." In 2003, Jeff followed former Nebraska AD Bill Byrne south to Texas A&M to become Senior Associate Athletic Director for the Aggies, in charge of External Operations.

After retiring in 2013, he and his wife moved to New York City to join as co-owners of Schmackary's, a cookie company their son started near Times Square.

He learned on April 16, 2014 that he had pancreatic cancer and that it had spread to his liver. Weeks later, on May 6, the son of a newspaper man and marvelous award-winning communicator with a legion of friends started The Last Train, prosing to friends, family and fans on life and death and enriching all that occurs in the meantime.

"I hope my words encourage you to make the most of the train ride you are on right now," he wrote in that first entry. "That's really what is important to make the most of your life right now and to have a positive impact on the people in your life right now."

"The Last Train is an analogy for my journey in life with a diagnosis of terminal cancer. I also like the analogy that life itself is like a series of train rides. As we grow older, our lives change, we get off one train and move to another."

Schmah's last entry came just more than a year after his first, on May 14, 2015 (his son, Zach, wrote an update on July 8, a video tribute created by one of his former students was posted on July 10 and news of his passing was shared by his family that morning).

"It's been almost 14 months since my diagnosis and I am truly thankful not just for the time I've been given but especially for the quality of life I've been able to experience," Schmah wrote.

Condolences should be direct to: Schmah Family, 630 9th Ave., Suite 311, New York, NY 10036.

Peachy keen project by Lions of Humboldt

The Humboldt Lions Club, as its done in years past, is currently selling Colorado peaches as a fundraiser.

Peaches are $30 per 26-pound lug and must be prepaid and ordered by Aug. 10 (contact Ron Rist at 808 6th St., Humboldt). They will be delivered to Falls City the week of Aug. 17-24.

Several years ago the Humboldt Lions added the Richardson County Cancer Fund and continues to donate $500 to the RCCF each year.

Lion Sherryn Rist is a member of the RCCF and got the ball rolling. The club sells peaches to many Falls City residents, who reportedly have been very responsive in purchasing the fruit.

Branch thanks Sauce/Cycles vols, sponsors; pledges to improve communication next year

Falls City Businesses and Patrons, We would like to say thank you for attending and volunteering your time to make the Sauce & Cycles BBQ a success again this year. It was our 2nd year for this event and we were very pleased with the overall turnout!

We would also like to take this opportunity to apologize to all the downtown businesses that were inconvenienced during the event. We failed to completely communicate our event map and road closing plans with the businesses impacted by the Sauce and Cycles teams. We fell short in our communication efforts but please know we will work hard to continue on improving this very successful event. It is complicated to host events that make everyone happy but please know we offer these community events in order to create awareness about all the great things we have going on in Falls City.

I would also, again, like to thank our many generous sponsors: Dickey's Barbecue Pit, Would Eye, Farm & City Supply, WASP, PTS LLC & Personal Care, Inc., Sportin' Falls City, SENIA, F&M Bank, Sun-Mart, Community Medical Center, Southeast Nebraska Communications, Richardson County Bank &

Inmates = lab rats?

I am a Christian and believe in the Ten Commandments; I'm also an animal activist.

With the death penalty currently on the table, I have been thinking about other alternatives. With our prison so full of murderers, pedophiles, etc., I say give them a choice they did not give their victims: Let them get give back to society by giving their lives to research. Instead of using innocent animals that do not know why they are being tortured in labs, let the convicts give a little back to society for their sins.

Give them a choice, submit themselves to research or get the death penalty.

FSA declares disasters for nearby counties

Farm Service Agency, Denise Lickteig announced that Nemaha, Johnson, and Pawnee are three of 28 Nebraska counties designated as contiguous natural disaster areas due to severe storms, tornadoes, straight-line winds, and flooding conditions affecting parts of Nebraska. Other counties include Banner, Box Butte, Butler, Chase, Cheyenne, Clay, Custer, Dawson, Dodge, Douglas, Fillmore, Frontier, Garden, Hayes, Hitchcock, Keith, Logan, McPherson, Perkins, Sarpy, Scotts Bluff, Seward, Sheridan, Webster and York.

These counties were designated a Presidential Major Disaster on June 30, 2015, based on an May 6 to June 17, 2015 storms. This designation authorizes Emergency Loans for eligible producers. Lickteig stated, "Producers in these counties are encouraged to contact their local FSA Service Center for detailed information about available programs and updated disaster designations."

Emergency Loan applications are available for qualifying physical or production losses caused by these disaster conditions. Physical losses include structures, equipment and livestock while production losses include crops. These loans do require security and the ability to repay the loan. The Disabled American Veterans is the most long-lasting veterans advocacy group in the country and has never wavered in its core mission to fulfill our country's promises to the men and women who served. It is in that spirit that County Commissioner Jim Davidson (above), retired 23 years in the Army National Guard, helped ensure Richardson County vets get an upgraded ride after the 2003 Ford Windstar turned a full decade old and started showing its age. Davidson, a long-time employee at Hullman's Ford, worked with Ford, DAV and the County to purchase the 2014 Ford Flex featured in the background of this photo new for only $14,300.

"I was worried about that old one breaking down," Davidson said, "so we delegated it to short drives and got this new one for the longer trips."

The new vehicle took over in September of 2014 and through June of this year had made 122 trips for 181 vets, and traveled 26,589 miles in 852 hours of service, Richardson County Veteran's Service Officer Mona Godemann reported. The government pays for all the gas, but Godemann said they desperately need volunteers to drive the vets, as the van can run as much as five times per week. If you can help, please call 402-245-3722 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

- The DAV:
- Provides free, professional assistance to veterans and their families in obtaining benefits and services earned through military service and provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs and other agencies of government.
 - Provides outreach concerning its program services to the American people generally, and to disabled veterans and their families specifically.
 - Represents the interests of disabled vets, their families, their widowed spouses and their orphans before Congress, the White House and the Judicial Branch, as well as state and local government.
 - Extends its mission of hope into the communities where these veterans and their families live through a network of state-level Departments and local Chapters.
 - Provides a structure through which disabled veterans can express their compassion for their fellow veterans through a variety of volunteer programs.

East View News

Summer is really heating things up. Our activity schedule has been full of events.

In addition to our regular activities of Bingo, movies and popcorn, manicures, crafts and reminiscing we have also found time to enjoy the beautiful outdoors. Sitting on our patio and visiting over popsicles on a summer evening has been a big hit.

Our motors were really running during the recent poker run. We had five stations set up to draw a card and complete our poker hands. At each station we also received our biker names, enjoyed lemonade, made our best motorcycle sound effects and we served refreshments and revealed our top two hands. The top hand drawn by Floyd Niepert and the next best was Richard King.

July really got started with a bang. We celebrated the Forth of July with a wonderful meal of grilled burgers, hot dogs, chips, beans, potato salad, coleslaw and festive red, white and blue dessert. Joyce Lyons and her crew did a great job of preparing the meal. We enjoyed fireworks complete with our house favorites of sparklers and poppers.

We hope that your summer has been as nice and fun as ours.

BIG RED Recruiting Report

By Sean Stevens

(Falls City native and former staff writer for HuskerIllustrated.com and Rivals.com)

New Commitments

Nebraska continued its hot start to the 2016 recruiting cycle, added five new pledges since June 19. From June 24-26 the Huskers added three players and on July 16 added two more.

TE Jack Stoll (6-5/225) of Aurora, CO, was first, followed the next day by LB Greg Simmons (6-2/225) of Fort Pierce, FL, and then LB JoJo Domann (6-1/208) of Colorado Springs. July 16 gave NU CB DiCaprio Bootle (5-11/170) of Miami, and OL Boe Wilson (6-2/277) of Lee's Summit, MO.

Nebraska won a recruiting battle with Texas for Stoll's pledge. He's a versatile prospect, with the size and physicality to block along the line of scrimmage along with the athleticism and hand-eye coordination to catch difficult balls in traffic. Colorado and Colorado State had also offered, and Wisconsin was recruiting hard as well.

Simmons was originally committed to Miami, but after an unofficial visit to Lincoln in early June he reneged on his pledge and opened things up. That didn't last long either, as by late June he was calling Huskers LB coach Trent Bray to commit. Maryland, NC State and Tennessee had also offered. Simmons called NU 'utopia', and also cited the 'family feel' he got from current Huskers De'Mornay Pierson-El, Avery Anderson, and Kieron Williams. He already looks like a college linebacker, but what sets him apart is his intelligence and intensity on the field. Watching his film you see someone who 'plays fast'. He doesn't think - he reacts. That fits with the system the NU defensive coaches have been preaching.

Domann was Colorado's Defensive POY as a junior while playing on the same team as Anderson. Arizona State, Cal, K-State and North Carolina also offered. Like Simmons, Domann mentioned the family aspect in Lincoln among his reasons for choosing NU. A versatile player, Domann projects as a linebacker, safety, or hybrid of both positions. He's a winner as well. After his team started 0-2 his sophomore year, Domann was inserted into the lineup and they have won 25 straight games and two state titles.

After being one of the most impressive performers at Nebraska's Miami satellite camp in June, Bootle and his family made the trek to Lincoln for a four-day unofficial visit. At the end of the first day he'd seen enough to end his recruitment. Bootle cited the people that he had met, both at the camp and on campus, as the primary reason for his pledge.

After running a 4.34-second 40-yard dash and competing well in drills at the camp, NU was Bootle's first 'big-school' offer. He also boasts a 10.64-second 100-meter dash and a 4.4 GPA. Illinois, Tennessee, Washington and Wisconsin were all recruiting him, but the opportunity in Lincoln was too much to pass up.

Commitment No. 14 was Wilson, who chose the Huskers over offers from Indiana, Kansas, Louisville and Purdue and interest from Arkansas and Missouri. His final two schools were Nebraska and Louisville. A big reason for his decision was his relationship with offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh.

"(Cavanaugh) is a great guy and a great coach," Wilson told Husker Online. "He gets me fired up. That was a big reason why I chose Nebraska."

Coming from Lee's Summit West, a perennial state title contender in Missouri's largest class, Wilson projects as an interior offensive lineman. A redshirt year to work on his strength and his pass-blocking skills is expected, but Wilson should be competing for playing time in a couple of years.

Halfway There

With 14 prospects committed, Nebraska is around half done with this class. Adding the recent dismissal of receiver Kevin Gladney to the prior departures of kicker Mauro Bondi, quarterback Johnny Stanton, receivers Glenn Irons and Jariah Tolbert, linebacker David Santos, and safety Leroy Alexander, brings NU's scholarship count down to just 81 of the 85 allowed. Counting graduating seniors and potential early exits for the NFL (i.e. Maliek Collins and Vincent Valentine) and the 2016 recruiting class could reach 26-27 players. Three positions of significant need remain.

At defensive end NU is pursuing Noah Fant (6-5/210) of Omaha South, Mykelle McDaniel (6-4/255) of Loganville, GA, Carlo Kemp (6-3/250) of Boulder, CO, and Amani Bledsoe (6-5/265) of Lawrence, KS.

Fant has pushed back his decision multiple times to take additional visits, and is still considering Cal, Vanderbilt, Iowa and UCLA along with Nebraska. He's planning to decide before his senior year. McDaniel's former teammate, LB Mohamed Barry, has arrived in Lincoln for his freshman season and is actively recruiting McDaniel. It appears that Florida and NU are his top two and South Carolina is still in the mix as well. Alabama, Florida State, Georgia, LSU and USC have also offered. Kemp, Colorado's top-ranked prospect, has yet to narrow his list of 30-plus suitors. He's mentioned visiting NU along with Washington, Oregon, Michigan and UCLA. Having Domann and Stoll committed along with '15 signees Anderson and Eric Lee helps NU, but Kemp has a lot of options.

Bledsoe is the top prospect in Kansas and has schools like Florida State, Ohio State, Oklahoma and Oregon also on his tail. Kansas, Missouri and NU seem to lead, but it's a long way until Signing Day.

The top OT on NU's board is Matt Farniok (6-5/319) of Sioux Falls, SD. Nebraska leads, but Stanford and Iowa remain high on his list and his brothers played at Oklahoma and Iowa State. He won't decide any time soon, but this one feels like Nebraska's to lose.

Alaric Jackson (6-7/285) of Detroit, plans to visit Lincoln unofficially before the end of July after finishing up an AAU basketball tournament in Las Vegas. Last year was Jackson's first year playing high school football after being primarily a basketball player growing up. He's not going to step in and play as a freshman, but his physical potential is impressive enough to list Nebraska, Iowa, Michigan State and Wisconsin among his double-digit offers.

Two other tackle targets are Willie Allen (6-7/300) of River Ridge, LA, and Scott Lashley (6-6/298) of West Point, MS. Pulling either of them out of SEC country will be difficult. Allen has consistently mentioned Nebraska in updates, however, no visit has been scheduled, and he has taken trips to Auburn and Ole Miss with others planned for Georgia, TCU and LSU. Lashley recently listed Nebraska in his top 10, along with names like Alabama, Georgia, Auburn, Wisconsin, Florida and Florida State.

At receiver, Clyde Leflore-Chriss (6-0/170) of New Orleans, Stephen Smothers (5-11/150) of Reisterstown, MD, CJ Riley (6-5/188) of Coconut Creek, FL, and J.D. Spielman (5-8/173) of Eden Prairie, MN, are still in the picture. Chriss lists NU in his top five along with LSU, Ole Miss, Texas A&M and Texas Tech. He also has visits planned to Mississippi State and Troy. Smothers has already scheduled his official visit to Lincoln for the Nov. 7 Michigan State game. He has also scheduled trips to West Virginia and Penn State. West Virginia leads, but if Smothers visits Lincoln things could change considerably. Riley is scheduled to be in Lincoln for an unofficial visit July 20 along with his parents and sister. The stop is part of a long road trip he's taking, visiting Cincinnati, Duke, Kentucky, Pittsburgh and Vanderbilt as well. All of those schools have offered, along with West Virginia. Spielman also holds offers from Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota. He's seen Michigan unofficially, and plans trips to Baylor, UCLA, Nebraska, Iowa, Arkansas, Minnesota and Wisconsin this summer.

(TOP, clockwise from top left) Pitcher Maggie McNeely threw a two-hitter at Albion in Sunday's 5-0 title game win over Albion. Over the course of two games against the runners-up, she threw 14 innings, striking out 14 batters. McNeely pitched each of the five Travelers' victories at Hastings and fittingly ended the title game with a strikeout. McKensie Nelson's RBI double in the top of the fourth inning Saturday night against O'Neill tied the game at five. She later came in on a 2-out RBI single by Chloe Schock and FC never again trailed, bringing 10 runs across in the fifth in a 16-9 victory. From left, Mackenzie Witt (partially hidden), Teresa Morehead, Chloe Schock and Hannah Kirkendall celebrate the 5-0 state title win over Albion Sunday in Hastings.

(BOTTOM, from left) Mackenzie Witt led off two different innings by reaching and scoring runs in a 10-6 semifinal win over Albion. Morehead was 3-for-4 with three runs scored in FC's Saturday night win over O'Neill and hit a collective .545 (6-for-11) with five runs scored in the final three games.

Travelers will threaten 1,300 wins in '16, it's 20th ball season

The Falls City Travelers' 14-and-Under Softball Team beat Albion 5-0 Sunday afternoon in Hastings to win the ASA Class D State Softball Tournament. Pitcher Maggie McNeely threw her best game of a tremendous tournament in which she earned all five victories. In the championship, she faced 27 hitters, surrendering just two hits in seven complete innings.

FC entered the tourney with a pedestrian 14-12 record and its third-place league tourney finish was its best of the regular season, but Coach Rich Witt's girls got hot in Hastings. After a pair of blowout victories over Friend (13-0 and Pierce (14-2) Saturday morning, FC earned a come-from-behind 16-9 win over O'Neill that night, first overcoming an early 4-1 deficit in the third inning. With two outs and third baseman Teresa Morehead and catcher Randee Witt both on base with singles, Abbey Balfour drilled a pitch to left. It sailed over the left fielder's head and seemingly never stopped, allowing Balfour to earn a true inside-the-park homer. Two frames later, FC broke a 6-6 tie with a 10-run fifth inning explosion. Witt (3-for-4, three runs scored) and Hannah Kirkendall (who reached all four times she got up) each had two base-clearing hits in that inning and the team brought seven girls to the plate - and they all eventually scored - before O'Neill even recorded a single out.

The following morning, FC jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead on Albion in the first, as shortstop Chloe Schock hit an RBI single to score leadoff hitter and second baseman Mackenzie Witt. McNeely drove in Schock and then scored herself on an RBI double by Randee Witt. Witt, however, was stranded at third and the Travelers' bats, after Albion tied it at three apiece in the second, suddenly went silent, with the exception of Morehead's. She hit a lead-off double in the third, only to stand stranded at third three batters later. After FC went in order in the fourth, the third baseman hit a two-out single in the fifth, but was caught trying to steal second to end the inning.

FC took control in the fifth. Trailing 4-3, McNeely and Randee Witt each got one-out hits and scored on a deep drive to left by Saturday night's hero, Abbey Balfour. Nadia Klein, a substitute left fielder who last played organized softball in preschool, recorded her first official hit since T-ball, crushing a triple to left, scoring Balfour. Klein then scored on a sac fly by Kirkendall and FC suddenly led 7-4. Mackenzie Witt, Morehead, McNeely and Randee Witt then all came up with offense to produce three insurance runs in the seventh and McNeely recorded a pair of strikeouts in the bottom half to send her team to the title game.

Albion defeated O'Neill to set up a rematch with FC, but they hardly had FC Travelers 12-and-Under first baseman Evi Schock makes an outstanding catch in her team's Saturday afternoon victory at the ASA State Softball Tournament in Hastings.

Witt perhaps the very best VB defender in the country

Creighton-bound Omaha Marian All-State senior libero Brittany Witt, daughter of Tom (Cindy) Witt, of Falls City, and Tracy (Bob) Darnell-Kill, of Omaha, last month was named to the All-Tournament Team at the AAU Nationals in Orlando, FL, for the second time in three years.

up in Class A in 2012 win back-to-back state championships the past two seasons. She logged 647 digs and 644 serve receptions in 2013, and her 36 digs in the '13 final against Millard West were the most of any player in a championship match.

Brittany Witt

The 5-7 defensive specialist led the Nebraska Juniors (18s) to a sixth-place finish out of 39 teams in the open division, which is the top of four tiers. There were a total of 205 teams participating.

The senior-to-be accepted a scholarship offer from Creighton before her junior year, turning down offers from Maryland, Missouri, Long Beach State and UNO.

A four-year starter at Marian, Witt quickly established herself as one of the best defenders in the nation, helping Marian finish runner-

She only got better, recording a state-record 738 digs last fall. Witt set a school record with 47 digs in a loss against Papio and had 44 in a state tourney win over Lincoln SE. In the final, she had 33 digs to help team win a second consecutive state title.

Witt will undoubtedly finish as one of the very best in state history - and beyond.

Earlier this summer she made the USA Volleyball High Performance Team, which could lead to a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team. She is currently in Des Moines, IA, at the Women's Junior A1 National Training Team Program.

Travelers '15

enough left in the tank to touch McNeely, who tossed a two-hitter over seven innings in a 5-0 championship game victory.

The state championship was the fifth in three years and ninth overall for the Travelers program, which next summer will celebrate its 20th season.

"This was kind of a rebuilding season for us," Travelers founder and coach Carl Messner said, "with a lot of new players and a lot of young players at all age groups. We didn't field a 18-under team this year, not having any older players. But even with just four age groups we still won 82 games, finishing the season 82-49-1, and also went over the 1,200-win mark."

"I'm looking forward to next year; we will be more experienced at all ages and will have 18-and-Under again. I'm setting a goal to next year's players to win at least 90 games, so we can top the 1,300-win mark."

From July 10-12, Falls City hosted 17 teams at the 10-under Class C State Tourney at Fiedler Complex, with teams competing from as far away as North Platte, Norfolk, Wayne and Grand Island.

"We had 37 games at the complex in 2 1/2 days on three fields, making it a very busy place," Messner said. "We had nothing but compliments on our complex and our City. I want to thank all the volunteers for helping — it was a long hot weekend."

The Tournament was won by the Wayne Dirt Devils, who beat North Platte for the title.

Falls City's 10-under also competed last weekend, finishing in 7th place with a 2-2 record and finished the season 21-14.

The 16-and-Under Team, which took the '14 Class C title at Fiedler Complex, wrapped up a 21-15 season by going 1-2 at the super-difficult Class B State Tourney on Fourth of July weekend in Hastings; the 12s, also playing in Hastings last weekend (going 3-2 and finishing in a tie for ninth), posted the program's top record — 21-8-1.

MAKE IT RIGHT

The team of Bob Aitken/Falls City Mercantile, comprised of Aitken, Bill Simon, Ron Kelley and University of Nebraska No. 1 golfer Calvin Freeman, a Humboldt-TR-S graduate, shot 11-under 59 to win the Championship Flight of the fifth annual Community Medical Center Charity Golf Outing held at the Falls City Golf Club.

It was reported in the July 14 edition of The Journal that Bob Aitken/Miller-Monroe won the event. For the record, we were in no way suggesting Mike Simon was involved.

How parents can simplify students' transition to college

College is the first taste of true independence many young students experience. Whereas mom and dad were always around to make sure kids were out the door on time and homework was done, that safety blanket is no longer there once kids move into their dorm rooms.

The transition to college life can be exciting. But while students typically welcome that transition with open arms, parents often worry about how their children will handle their suddenly more independent life. Parents who want to help their kids make as smooth a transition to college life as possible can take steps during their children's senior year of high school to help them adjust to their new surroundings and responsibilities more easily.

- Let kids fly solo on school day mornings. New college students have to make many adjustments upon moving into their dorms, and getting themselves out of bed each morning and off to class on time is one such change. Parents worried that their students will sleep in when mom and dad isn't around to remind them to wake up can start letting kids fly solo on school day mornings during their final year of high school. Let kids set their alarms, prepare their own breakfasts and get out the door on time all on their own. By the time their freshman year of college arrives, kids will know how to handle their mornings by themselves.

- Teach kids how to develop budgets. Another problem many first-year college students encounter is an inability to effectively manage their money. Whether you plan to give kids an allowance while they are in school or intend for them to work part-time for their spending money, use senior year of high school as an opportunity to show kids how to budget their money. If they don't have accounts already, open bank accounts in your youngster's name, and insist that he or she start paying for his or her expenses via these accounts. Resist the urge to give high school kids gas money or money for shopping trips if they have already spent their allowances so they can learn how to effectively manage money between paydays. In addition, teach kids about the right and wrong ways to use credit cards, including the importance of paying balances in full and on time.

- Let kids handle more standard responsibilities. Adults tend to take more mundane responsibilities like making doctor's appointments or grocery shopping for granted. But kids likely have no idea how to handle such tasks. Parents can encourage their high school seniors to make their own medical appointments. In addition, take kids along on grocery shopping trips, explaining how to find sale items and which foods to buy and which to avoid. Nutrition is not always foremost on the minds of college freshmen, but those who understand the importance of healthy diets are more likely to buy nutritious meals than junk food.

- Emphasize time management. Today's high schoolers are busier than ever before, so many may already be prepared for the juggling act that is college life. But college students have more free time than their high school counterparts, so parents can emphasize the importance of managing that free time wisely as opposed to spending it lounging on the couch or napping.

The transition from high school to college can be both exciting and difficult. But parents can get a head start on that transition by encouraging their youngsters to be more independent during their final year of high school.

Bikes lead to helicopters each of past two weekends

Two Falls City residents were injured in a motorcycle accident east of Falls City just after 6 p.m. Sunday, July 19.

Jason Tilton, 36, was driving a Honda Rebel northbound on 655 Avenue, less than one mile south of Hwy. 159, when, according to the Richardson County Sheriff's Office, he lost control of the bike, left the minimum maintenance road and crashed into the east ditch.

Tilton and a passenger, 34-year-old Tara Tackett, were both taken to Community Medical Center by a personal vehicle and treated for injuries. Tilton was later transported by helicopter to another hospital.

The accident came eight days after two Sabetha, KS, men were injured in a two-bike accident that occurred as both were traveling west on Hwy. 8 at about 647 Road (less than three miles east of Salem and just east of the highway's sharp curve to the north).

The 911 call came in at 7:51 p.m. Saturday, July 11, and members of the Sheriff's Office, FC Police and FC Ambulance Squad responded. A saddle bag on the bike of Donald J. Kohake, 55, allegedly fell off his motorcycle and onto the highway, where it may have caused Jeff M. McClafferty, 31, to lose control of his motorcycle and collide into the back of Kohake's bike.

McClafferty was transported to CMC for treatment of his injuries and then taken via Life Flight to another hospital. Just after 9, Kohake was arrested on suspicion of driving under the influence of alcohol.

FC's popular "Sauce & Cycles" and TSMF "Memorial Cruise" events got hundreds of motorcycles out of their garages and onto local highways July 11.

No tornado last Wednesday, despite warnings

Last Wednesday, July 15, a line of strong storms moved through southeast Nebraska and Richardson County shortly after 9 p.m., prompting the National Weather Service to issue a tornado warning.

Trained storm spotters did not spot a tornado, contrary to popular belief, according to Richardson County Emergency Manager Brian Dixon.

The warning was issued based on what was indicated on the radar. Trained storm spotters in our area did not see any indication of a tornado. Radar, on the other hand, indicated wind rotation at high altitudes that could have possibly produced a tornado.

Residents of Falls City were confused as to why the sirens did not sound in town. Dixon said because of the small area affected, it would not have been a good idea to sound sirens for an event that was not actually taking place.

The storm, located south of Dawson, was moving in a direction that would not directly effect Falls City. Even though radar indications are not as reliable as trained storm spotters, Dixon said there are benefits to the warnings, even if they are not 100 percent sure of a definite tornado.

He said there are times where its better to be safe than sorry.

Five of Maze's short films to be shown Thursday at FC Golf Club

By Jason Schock

Local filmmaker and UNL senior Brent Scott Maze will hold a film fundraiser to help finance his latest, darkest project, Faces and Stones, this Thursday night at the Falls City Country Club.

Five short films - beginning at around dusk - will be shown (for a small donation of $1 per movie; or whatever you can afford to invest in a local artist) that have yet to be released on the Internet, including:

- Infinite, where within a series of visits to his psychiatrist, a young man finds his way to the roots of a mysterious recurring dream, but discovers much more than he bargained for;

- The Shed of Our Skin, an exhausted detective turns to a colleague for information in an attempt to finally get one step ahead of a sociopath he has been hunting for years;

- Identity of Another, this heavily stylized, neo-noir, short film examines the frantic, yet suspenseful aftermath of a young criminal's most recent hit. Through a turn of events, he is forced into impersonating the man he just disposed of;

- Ambulance, after being brutally beaten and left for dead, a wealthy playboy finds aid in a passerby with indecipherable motives; and,

- Kale and Marco Witness a Murder, in this short comedy, two young stoners accidentally become witnesses to a brutal murder. However, after being paid off by the killer with a briefcase full of cash, they have a difficult decision ahead of them.

Maze is seeking financial backing for Faces and Stones, which he hopes to start shooting at the end of next month, which happens to be the beginning of the end for him at UNL (he said he hopes to perhaps even graduate a semester early, in December). The production is larger than any of his other projects up to this point. Unlike his other films, Maze is employing others to handle shooting, lighting, etc., while he concentrates on direction.

The story is as strong as anything he's done, as well. The script centers around a young photographer/small-time weed dealer, played by Falls City native and Ambulance lead Tyler Sells ("he's my go-to guy") who takes a risk at big money in a one-time drug deal (of a hallucinogen called "2CE") that goes a bit awry. In a dark isolated mansion, the character discovers that a long-presumed dead girl is being held captive by a dirty cop and his perverted buddies. Eventually, the scene drops a level to the cellar, where a bizarre human sacrifice/acid trip/pig party is just getting good before the photog saves the day (and the girl). But due to his reputation, nobody - except, in the end, a reporter - believes him.

The latest from Brent Scott Maze will begin shooting at locations in and around both Lincoln and Falls City at the end of August.

"Exploring the life, mind and soul of the anti-hero or underdog is something I have always been and will continue to be intrigued by," he said. "I didn't purposefully write it as a horror film, but it's going to be pretty dark and twisted. Really creepy atmosphere."

Employing a crew, renting lenses and lighting gear, feeding an entire crew, costuming, props, hotels, and flying Sells to and from his new locale in Colorado will up the ante on Faces (well into the thousands of dollars). Maze hoped to perhaps use this project as his senior thesis (and thus utilize otherwise pricey UNL resources), but that idea wasn't so well-received by the upper brass, so Maze, who bristles when discussing the decision-making bureaucrats who generally yield the power in a state university setting, is left to pay the tab himself.

Perhaps adding to a restless impulse to be done with school, Maze spent a week in June at Shreveport, LA, and El Dorado, AR, working on a short film with Alexander Jeffery, a 2011 Nebraska graduate who relocated to (where else?) LA to make films. In '13, Jeffery received the Royal Reel Award at the Canada International Film Festival for his first feature film One Way.

Maze now really wants to get out there on his own. Sooner rather than later.

"We are unfortunately 'geographically handicapped' in a way, due to the fact that the film industry tends to be focused around the coasts and not the Midwest," Maze said.

"We need all the help we can get from the communities to bring a much bigger film industry presence to the heart of the country. There are stories here that need to be told. And with the help of investors and donations, we can make it happen," he said.

"I have poured so much of my beliefs and heart into this script that it has become a very substantial story that touches on deep subject matter, such as the impact and power of true love and desire, the exposition of corruption amongst the powerful, and how those who have heart can overcome even the most perilous situations," Maze said.
